CARRANZA DUE, VILLA DODGES.

Ex-Bandit Fears Juarez May Not Hold Them Both.

So He Feels Urgent Need of Hurrying to Torreon.

Relations Between Chiefs Keep Mexico Guessing.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

JUAREZ (Mex.) Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In a guarded statement to the press Gen. Villa announced this afternoon that "unfortunately" the exigencies of the present campaign would deprive him of the pleasure of remaining in Juarez and greeting Gen. Carranza and the Sonora cohorts as had been planned. On the contrary, Gen. Villa states that he now feels that his presence in Torreon is imperatively needed and that within forty-eight hours he expects to be on the way.

One phase of the situation which has not been made public is that Gen. Jesus Carranza, with an army of veteran soldiers, resented the action of Villa in calling upon the latter's Chihuahua troops to come to Juarez for the purpose of running down Castillo and other bandits.

The fact that Jesus Carranza and Gen. Pablo Gonzales stand between Villa and his proposed march to Mexico City is said to have decided Villa that the time had come for him to leave for the south.

The statement that large shipments of arms are expected by express is at least unknown to the express authorities, although it is admitted that several cases of rifle cartridges are on the road to Juarez.

During the morning Villa maintained that he intended to await the arrival of Carranza and give a public exhibition of his loyalty to the "cause."

As the day passed and messages were received from the south, the leader of therebels suddenly changed his mind and said that it would not be necessary for any one to receive Carranza and his army, as the latter undoubtedly could take care of themselves.

Considerable excitement was caused at army headquarters this afternoon by a report that unknown men were seeking to enter Mexico, and the idea was given out that these supposed filibusters were Federal soldiers disguised as citizens. Doubt exists as to the real identity of the men.

Unless Villa suddenly changes his mind there is now little doubt that Carranza will enter Juarez without opposition, and that he will establish a provisional capital at Chihuahua city.

In the meantime there are a large number of rich cities to the southward which are likely to engage the attention of Villa for some time to come. That he will remain and meet Carranza is now considered impossible, although the farce will be kept up that Villa is working under orders of the "first chief."

The newspapers that furiously denied that Carranza was coming now admit the fact, but assert that it is with Villa's knowledge and consent. Time alone will solve the question as to who is master of Northern Mexico.

YACHT TO RELIEVE A BATTLESHIP.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—After a conference today with President Wilson, Secretary Daniels ordered the Presidential yacht Mayflower to Mexican waters to relieve one of the battleships at Vera Cruz. The President has had no use for the yacht lately and boats of the gunboat class are regarded as particularly useful in Mexican waters because of their light draft.

Capt. Harry McL. P. Huse will go on the Mayflower to become chief of staff to Admiral Fletcher.

The Mayflower will be away two months.

The State Department has not been moved by the inquiries of any foreign governments as to the sending of a marine force up to the Mexican capital. It is said that such a step is regarded as unnecessary at this time.

Cattlemen Say Impost on Cattle Exported Over Border Means Death to Business.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DOUGLAS (Ariz.) Feb. 17.—Local cattlemen expect that the Sonora export tax which has just gone into effect, imposing a fee averaging $10 gold on each head of cattle crossing the border, will mean death to the cattle exportation business. This duty is more than double the import collected by the United States customs before the recent tariff.

Butchers along the border say they will have to use domestic instead of imported beef hereafter, sending buyers to the Imperial Valley in California, to Oklahoma and Texas. It is understood that cattlemen who had already bought stock and had their cattle on the way to the border at the time the order was published will make a protest.

AN AMERICAN MADERO.

First Member of the Family to Be Born Outside of Mexico for Nearly a Centuary Arrives in New Jersey.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EAST ORANGE (N. J.) Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The first member of the Madero family of Mexico to be born outside that republic in nearly a century came into the world on February 3, when a boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Madero at East Orange, N. J., it was learned today. Madero, who is a wealthy mining engineer, is an uncle of the murdered president of Mexico.

Madero was the first of the family to take up a residence in East Orange following exile from Mexico. Since then six other members of the family have made this city their home.

To Spend Honeymoon in Levant.

Duke and Duchess of Durazzo,

Principals in a society wedding in New York yesterday, the bride being 55 and the groom not yet 40. The couple will spend their honeymoon aboard John H. Hanan's yacht in the Mediterranean, after a short trip south.

Romance.

MILLIONAIRE'S SISTER WEDS ITALIAN NOBLEMAN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A charming romance of the blue Levant cluminated today in the marriage of Miss Elisabeth Frances Hanan, sister of John H. Hanan, millionaire shoe magnate, and the Duke Arturo di Majo Durazzo of Italy. Despite some disparity in their ages, Miss Hanan being 55 and the Duke not yet 40, society united in terming the union a matrimonial idyl.

The ceremony was held at noon in St. Thomas's Church. The Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires officiated and a reception and breakfast at the home of Mr. Hanan, No. 1073 Fifth avenue, followed. At the church there was a full choral service and Mr. Noble, formerly of Yorke Cathedral, England, presided at the organ.

Mrs. John Henry Hanan, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor, and the other attendants were Mrs. Jerome Wagner, Mrs. Alfred P. Hanan, Jr., Mrs. James Taylor Hanan and Miss Hazel Agatha Hanan, all nieces of the bride.

G. Forni, Italian Consul-General in New York, served as best man as proxy for the Duke's uncle, Count Gactani di Laurenzana.

The Duke and his bride will spend a part of their honeymoon in the South, and on March 4 they will sail for Naples, where they will board Mr. Hana's yacht, the Surf, for a cruise in the Mediterranean. It was on board this yacht the couple first met along the Levantine shores in the summer of 1912. The Duke is a son of Marquis Francesco Demaio Durazzo, who died two years ago. The title of the Durazzo family dates back to 1272.

EARNS NINETEEN MILLIONS ON CALIFORNIA OIL WELLS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—The annual statement of the Standard Oil Company of California for the year 1913 was made public today. The report shows a net earning for the year of $19,386,140.46, the increase of net profits over those of the year 1912 amounting to $12,279,-984.29.

During the year 1913, dividends at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum have been paid quarterly on the issued capital stock, amounting to $4,493,399.40, and the surplus account for the year has been increased $14,892,741.06.

The estimates for the new construction for the coming year will entail an approximate expenditure of about $5,000,000, covering a new tank steamer to duplicate the Richmond; 3,000,000 barrels steel tankage for additional storage, increased capacity for refineries and pipe lines and for additional marketing stations on the Pacific Coast.

COST OF FAIRY TALES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—For telling tales which cost Charles Tielenius the affection and the society of his wife, a Supreme Court jury today directed Frederick Hollender, a wealthy Brooklyn brewer, to pay the injured husband $25,000. Tielenius sued for $200,000. He alleged that Hollender, who is 73 years old, slandered him by telling Mrs. Tielenius of Tielenius's alleged attentions to other women.

Witnesses from Various Points in Country Testify Against an Alleged Fraud by Faker.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LINCOLN (Neb.) Feb. 17.—Witnesses from New York City, Seattle, Wash.; Sacramento, Cal.; Red Lodge, Mont.; Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Deadwood, S. D., and Omaha were in the Federal Court today to testify in the case of the United States against Ray C. Boyer of Lincoln. Boyer is charged with selling imitation elk teeth to a number of jewelers as genuine and is charged with having used the mails in carrying out his alleged scheme to defraud.

THE GOVERNOR'S VIOLATION OF LAW.

GOV. HIRAM JOHNSON, who is shooting about the State with his tricky oratorical batteries trying to stem the rising tide of true Republicanism that is certain to overwhelm his personally conducted political machine on November 3, blusteringly denies that he is on a junket at the taxpayers' expense and is brazenly violating the provisions of the high-sounding "DIRECT PRIMARY LAW" that he and his cohorts prate about.

Yes, Johnson denies in his inimitable bulldozing way that he is on a campaign junket at the dear peepul's expense but he frankly admits, "I am on a lecture tour." And a LECTURE TOUR is what the "Progressive" scentlets name it. A "lecture tour," eh?

On what circuit, if you please, Gov. Johnson, and who PAID you to close up the Governor's office in the Capitol building at Sacramento to enable you to parade for weeks about California with your hand-picked running mate, John Eshleman, to whisper to ward bosses and deliver clap-trap, catch-phrase speeches extolling your political machine?

"Lecture tour," well, my word! Did Oscar Hammerstein contract with you to lecture on that heart-throbbing subject, "Why Guy Eddie made chorus girls wear hoop skirts instead of tights?" No! Are you lecturing under the auspices of Ringling Brothers three-ringed circus? No! Did Impressario Len Behymer sign you at five cents a muddy word to prima donna around at political meetings warbling golden-throated notes from mahogany lecture platforms? No! Did Hen Berry sign you to tell the baseball fans that the Federal League stands as much show of getting anywhere as the "Progressive" party? No!

Then the dear peepul, the taxpayers, who pay you $10,000 a year (Eshleman $10,000) and furnish you with household and automobile expenses to stay on the job at Sacramento and manage affairs of State, must have signed a contract with you to deliver these so-called lectures. "Most surely they did," is Johnson's reply in the Armageddon press. What a joke! Yes, and a very serious joke, if you please, loyal and patriotic Californians.

Here we have a Governor and the head of the Railroad Commission, each receiving $10,000 a year from the hard-working men and women taxpayers of the State, already picked, slated and bottled by the bosses as the "Progressive" candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, deliberately closing up their offices to gallivant around the highways and byways delivering red bandanna speeches, lauding their administration and asking for the votes of the people.

Who contracted with Johnson and Eshleman to LECTURE TO THE PEOPLE OF CALIFORNIA? Who did it?

E. T. EARL, MEYER LISSNER, GUY EDDIE, STATE SENATOR HENRY LYON AND OTHER EMINENT FRIENDS OF THE COMMON PEOPLE.

Why?

To encourage (if possible) the shaky and wobbly members of the rapidly-dwindling "Progressive" herd of fake reformers and hypocrites and drive them to the registration polls. Johnson realizes he is doomed and so do Earl and Lissner and the other self-constituted bosses of the so-called Progressive party. The Johnson-Eshleman lecture tour was the last straw. The straw failed to work. Johnson and Eshleman and the side-show barkers of Armageddon faith junketing with them have been midst our mongst over a week and the Republican registration figures in towns and cities visited by the distinguished lecturers have increased by leaps and bounds and the "Progressive" registration has shown a marked falling off. Johnson's mud batteries and tricky platform epigrams fooled thousands in 1910, but never again. By a "strange coincidence" Johnson and Eshleman lectured six times in San Diego where the real Republicans are leading the would-be destroyers about eight to one. He lectured in back alleys, back rooms, on the street corners, any old place he could find a gang willing to hear him. And the day following the arrival of the lecturers 890 Republicans registered in San Diego against 101 "Progressives."

And what about the DIRECT PRIMARY LAW Johnson and Eshleman are lauding to the skies at their six or seven night stands?

That's just the question the honest and level-headed citizens of California want "Gov. Hiram Johnson and Railroad Commissioner John Eshleman, our great and glorious candidates," to answer.

What about the DIRECT PRIMARY LAW?

When did the people by their votes select Johnson and Eshleman to head the "Progressive" ticket? According to the YOUNG ELECTION LAW PASSED BY JOHNSON'S puppets in the Legislature the PRIMARY ELECTION to enable the people to pick their candidates is to be held on August 25, 1914. Again we ask who picked Hiram Johnson and John Eshleman? Yes, and who named F. J. O'Brien of Chico to run for Secretary of State on the "Progressive" ticket? Yes, and who picked U. S. Webb to run for Attorney-General on the "Progressive" ticket? Yes, and who picked Friend W. Richardson to run for State Printer on the "Progressive" ticket? Yes, and who picked Allison Ware to run for Superintendent of Public Instruction on the "Progressive" ticket?

We know the people did not. Then WHO DID NOMINATE these candidates that are NOW BEING BOOSTED on mimeograph campaign letters being mailed by thousands from the "Progressive" State and County Central Committee headquarters, the only official and legal organizations of the so-called "Progressive" party?

And a few hours ago a banner bearing the names of Johnson and Eshleman as the candidates of the "Progressive" party was flung to the breeze from the "Progressive" County Central Committee headquarters at Broadway and Second streets in Los Angeles.

In every speech delivered by Johnson and Eshleman in their "lecture tour" each candidate has devoted more attention to the manifold merits of the direct primary law than any other high-sounding "Progressive" measure. And hundreds of unthinking people have cheered and applauded the tricky platform orators' remarks.

In direct (primary) contrast to the noisy and vituperative Johnson and mushy Eshleman is the position of the hundreds of thousands in the Republican party in California. No candidates have been named by two or three political editors of scentlet sheets to lead or run on the Grand Old Party ticket this year. Real Republicans, no matter how strongly they may disagree with features of the direct primary law, are showing their American spirit by observing the provisions of the law. Three years ago there were several Republican candidates in the race for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor. Johnson and "Limitation" Wallace were the Lissner-Earl hand-picked candidates for those two offices. Several stalwart Republicans are mentioned for Governor this year, but where is the boss or set of bosses or back-room newspaper editors who will dare announce to the people of California that such and such men will run on the Republican ticket this year. Republicans don't do business in that fashion. And neither do the Democrats.

By the way, Johnson's secretary, Al McCabe, a notorious political acrobat, who has run errands in his time for Populists, Democrats, Republicans and now "Progressives," is with the Governor on his lecture tour. McCabe draws $6000 a year from the people's treasury, but NOT to glad-hand ward bosses and fix his chief's fences in the towns and cities of California.

"Ladies and gentlemen, it gives me unstinted pleasure to introduce to you tonight that great reformer, that noted humanitarian, the inventor of the dear pee-pul,' Hiram Johnson, who will lecture to you on the DIRECT PRIMARY LAW and the PEOPLE SHALL RULE."

On with the uplift.

Senate May Take Up Bill on Exemption Repeal.

Tomorrow Set for Discussion of Arbitration Pacts.

O'Gorman Will Lead Fight on President's Plan.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Senate may not wait for action in the House before taking consideration the question of repealing the tolls-exemption section of the Panama Canal act, it became known today. It was stated by Senators who have been urged by wire and letter to act, but has told friends he will not be tempted. It was widely reported today that Caminetti had given the administration circles by his testimony before the House Committee on Immigration on the Asiatic exclusion question and he might be asked to resign. He denied that anything of the kind had been said before the committee appointed by the Japanese and said he was a friend of the Hindus.

Caminetti has taken a stand for Asiatic exclusion and for restriction of immigration. It is well known in the administration circles that the administration does not favor repeal, but it is not likely Caminetti will be asked to resign.

GRAND INQUEST.

Congressman of Iowa, Proposes Congressional Investigation of Railroad's Financial History.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Another railroad finance investigation was proposed in the House today by Representative Green of Iowa, who introduced a resolution requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate the financial operations of the railroad companies controlling the Grand Railroad.

The resolution requests information regarding the financial operations by which the Grand and allied holding companies have profited, as to the money since spent for improvements, results obtained as to the interests of the public connected with the companies in question, and as to the railroad.

The resolution was referred to the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, which tomorrow will open hearings on the proposal to give the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to supervise railroad securities issues.

NOTICE FOR COMPROMISE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Feeling over the tolls settlement in the Senate is now centered for the repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama canal act. President Wilson has called his attention to the situation in the Senate where a stiff fight may develop and will confer tomorrow with Representative Underwood, who has been claimed as a supporter by both opponents of repeal.

Representatives Covington and Alexander of the House Commerce Committee, have submitted a proposition to confine the exemption to coastwise ships engaged "exclusively" in coastwise shipping. They have told President intimations were conveyed in the diplomatic correspondence that Great Britain might not object to exempting American coastwise shipping, provided a distinction were made between coastwise shipping and the carrying of cargoes from foreign ports to the United States in American ships as coastwise trade.

It is not known definitely what attitude the President would take on the new feature, but indications are that he would adhere to his original policy of endeavoring to have the proposed clause eliminated entirely.

GRAND INQUEST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Another railroad finance investigation was proposed in the House today by Representative Green of Iowa, who introduced a resolution requesting the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate the financial operations of the railroad companies controlling the Grand Railroad.

The resolution requests information regarding the financial operations by which the Grand and allied holding companies have profited, as to the money since spent for improvements, results obtained as to the interests of the public connected with the companies in question, and as to the railroad.

The resolution was referred to the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, which tomorrow will open hearings on the proposal to give the Interstate Commerce Commission authority to supervise railroad securities issues.

NOTICE FOR COMPROMISE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Feeling over the tolls settlement in the Senate is now centered for the repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama canal act. President Wilson has called his attention to the situation in the Senate where a stiff fight may develop and will confer tomorrow with Representative Underwood, who has been claimed as a supporter by both opponents of repeal.

Representatives Covington and Alexander of the House Commerce Committee, have submitted a proposition to confine the exemption to coastwise ships engaged "exclusively" in coastwise shipping. They have told President intimations were conveyed in the diplomatic correspondence that Great Britain might not object to exempting American coastwise shipping, provided a distinction were made between coastwise shipping and the carrying of cargoes from foreign ports to the United States in American ships as coastwise trade.

It is not known definitely what attitude the President would take on the new feature, but indications are that he would adhere to his original policy of endeavoring to have the proposed clause eliminated entirely.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—President Wilson appointed today the commission authorized by Congress to investigate and report on vocational education. He named United States Senators Hoke Smith, Georgia, and C. S. Page, Vermont; Representatives D. M. Hughes, Georgia, and F. D. Fess, Ohio; C. A. Trotter, secretary National Society for the Promotion of Industrial Education, New York; John A. Lapp, legislative reference librarian, Indianapolis; C. H. Winslow, Department of Labor, Washington, D. C.; Miss Florence Marshall, principal Manhattan Trade School for Girls, New York City, and Miss Agnes Nestor, Chicago, formerly president of the International Glove Makers Union.

The bill authorizing the creation of the commission provides that it shall report a plan by December 1, or as soon as practicable thereafter, for national aid to vocational education. An appropriation of $15,000 is made available by the act to defray traveling expenses and incidental costs of the proposed investigation.

The commission was advocated by the labor leaders in Congress and its report is expected to be made the foundation of legislation. A commission named recently by the American Federation of Labor was instructed to co-operate in its work with the Federal commission.

BEWILDERED BY WILSON.

TALK OF PASSING A BILL OVER HIS VETO.

Opposition of the President to the Literacy Test of the Immigration Bill Amazes Senate Committeemen. First Brush of the Legislative and Executive Branches Seems Due.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Information that President Wilson would veto the immigration bill if it is sent to him from Congress with the literacy test provision has amazed members of the Senate Immigration Committee.

Many of them confessed tonight they were bewildered, inasmuch as they had determined to retain the literacy test in their draft of the measure as it passed the House, under the impression that the President would accept the bill if it passed the Senate.

Two weeks ago the committee directed Senator Smith of South Carolina, chairman, to consult with the President on immigration legislation. It was said today that the members especially desired to learn whether the veto power might be directed at the illiteracy provision of the Burnett bill. Some of the Senators were inclined to the belief that it would be a waste of time to take up consideration of immigration reform at all, if the restrictive literacy test again would fail. They were committed to that provision as a beneficial form of restriction, had voted for it twice before and felt constrained to insist upon it again, but did not want to waste the time of a busy Congress should there be a possibility of immigration legislation again falling under the executive ax.

Senator Smith reported that while the President did not look upon the literacy test with favor, he would sign the bill if it passed the Senate. Upon that basis the committee began its test. Now the members are inclined to stand by their guns despite the President's attitude, certain that the measure can pass the Senate and not at all sure that it might not repass both houses by a two-thirds vote over the head of the President. The Senate repassed a similar bill over President Taft's veto, but it failed in the House.

BELIEVES IN SMALL LEASES.

Lane Would Open Alaska Coal Lands to Operators With Reservations for the Government.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The best policy in making Alaskan coal available would be to open the lands under a leasing system, Secretary Lane told the House Public Lands Committee today, allowing limited areas to small coal operators with reservations of 5120 acres in the Bering River coal tract and 7680 acres in the Matanuska fields for government purposes.

Secretary Lane declared the Pacific Coast was calling upon Congress to open a great supply of fuel and that the withdrawal of the Alaskan coal lands had been cruel and unjust. He charged that withdrawal of the immense coal land area when men sought to evade the law, had resulted in one-half of the 1129 claims there being declared fraudulent.

BRANDEIS DECLINES AGAIN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. — Gov. Walsh of Massachusetts conferred here today with Louis B. Brandeis of Boston, urging him to serve on the board of trustees to take over the Boston and Maine stock held by the New Haven, and dispose of it to new owners as a part of the breaking of the New England transportation monopoly, but Brandeis again declined to do so.

LARGER MERCHANT MARINE.

SIXTY-NINE MORE VESSELS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17. — Sixty-nine vessels of various types, with a gross tonnage of 21,851, were added to the merchant marine of the United States during January, compared with seventy-one vessels of 24,402 gross tons built during January, 1913, and eighty-seven vessels of 22,881 tons in December, 1913.

WARNS THE DEMOCRATS.

DANGER OF MORE TRUSTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Charles Dushkind of New York, representing a committee of ten independent tobacco manufacturers, asked the House Judiciary Committee today to let the Sherman law alone and said the trouble was the lack of enforcement of the present law. He contended that any attempt to define the law's provisions further might increase trusts and monopolies and produce more litigation.

CAPITAL TRIBUTE TO BACON.

All Branches of Officialdom Pay Last Honors to Senator—Wilson Is Unable to Attend.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Last tribute to the late Senator Augustus O. Bacon of Georgia was paid today by the representatives in Washington of the American people and foreign nations.

Funeral services were held in the Senate chamber as an unusual honor to the dead statesman, and joining the houses of Congress in the tribute were the justices of the Supreme Court, members of the President's Cabinet, the diplomatic corps, officers of the army and navy, and others high in official life.

Solemn and impressive as the services were, they were brief, and within thirty minutes after Vice-President Marshall opened the ceremonies, the Senate adjourned as a further mark of respect. Then the body was placed on a train for Atlanta, where tomorrow it will lie in state at the Georgia capital. On the train were members of special Senate and House committees and the sergeants-at-arms and secretary of the Senate.

It was an impressive assembly that gathered in the Senate chamber for the funeral. The bright uniforms of the members of the diplomatic corps were missing, the only touch of color in the chamber being the uniforms of Gen. Wood of the army and Rear-Admiral Vreeland of the navy.

The President was prevented from attending by the cold that has confined him to the White House for several days.

WOULD CURB MISSISSIPPI.

Head of American Red Cross Suggests National Scheme of Flood Control.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—"The Mississippi River should not become our sorrow, as the Yellow River, with its history of 2500 years of disastrous floods, has come to be known as China's sorrow," Miss Mabel T. Boardman of the American Red Cross told the Senate Commerce Committee today, speaking for a national scheme of flood control on the Mississippi. The Red Cross had no specific plan, but urged a broad national movement as the only solution of the problem. State and community protection had proved a failure, she said, and added that within the last six years the Red Cross had spent nearly $4,000,000 for relief along the Mississippi and Ohio.

Miss Boardman said the attention of the Red Cross had been directed to the possibility of relieving China of flood disasters when it was called on last year to expend more than $600,000 for relief work there. She detailed the plan for a $20,000,000 loan to be spent by American engineers on the Yellow River.

FIVE CITIES PROTEST.

Effort to Prevent Abolishment of Indian Warehouses Fails, But Is to Be Reopened.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—An effort to strike from the pending Indian appropriation bill a provision to abolish the five Indian warehouses maintained by the government for the purchase and storage of Indian supplies failed today in the house. The warehouses are located in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Omaha and San Francisco.

Representatives from these cities who protested against the provision expect to reopen the fight tomorrow. Detailed consideration of the Indian bill took up the entire day in the House.

LETS NAVY CONTRACTS.

Secretary Daniels Accepts Bids of Government Plants at Boston and Philadelphia.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Contracts were awarded today by Secretary Daniels to the Boston navy yard for the construction of a supply ship at $1,171,713, and to the Philadelphia navy yard for a transport at $1,363,-305. The government plants submitted estimates considerably below the bids from private shipbuilders seeking the contracts.

These vessels will be the first of their types ever built for the navy. Their designs were developed to embody military characteristics recommended by the navy general board.

BRYAN MISSES CLARK DINNER.

The Wilsons Are Hosts at Final State Dinner of the Winter at the White House.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The President and Mrs. Wilson were hosts tonight at the final State dinner of the winter at the White House. Speaker Champ Clark was the guest of honor. In the absence from the city of Mrs. Clark, the Speaker was accompanied by Miss Clark. Miss Wilson, daughter of the President, rendered several numbers of a musical that followed. The guests included:

The Speaker of the House and Miss Clark, Senator and Mrs. Borah, Idaho; Senator and Mrs. Kenyon, Iowa; Senator and Mrs. Poindexter, Washington; Senator and Mrs. Sutherland, Utah; Representative and Mrs. William Kent, California.

ELECTRIC COLLIER A SUCCESS.

The Jupiter Makes More Than a Knot Above Her Contract Speed Off California.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The new electrically-driven collier Jupiter has scored a signal success on her trial trip just completed off the California coast. Though rated as a fourteen-knot boat she maintained an average speed of 15.1 for forty-eight hours, her electrical machinery developing 6940 horse power.

Electric propulsion is being tried by the navy for the first time on the Jupiter, and the department officials are pleased with the result. The excellent performance may have an important effect on future naval construction.

Germs Made Harmless

Rich red blood is the power that keeps the human body in order. Every day many germs of disease enter our bodies, but they are made harmless and passed off if the fighting forces of the body are in good condition. Dr. Williams's Pink Pills build up the blood, enable it to absorb more oxygen, the agent which burns up the body poisons. In this way Dr. Williams's Pink Pills are not only a tonic but a specific for the host of diseases that come as a result of thin blood and that can get a foothold only when the tone of the body is low.

Try Dr. Williams's Pink Pills for anaemia, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, sciatica. Build up your blood and note how the pure, and richer blood fights your battle against the disease. Take Dr. Williams's Pink Pills as a tonic. If you are not in the best physical condition, and cultivate a resistance that with the observance of ordinary rules of health will keep you well and strong. Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

She is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. It is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It has a wonderful influence, allays all fear, banishes all pain, is a grateful encouragement to the expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and, in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women.

This splendid remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle. Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 232 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

"Ragged Edge Club" Provides the Music at Funeral of a Woman Editor Who Had Requested It.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The little German band which Mrs. Zoe Anderson Norris loved, played at her funeral on the East Side this afternoon just as the dead magazine editor had requested in a remarkable prophecy of her death which she wrote in her magazine, "The East Side."

Although her relatives, who came to the funeral, objected at first to the band, the Ragged Edge Club saw to it that the last wish of its founder was carried out.

The King's physician said no grave consequences were likely to ensue from the accident.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

NAPLES (Italy) Feb. 17.—Two pictures by Raphael, hitherto attributed to "Perugino's pupil," have been discovered in the National Museum here by the director, Prof. Vittorio Spinazzola. The two pictures represent the Virgin Mary and St. Joseph and were originally painted for the Church of St. Augustine and Citta di Castello. They were taken by the French during the Napoleonic epoch, but were left in the French Church of St. Louis at Rome, whence the King of Naples rescued them after the Restoration.

Prof. Spinazzola says the pictures are youthful productions of Raphael, who was a pupil of Pietro Vannucci Perugino.

CANADA IMMIGRATION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OTTAWA (Ont.) Feb. 17. — The total immigration to Canada during the first ten months, April to January of the current fiscal year, was 356,431, made up of 135,179 British, 93,929 Americans and 127,313 from all other countries. These figures were given today by the Department of the Interior.

During the corresponding ten months of the last fiscal year, the total number was 344,983, composed of 130,509 British, 118,826 Americans and 95,648 from all other countries. The increase is 3 per cent.

Railroads Announce Holders of Colonist Tickets Can Continue Privilege in Western States.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ten-day stopover privileges have been allowed by the Western Passenger Association on all one-way colonist tickets for the spring colonist movement, which will begin on March 15. The privilege was obtained through the insistence of Passenger Traffic Manager Wadleigh of the Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad, who argued that the revocation of the former stopovers last year was an injustice.

Holders of these tickets can now stop over at Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo, Privo, Salt Lake and Ogden, and at any point in Colorado, Utah, Neada and California along the line of these companies.

The action of the Western Association was made public here today for the first time.

BRITISH TEACHERS' STRIKE BLUFFS SCHOOL BOARD.

[BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Striking teachers of the elementary schools in the county of Hereford won today their fight for a minimum salary, and the strike, which started on February 2, was declared off.

The National Union of Teachers, which had guaranteed its members full salary for a period of five years, succeeded in forcing the education department of the country to grant substantial increases. The teachers had demanded a minimum salary of $500 per annum instead of $450. When they struck on February 2, eighty of the 120 schools under the jurisdiction of the council were closed and the educational work of the county was stopped except in a few cases where head masters, assisted by their families, made an effort to continue it.

James Corner, vice-president of the Herefordshire County Council, resigned today because of his opposition to "surrender" to the teachers.

TO BE as good as our fathers, we must be better than our fathers.

Distance lends enchantment — both ways. We are as apt to be over-reverential of things past, as extravagant in picturing things to come. Appreciation is dormant and criticism works overtime on the things at hand.

"Bostonians" are better shoes than any manufacturer could produce ten years ago. They incorporate every improvement that has been made in a great industry where progress has been monumental, and YET—"Bostonians" are sold at ordinary prices.

"Bostonians" are modern shoes designed for particular men. Spring 1914 models are ready NOW!

Excitement Intense!

Big Sensation on Spring St.

Excitement is running high over the prospects of a sensational sale of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothcraft and other well-known makes of Men's Suits and Overcoats at 323 South Spring Street, the Retail Department of the Palace Clothing Co.

We believe that many of these famous brands of men's clothing will be sold at a lower price than ever before in Los Angeles. Ordinarily it would never be possible to make such low prices, but an exceptional reason allows them to do so.

Having purchased the entire stock and fixtures of the Rice-Stearns Co. of Hanford, Cal., the Palace Clothing Co. found a fine selection of these famous suits in the stock and made two shipments to their store in Los Angeles.

The first shipment was promptly and eagerly purchased by men of Los Angeles and the second shipment is now on sale.

As the price paid for this stock was only about 50 per cent of the regular wholesale price, you are offered many bargains for about the usual wholesale cost. Judging by the rapidity with which the first lot was purchased, the balance will be in the store but a few days.

Don't make the mistake of waiting until the latter part of the week. If you really want a suit or two of these well-known values at these extraordinarily low prices, better come early.

Remember, every price is so low you could hardly believe they could be placed on such wonderful values.

Read the prices quoted below and be on hand early. The store opens at 8 a.m.

Here's my proposition!

on Palisades property that I own outright!

I offer my genuine Palisades homesites at a third to a half under adjoining property. I want you to deal directly with me and save agent's commission. This is, to my best knowledge, the most radical money-saving high-class real estate offering in Southern California.

Homesites as low as $1300 and up—$325 cash — balance in one, two and three years.

—when you see my property—when you see that wonderful view—the hundred varying tints of the ocean—picturesque Santa Monica canyon with the stately gray hedge of mountains at the north—

—when you see the $10,000 to $25,000 homes that practically adjoin me, lots worth $5000 to $10,000—you'll realize this exceptional opportunity.

Improvements and conveniences are equal to those in any of America's most exclusively high class residence districts.

—and then there's that ever-present, bracing tang of the fresh sea air—like a draught of sparkling wine.

There is only one Palisades. These homesites will soon be beyond the reach of all but the very wealthy. They're selling fast. Only a few left. Clip out and use the complimentary ticket.

This opportunity will be gone—like others have gone—before you know it. Increase in land values is making some men rich. Use the ticket—ride with me FREE.

TWO HOME WOMEN TALKED ABOUT HAIR

Two women met in our store the other day, when one of them said:

"My, how pretty your hair looks! What have you been doing to it?"

"Why, I have been using Harmony Hair Beautifier for the past two weeks," was the reply.

"Why, indeed!" replied the first woman, "that is just what I am using. Isn't it great, and don't you think my hair shows a lot of improvement?"

Harmony Hair Beautifier is becoming all the rage among both men and women who are particular in the care of their hair. It is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It seems to polish and burnish the hair, making it glossy, silky-soft, and more easy to put up in graceful, wavy folds that "stay put." Contains no oil, and will not change color of hair nor darken it. Simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it.

To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous, rich, foaming lather that immediately penetrates to every part of the hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. It is washed off just as quickly, the entire operation taking only a few moments. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7000 Rexall stores, and in this town only by us.—The Owl Drug Company—five stores—Broadway and 5th, 425 Broadway, 3rd and Spring, 7th and Hill, 5th and Spring.

TAKE THIS MAN'S ADVICE

Try the Great Kidney Remedy

It always gives me pleasure to recommend anything that is right, and so I feel it my duty to herald the praises of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

For years I was troubled with kidney disease and it was so intense that I was bedridden for days at a time. I gave up all hope and doctors for miles around gave me no help. Incidentally I tried several patent remedies and at last tried Swamp-Root. From the first it gave me relief and it was no time before I was able to be up and around, and now I am perfectly well and able to work as I used to before my terrible sickness.

So now let me thank you for your wonderful discovery and take this opportunity to recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.

Yours very truly,
WALTER SHIVER,
Hope, Ark.

Miss Hollander's Murder Is Laid on Old Suitor.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AURORA (Ill.) Feb. 17.—Anthony Petras, charged with clubbing to death 20-year-old Theresa Hollander, his former sweetheart, repeated tonight his declarations of innocence. Miss Hollander was found last night in St. Nicholas Cemetery after her aged parents had followed footprints in the snow from a street corner near their home to the lonely burial ground.

Petras eyed with apprehension tonight a crowd of men and women around the jail striving for a chance to look at the prisoner. Hearing his outcries, the police drove his tormentors away.

The Coroner's jury adjourned until Thursday morning after going to the cemetery to look among the tombstones for evidence of the crime. A gold watch found near the body was said to have belonged to Miss Hollander.

Petras admitted having taken the same street car on which Miss Hollander started to return to her home from a lodge meeting. Confronted by a negro Walter Heckmann, who said that he saw Petras get off the car a block beyond where Miss Hollander left it and run back to where she got off, Petras charged the negro with telling an untruth to create a sensation.

Petras suggested that three negroes who went to the penitentiary for robbing him may have conspired with Hickman to testify against him. He also suggested that incendiaries suspected of having set fire to a house two blocks from the cemetery had run upon Miss Hollander in their flight and had killed her.

A theory of the police that Petras wanted Miss Hollander married to a man of his choice in order to see her unhappily married, he characterized as foolishness.

"I didn't care who she married," he said. "I didn't care if she never got married. I never cared a great deal for her and I was happily married last September."

The police attach much significance to a remark Petras is reputed to have made to Coroner Norton.

"It looks bad for you Tom," said Norton.

"Nobody saw it," Petras is said to have replied.

THEORY OF POLICE.

Petras met Miss Hollander last night and upbraided her for not marrying another suitor when he favored, according to the police. In their effort to fasten the crime on Petras the police advanced the theory that, although Petras abandoned his own suit to Miss Hollander and married another girl several months ago, he still was determined to compel her to marry a man he picked out for here. The police declared that Petras was actuated by revengeful motives on the idea that Miss Hollander would be unhappy in marrying the other man. According to the girl's father Petras was in a rage last night because of Miss Hollander's indifference to his marriage and refusal to marry the man whom Petras hoped would make her unhappy.

Hollander and his daughter went to a lodge meeting together after Miss Hollander had recounted the conversation to him, according to the statement made by Hollander. In spite of the fact that he said he was alarmed at Petras's alleged conversation with his daughter, Hollander permitted her to go home alone. When he arrived home later she had not returned and after an hour he set out to search for her.

He found tracks in the snow which turned back toward the cemetery and there he came on the battered body. His wife, who had followed him part way in her night dress, fainted when Hollander told her the girl was dead.

Congressman Curry of California Declares Officers Object to Mare Island Dock Location.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The naval appropriation bill, with its $145,000,000 appropriation, was before the House Naval Committee today for final determination of what is to be the administration construction programme.

Two battleships and accompanying small craft have been recommended by Secretary Daniels and are understood to have the indorsement of President Wilson.

The Senate bill for creating six vice-admirals, Secretary Daniels's proposal for a government armor-plate factory and many other administration proposals were up for action.

Representative Curry of California told the committee today that naval officers objected to a dry dock at Mare Island Navy Yard because of its inaccessibility to the clubs and social centers of San Francisco. He insisted on his assertion being put into the record.

The committee deferred considering restoring the grade of vice-admiral until after the appropriation bill is disposed of.

to Stockholm and now filling a similar office in Bulgaria, is declared to have understood well and taken an active part in this espionage. Nobody else has done so much to impair the relations between Sweden and Russia, and it probably was he, more than any other, who contributed to the divorce of Prince William of Sweden and Princess Mary of Russia. But the center of Russian espionage in the Scandinavian countries has been in Copenhagen and the chief spy is said to have been a Russian officer of Danish extraction. At present a lawsuit is in progress in Sweden against a Danish lieutenant named Frederiksen, who was convicted of spying for Russia in the neighborhood of Sweden's strongest fort, Boden.

TIMELY PREPARATIONS.

It is not surprising, then, that Sweden wishes to be on its guard and make timely preparations. Voices have been raised in favor of Sweden's joining the triple alliance, but Sweden desires to retain full independence and liberty of action and is prepared to continue its policy, which is based on firm neutrality backed up with military strength.

All talk about Sweden's arming in order to attack Russia in alliance with Germany is mere nonsense. Sweden will remain on friendly terms with Russia as well as with every other country. The Russian market is of great importance to Swedish exporters, and the Russians personally have great sympathy with Sweden.

SWEDEN ARMS HERSELF.

The country is arming simply to meet any danger from any quarter—east, west or south. This is the kernel of the entire Swedish defense movement, and no Swede, not even the greatest Chauvinist, has any other opinion. All the parties—Conservatives, Liberals and Socialists—agree as to the necessity of a strong national defense. The only difference is that the Conservatives and Liberals reckon with realities and are prepared to make sacrifices, while the social democrats and other radicals believe that an effective defense can be obtained without money and without training.

CONGRESSMAN VISITS CAMPS.

FINDS PASS IS REQUIRED TO DRIVE AROUND.

Representative Evans of the House Committee Investigating Conditions in Colorado Sees for Himself How Things Are in the Ludlow Tent Colony.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TRINIDAD (Colo.) Feb. 17.—Representative John M. Evans, a member of the subcommittee of the House Mines Committee, investigating the coal strike, visited today the Ludlow tent colony of strikers and the Hastings and Berwind mining camps, incognito and talked with participants of various armed classes.

When entering the canyon to the Berwind mine the machine was halted by an armed guardsman who was told the party wished to drive around the camp.

"The lieutenant will fix you up," said the guardsman; "you've got to have a pass."

Evans plodded across the railroad track to the military headquarters and confronted Lieut. Lawrence. "My name's Evans," explained the Montana representative, and he gave assurance the party wished only to drive through the camp and out again, whereupon he received a pass to leave the camp.

At the Ludlow tent colony Evans's first welcome chilled until he revealed his identity, whereupon the manager of the strikers' camp gave him an account of events there.

Evans returned in time to attend the afternoon session at Trinidad, at which Mrs. Rose Jones of Sopris testified when she applied for money orders at the Sopris postoffice, in the company's store, she was given Colorado Fuel and Iron Company orders instead, although she said she insisted on postoffice money orders.

Mario Zamboni, 18 years old, a Tyrolese boy, told a story of the battle of Forbes.

The shooting lasted three hours, he said. He received five bullets in one leg and four in the other from the machine gun turned loose by mine guards.

Mrs. Mary Thomas of Ludlow, arrested by the militia during a street riot, said she was released after eleven days when she wrote a letter to Adjt.-Gen. Chase saying her children were crying for her.

Adjournment was taken until 8 o'clock tomorrow.

GORE CASE TO JURY TODAY.

Scathing Denunciation of Both Parties to Suit Are Made in Attorneys' Arguments.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OKLAHOMA CITY (Okla.) Feb. 17.—Six of the twelve hours allotted for argument in the damage suit brought by Mrs. Minnie E. Bond of Oklahoma City against United States Senator Thomas P. Gore had been consumed when court adjourned today and unless some unforeseen contingencies arise, the case will be submitted to the jury tomorrow.

Two attorneys spoke today for the plaintiff and one for the defense. Neither spared the parties to the suit. Both Senator Gore and Mrs. Bond, as well as those characterized by Senator Gore as "disgruntled politicians whose pleadings for pie were unanswered," and who, the defense charges, engineered the suit, were scored.

Counsel for Mrs. Bond announced when court opened they would not present additional testimony in rebuttal. It was understood that at least three witnesses would be called today, among them James R. Jacobs, in whose rooms at a Washington hotel the alleged attack on which Mrs. Bond bases her suit is said to have occurred last March.

E. J. Giddings, attorney for the plaintiff, who opened the argument, declared the contention of the defense that the Senator had been made the victim of a conspiracy was without foundation.

"Why, after nine months, has no effort been made to have the alleged conspirators arrested?" he asked the jury.

Turning from the jury and pointing first to Mrs. Gore and then to Mrs. Bond, Giddings exclaimed:

"Look at these two women and note the difference in them. One is garbed in rich garments, the other is a plain woman, the daughter of a simple farmer. There sit her parents, plain, honest people from the farm. Such people do not frame up conspiracy."

Democrats Are Running This Thing, He Insists.

Company Attorney Quizzes Committee Statements.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HANCOCK (Mich.) Feb. 17.—Congressman E. T. Taylor of Colorado, chairman of the committee investigating the copper labor troubles, overruled today a motion by Representative Switzer of Ohio, one of two Republican members, to exclude hearsay testimony from the record. Taylor, who is a Democrat, declared Switzer was attempting to obstruct the work of the committee to get the position that it had no power to make a full investigation.

Switzer denied he objected to investigation, but insisted the scope limit be fixed on the character of everything offered would be admitted into the record.

"As chairman of this committee representing the Democratic majority in the house," said Taylor, "I will say that anything that goes into the record will go back to the people. We were sent up here to investigate conditions with a view of framing remedial legislation and I will not find out anything that might be helpful on the situation we would be disclosed."

"Do I understand that the Democratic majority in the house has a partisan committee and the minority a partisan investigation?" asked Representative Howell, the only Republican member.

"No," replied the chairman, "but when a minority member tries to discredit the committee by intimating that it is exceeding its powers and it is time for the majority to take decisive action."

The discussion arose when Attorney Wyrens, a striker, was testifying as to the raid on December 11 in which members of the Citizens' Alliance, acting as a Sheriff's posse, raided the Western Federation of Miners' headquarters, following the shooting of a deputy sheriff. They had been searching the building for arms. The witness said he was searched and beaten by one of the deputies and by a deputy sheriff named Moyle, who was one of the others as a deputy sheriff. Wyrens asked that this testimony be stricken out because the witness did not know that his assailant was a deputy sheriff.

Counsel for the mine owners objected that an officer had a right to search for weapons on a man who had been arrested.

Allen F. Rees, a mine owners' attorney, said assaults on citizens were of personal rights which were a violence of the State and should be stricken from the witness's testimony. Former Federal Court criminal practice.

"Do you think that a man should be for six months," asked Rees, "to ascertain the condition of outlaws that exist here, and we discover that he has been a violation of law, that we cannot report it to the authorities?"

"Yes," Rees replied, "unless there has been no specific violation of Federal or constitutional or Federal statutes."

Howell asked if the testimony was important to Congress in framing anything about the administration of justice. Rees replied that Congress should be informed of the facts through the Federal Constitution.

Former Congressman Thomas Berger of Milwaukee appeared before the committee as a witness for the executive committee of the Socialist party and declared that Socialism was responsible for the strike.

NEW JAPANESE TO END A

Secret Negotiations Now in Progress Into Consideration Western Objection—Representatives of Both Have Approached Subject in

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 17.—It was learned today that negotiations are in progress between the United States and Japan for the settlement of the disputes in which the two countries are involved.

The Wilson administration and the authorities in Tokio have surrounded the latest negotiations with the greatest of secrecy because they feared premature publication would block their efforts to reach an agreement. The preliminary conversations that have occurred, however, indicate a disposition on both sides to make a new treaty which, while saving Japan's face, will preserve the rights of the States and exclude Japanese laborers.

Exactly in what manner the negotiators dispose of the questions in the controversy through a blanket provision in the proposed treaty has not developed. So far as the administration here is concerned it must take into account the sentiment in the Senate and particularly the attitude of the Senators representing the Pacific Coast.

It is apparent no treaty can receive approval from the Senate which does not recognize western objection to the Japanese. The treaty now in force authorizes the citizens or subjects of each of the high contracting parties to enter, travel and reside in the territory of the other, to carry on trade, to own or lease and occupy houses, manufactories, warehouses and shops, to employ agents of their choice, to lease land for residential and commercial purposes, and generally do anything incident to or necessary for trade upon the same terms as native citizens or subjects submitting themselves to the laws and regulations there established."

It is this provision which was the basis of the Japanese protest of last August against the California land law. Secretary Bryan has not answered this protest and has no intention of so doing now that negotiations for a new treaty have been inaugurated.

It is the impression here that the new treaty will apply the same provisions to Americans in Japan as to Japanese in the United States. If so, should be done the equality of treatment which Japan especially desires will be provided. How the matter is to be worked out, however, is not so important as the fact that the two countries are getting together and that there is a prospect of the restoration of cordial relations.

The Japanese Ambassador is being aided in the negotiations by the Consul-General of his country stationed in the United States. He thus is being made familiar with the attitude of resident Japanese and will

MILLS TO FIGHT FOR OPEN SHOP.

EVERETT LUMBER COMPANIES SIGN AGREEMENT.

If the Big Plants in the "City of Smokestacks" Combine to Resist the Exactions of the Unionists, Strike Now on at the Robinson Factory.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Everett, known locally as "the city of smokestacks," is in the midst of a battle for industrial freedom. The Robinson Manufacturing Company, sash and doors, last week discharged twenty-three union men as trouble makers. An open-shop fight in Everett has long been imminent. Everett unions decided to force the issue. A walkout was ordered by the Shingle Weavers' Union, Saw Mill Workers' Union and Woodsmen's Union, which demanded recognition of the unions and reinstatement of discharged men.

A hundred and twenty Robinson employees obeyed the strike order today, leaving at work 110 men who refused to go out. Some of these were recalled upon not to return to work Monday. Two hundred and fifty pickets have surrounded the plant, making life miserable for employees who continue working.

Today the strike took on a new aspect when all large lumber plants at Everett signed an agreement to lend moral and financial support to the open-shop movement. NEW JAPANESE TREATY TO END ALL DISPUTES.

Informal Negotiations Now in Progress Are Said to Take Into Consideration Western Objections to the Nippon Exclusion—Representatives of Both Countries Reported to Have Approached Subject in Spirit of Harmony.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Feb. 17.—It was learned today that negotiations in progress between the United States and Japan for the settlement of disputes in which the two countries are involved.

While administration and the legation in Tokio have surrounded the negotiations with the greatest secrecy because they feared premature publication would block their efforts to reach an agreement. The informatory conversations that have been had, however, indicate a disposition on both sides to make a new treaty which, while saving Japan's pride will preserve the rights of the United States and exclude Japanese laborers. Exactly in what manner the new treaty will dispose of the questions in controversy through a blanket provision in the proposed treaty has not been developed. So far as the administration here is concerned it must take into account the sentiment in Congress and particularly the attitude of the Senators representing the Pacific Coast.

It is apparent no treaty can receive approval from the Senate which does not recognize western objection to Japanese. The treaty now in force authorizes the citizens or subjects of each of the high contracting powers to enter, travel and reside in the territory of the other, to carry on trade, to own or lease and occupy houses, manufactories, warehouses and shops, to employ agents of their choice, to lease land for residential and commercial purposes, and generally anything incident to or necessary to trade upon the same terms as native citizens or subjects submitting themselves to the laws and regulations established."

One provision which was the cause of the Japanese protest of last year against the California land laws Secretary Bryan has not answered the protest and has no intention of doing now that negotiations for a new treaty have been initiated.

The impression here that the new treaty will apply the same provisions to Americans in Japan as Japanese in the United States. If this is done the equality of treatment which Japan especially desires will be provided.

How the matter is to be worked out, however, is not so important as the fact that the two countries are working together and that there is every prospect of the restoration of cordial relations.

The Japanese Ambassador is being consulted in the negotiations by the Japanese Consul-General of his country stationed in the United States. He thus is made familiar with the situation of resident Japanese and will be able to speak advisedly on their needs.

The President and Secretary Bryan have obtained data from the Immigration Bureau presided over by Commissioner-General Caminetti. Thus there will be no excuse for any mistake or omission in the forthcoming document to provoke irritation in the future.

It was because the negotiations were in progress and because of their unwillingness to turn the riots in Tokio from the naval scandal to the controversy with the United States that the President and Secretary Bryan urged Congress to do nothing looking toward the exclusion of Japan laborers. Action of this kind might have resulted in the overthrow of the ministry and the straining of American-Japanese relations to the breaking point.

CAMINETTI'S ATTITUDE.

For the same reason there is sharp criticism in administration circles of Commissioner-General Caminetti because of the character of the testimony he gave several days ago before the House committee investigating. Mr. Caminetti charged in effect that the Japanese government has not been observing the gentlemen's agreement under which Japan herself prohibits the immigration of Japanese laborers to this country.

Mr. Caminetti is a Californian and entertains the views expressed there with reference to the Japanese. He said today that no representations had been made to him which would indicate he had fallen into the bad graces of the administration on account of his testimony.

It is known the Japanese authorities here entered an unofficial protest at the reported statements of the commissioner-general. When the protest was brought to his attention Mr. Caminetti asserted that what he said had been greatly exaggerated and the reports, however, of Mr. Caminetti's testimony were accurate in the main.

If the administration should be successful in the settlement of the Japanese controvery it will remove from our international relations the most serious problem which it has faced.

ENGLAND PACIFIED.

Great Britain has been pacified by the President's decision to insist upon the repeal of the Panama tolls law. In return for this concession the British government is conforming its policy in Mexico to that of the United States and has been using its good offices in Tokio to induce the Japanese ministry to meet half way with reference to the California question.

Once the treaty is signed with Japan it is the understanding here that the administration will endeavor to negotiate a new commercial treaty with Russia, which will settle the passport dispute for all time and grant the right of all American citizens to enter the Slav empire without reference to race or religion.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HANCOCK (Mich.) Feb. 17.—Congressman E. T. Taylor of Colorado, chairman of the committee investigating the copper miners' strike, overruled today a motion by Representative Switzer of Ohio, one of the two Republican members, to open the hearsay testimony from the start. Taylor, who is a Democrat, said Switzer was attempting to "take the work of the committee out of the position that it had no power to make a full investigation."

Switzer denied he objected to investigation, but insisted that the limit be fixed on the evidence, that everything offered would not be admitted into the record.

"As chairman of this committee representing the Democratic majority in the house," said Taylor, "I will say that anything that goes into the record will go back to the people. We were sent up here to investigate conditions with a view of remedial legislation and if we find out anything that might throw light on the situation we would be criticised."

"Do I understand that this is a partisan committee and that you have a partisan investigation?" asked Representative Howell, the only Republican member.

"No," replied the chairman, "but when a minority member tries to discredit the committee by saying that it is exceeding its province, it is time for the majority to take decisive action."

The discussion arose when John Wyreno, a striker, was testifying as to the raid on December 11, 1913, which members of the Citizens' Alliance, acting as a Sheriff's posse, raided the Western Federation of Miners' headquarters, after the shooting of a deputy sheriff who had been searching the hall for arms. The witness said he was searched and beaten by an unidentified man, who was followed by others as a deputy sheriff. Switzer asked that this testimony be stricken out because the witness did not know that his assailant was a deputy.

Counsel for the miners contended that an officer had no right to search for weapons on a man who had not been arrested.

Allen F. Rees, a mining attorney, said assaults and abuses of personal rights were a disgrace to the State and that the testimony from the witness would give the impression to the Federal Court criminal jurisdiction.

"Do you think that if we were here for six months," asked Taylor, "the condition of outlawry would be found here, and we discover that there has been a violation of individual rights we cannot report it to Congress?"

"Yes," Rees replied. "If there has been no specific violation of the Constitutional or Federal statutes."

Howell asked if it was important to Congress to know something about the administration of justice. Rees thought Congress should be informed on this point through the Federal Courts.

Former Congressman Berger of Milwaukee appeared before the committee as a representative of the executive committee of the Socialist party and denied that the party was responsible for the strike.

VOTE STRIKE IN OREGON.

RAILWAY AND BOAT OPERATORS MAY GO OUT.

Effort Will Be Made to Hold Off Crisis Until the Arrival of Government Mediator Hangar, Who Is Already on His Way from Washington.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 17.—With the vote running 95 per cent. in favor of striking and already three-fourths of the vote in, a general strike of the telegraph operators in the employ of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company may be called next week unless an understanding between the operators and officials of the road can be reached, or a solution secured through Federal mediation, which has been asked for.

E. J. Manion, of St. Louis, fifth vice-president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, is in Portland in charge of the situation for the telegraphers. He says he will not call the strike until the arrival of the government mediator, G. W. W. Hangar, who left Washington today and will arrive Monday. If the railroad makes known its willingness to mediate, Manion said today he will postpone calling the strike.

Officials of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company today said that the situation presented no critical phases yet.

Since November 15 conferences were held with M. J. Buckley, general superintendent, and E. A. Klipple, superintendent of telegraph, in an effort to bring about a granting of the demands of the employees.

The conference with these officials was followed by an appeal to J. W. O'Brien, general manager and vice-president.

"Mr. O'Brien declined to concede anything and the matter was turned over to the Order of Railroad Telegraphers," Manion said today. "I filed my request for a mediator to be sent representing the Federal government February 13."

The schedule asked for by the telegraphers is similar to that of the Southern Pacific and the Northern Pacific, and if granted will involve a reduction in hours of labor and changes in the salary scale and the establishment of a seniority system in promotion.

There are 250 station agents and operators in Washington, Oregon and Idaho involved.

The strike plans were at first reported to be an echo of the general shopmen's strike of 1911 on the Harriman system, but officials of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company, now separated from the Harriman system, say this was false.

Charthouse of German Steamer Is Wrecked and Wires Short-circuited on Voyage from Calcutta.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Feb. 17.—How a huge sea which boarded the German steamer Wartenfels, wrecked the charthouse, smashed a powerful electric signal lamp, short-circuited the wires and for a time charged the ship with electricity, was related today by Capt. Schov when the steamer arrived from Calcutta.

Chief Officer Veigt was thrown from the bridge and a beam from the demolished charthouse pinned the quartermaster to the deck. The vessel was rolling heavily and a human chain was formed to pull away the beam. When the end man of the chain took hold of a steel stanchion he and all the others were knocked down by an electric shock.

FIND BONES OF EXPLORERS.

RELICS OF CROMER'S PARTY DISCOVERED IN PERU.

Members of Besley Expedition Return to New York After Encountering Thrilling Experiences With Cannibals in the Uncharted Regions of South American State.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Members of the Besley expedition, which left here last summer to explore uncharted regions of South America, returned today on the steamship Byron, and reported they had found the bones of members of the Cromer expedition, who entered the wilds of Peru nearly two years ago and were never heard from.

Traces were found also of the lost Seljan expedition, which took the same route as the Cromer expedition, and Capt. Besley thought that the bones might have been the remains of members of either party. The Seljan expedition was in search of rubber.

Besley said that he encountered on the trip cannibal tribes, armed with poisoned arrows, and on one occasion his party was attacked. A few shots drove them off.

"It was one of the most exciting and perilous journeys that a white man has ever passed through alive," said a member of the party. "There were times when a wrong move meant death, not only among the savages, but also while traveling the treacherous Huallayo River, full of rapids and whirlpools. We had to divide our nights into four watches as protection both against Indians and wild beasts."

The Cromer expedition was headed by W. H. Cromer, a former West Point cadet, and William H. Page, a Chicago High School teacher. The Besley expedition crossed the continent from Lima and came down the Amazon from the headwaters to its mouth. They found hip and thigh bones and other traces of the Cromer party on the way and erected a cross to their memory.

Those who returned today were: Capt. J. Campbell Besley (an Englishman,) Franklin B. Coates, J. K. Holbrook and J. W. Dunne. They reported the discovery of a new Inca city in Peru called Plateriyayoc, and visited other regions hitherto unknown to white men.

MRS. PAGE HEARS TIDINGS.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Friends and relatives of William H. Page, who, with W. H. Cromer, left two years ago to explore the wilds of South America, were overwhelmed with grief today when the report of the Besley expedition was received. Mrs. Page is living in Kenilworth, a suburb of Chicago.

The last message received here from the Cromer party came to Dr. Charles S. Page, a brother of William H., in February, 1913.

When Col. Roosevelt began his journey into the Amazon country, an appeal was cabled to him by Dr. Page, Mrs. Page, Benjamin Page, another brother, and C. E. Cromer, a brother of the explorer, to search for the missing adventurers. A rumor that the Cromer party had been attacked and killed by cannibals near the head waters of the Amazon was circulated last fall, and the family and friends of Mr. Page took on the Besley discovery as confirmation of their fears.

SNOW TIE-UP TAXES SUBWAY.

TRAFFIC DURING THE STORM BREAKS ALL RECORDS.

Street Car and Automobile Facilities Being Put Out of Business by Two Blizzards—Million and a Quarter Fares Are Collected by Interborough in One Day.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The tying up of street car and automobile traffic by New York's two recent snowstorms drove so many people into the subway that all records were broken for the number of passengers carried in twenty-four hours. The Interborough Rapid Transit Company announced today that 1,279,000 fares had been collected in one day.

A force of 18,000 men continued its attack on the snow that has blocked the streets since Saturday. An additional snowfall of nearly five inches yesterday swamped the department for several hours, but large gangs were kept busy all night with the result that something like the normal conditions of traffic have been restored. The total snowfall Saturday and yesterday was 14.9 inches.

Inconvenience to New Yorkers yesterday in getting food supplies continues to some extent, but retail dealers said there was no probability of either a food famine or a coal shortage.

G. T. Fetherstone, street cleaning commissioner, estimates that two weeks will be required to remove the snow, and that the cost to the city would be about $600,000.

Editor Frozen to Death.

PEACE MESSAGE IN AIR FLIGHT.

Title Suggested for Big San Francisco Event.

Wilson, Bryan and Taft Are Asked to Lend Aid.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—"Messengers of world peace," the contestants in the 1915 round-the-world aeroplane race from San Francisco, will be called, if the plans of the Aero Club of America, announced today, are consummated. The club sent a telegram to C. C. Moore, president of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, urging that the air contest be made an official expedition of peace.

It was announced that the club has written to the country's foremost peace advocates, including President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan and former President Taft, inviting their co-operation in having the race inaugurate a world-wide peace movement in which the aviators, flying above potentially unfriendly frontiers, would be the pathfinders.

The Aero Club, in its telegrams to the exposition president, said that it "was with a feeling of duty to humanity that we urge you to make every effort that the airman who start in the world race may start as messengers of peace, that posterity may know them as pathfinders who opened the way to a new epoch, a new civilization free of the restriction of frontiers."

CLUB'S LETTER.

In its letter to international peace supporters, the club wrote:

"The opportunities to start a world-wide movement to spread the gospel of peace through this one event are many and far reaching. . . . In the past year, England, Germany, Austria and Russia have made laws forbidding aviators to fly over their frontiers without special permission and the aero clubs of three continents have united to remove these restrictions and have appealed to the Aero Club of America for co-operation. . . . Four years of development in aviation have shown that the air craft is primarily instrumental of peace. The 7000 licensed aviators of the world, while military in part, all fly for peace each day; and while the aeroplane is supposed to be the terrible destroyer, the record shows that it saved thousands of lives in the Turkish-Italian and Balkan wars. The aerial scouts were so swift in detecting the movements of armies that where they were employed, the element of surprise was removed. . . . The aeroplanes have, so far, been the best messengers of peace the world has ever had."

DROWNED IN WRECKAGE.

Examination of Lieut. Murray's Body Shows He Was Not Killed by Fall With Aeroplane.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PENSACOLA (Fla.) Feb. 17.—Drowning caused the death of Lieut. J. M. Murray of the naval aviation corps when his hydro-aeroplane plunged into Pensacola Bay. This was established today. At first it was thought he had been killed by an explosion of the engine or injuries sustained in his fall, but an examination by physicians showed his body to be almost unmarked by the accident. Officials of the naval station said death yesterday was doubtless due to his inability to free himself from the floating wreckage.

Whether a defect in the mechanism of the hydro-aeroplane caused its fatal plunge, or whether the aviator lost control of his machine, is not known. The wreckage of the craft was towed to the naval station and an official investigation was begun.

A PENNSYLVANIAN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CANONSBURG (Pa.) Feb. 17.—Lieut. J. M. Murray, the naval aviator drowned at Pensacola, Fla., yesterday, was the son of the Rev. J. F. Murray, pastor of the Mt. Prospect United Presbyterian Church, near here. The body will be brought here for burial Thursday.

WATER USERS' EXTENSION.

Twenty Years Will Be Allowed for Reimbursing the Government for Irrigation Expenses.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—An agreement upon extension from ten to twenty years of the time within which water users may pay back to the government the cost of construction of irrigation projects was reached at a conference tonight between Secretary Lane, officers of the reclamation service, Senator Smith of Arizona and Representative Smith of Texas, chairman of the Congressional Committee on Irrigation.

The conferees agreed that experience had shown that the present period of ten years was too short to enable the settlers to reimburse the government.

The change in the payment system will be embodied in a general irrigation bill, on which another conference will be held at the Interior Department next Thursday.

There are twenty-three national irrigation projects scattered among seventeen States, in which the government has invested from $75,000,000 to $80,000,000.

GEN. LEE'S BIRTHDAY.

Gov. Blease Declares Celebration at Beaufort Was Stopped by Negro and Vermont Yankee Trustees.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COLUMBIA (S. C.) Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The charge is made in a special message from Gov. Blease, received by the Senate today, that children in the graded schools at Beaufort were not allowed to celebrate the birthday of Gen. Robert E. Lee. This is attributed to the fact that one of the three school trustees is a negro and another is alleged to be a Yankee from Vermont.

Gov. Blease urges the Senate to pass a bill prohibiting white persons from teaching negroes. He draws an alarming picture of what will happen if the negroes, who outnumber the white people of the State, got the upper hand, but says he has no personal fear in this respect, "neither for me nor for any of my family, for each of them, I am proud to say, is physically able to pull a trigger whenever it should become necessary."

When the Stomach Goes Back to Work

Then Is the Whole System Glad. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Quickly Put the Stomach In Shape.

When the stomach fails to do its work properly the whole machine of man is unstrung and wholly incapable of work. This condition obtains from the tiniest nerve to the big, strong pumping heart.

It is a wise law of nature that has made the stomach man's strongest organ, but when it stops work man ought to realize that it does so because it can continue no longer.

"Hooray! Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Are the Real Appetite Bringers."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will certainly give the stomach the repair it needs and is always crying aloud for.

A tablet taken after each meal will in the course of several hours become a portion of the digestive fluids. It will build up these fluids. First in the stomach, then in the intestines.

The liver is the storehouse of the body. Here are assembled all the reserve fluids of the system and here the various ingredients of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets mingle with the faulty natural juices and strengthen them, or if they are too strong then they will be reduced to their proper strength and proportion.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain a single ingredient, one grain of which is sufficient to digest 3000 grains of food. Just think how gratefully such an element is received into a body that cannot digest at all without a new weakening of the already-depleted juices.

Go to your druggist this very day and obtain a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, price 50 cents. A week's trial will make you a new man and your stomach will go back to work.

Mrs. George Keppel Wears "Vasco Rose" Wig at Her Daughter's Coming Out.

[BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LONDON, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The fashion of women wearing colored wigs was emphasized at a dinner-dance given by Mrs. George Keppel tonight for her daughter's coming out. Twenty-five of the forty guests, all of whom are well-known members of society, wore colored "transformations," mainly purple, blue, green and rose.

Mrs. Keppel had a "Vasco rose" wig, which was almost lilac; Lady Ponsonby, a wig of green blue; Lady Grosvenor, one of green, and the Hon. Mrs. Bingham one of Saxe blue with cerise ornaments.

HOWE HEADS "HOBOS."

So-called Millionaire Leads Parade of Unemployed in Formal Call on St. Louis Mayor.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.—Carrying banners reading, "We want work, not alms," and singing "Throw Out the Lifeline," 500 homeless men marched today to the City Hall, met the Mayor and then attended a meeting of the City Council, where they asked for appropriations for the relief of the poor.

The parade was called the "Pageant of the unemployed," by its promoters in contrast to the proposed "Pageant of St. Louis," for which hundreds of thousands of dollars are being spent. It was headed by James Eads Howe, the "millionaire hobo." Before the march was started the men were served a cup of coffee by Howe.

The men presented a petition to the Mayor asking for the erection of a new municipal lodging-house, for the loan of unused tools and vacant buildings belonging to the city and for the establishment of a commissary where the unemployed might buy food at cost. The Mayor told the men he would approve any aid offered the homeless by the municipal assembly.

PROPERTY NEAR NEW FIFTH STREET DEPOT.

The construction of the magnificent new depot at Fifth st. and Central ave. has begun.

The best locations in the city for investment or speculation are on East Fifth st., East Sixth st. and Central ave., between Fourth and Sixth sts.

We can offer a corner and an inside property on East Fifth st. at $250 a front ft., below the market.

A corner and inside lot on East Sixth cheaper than anything for sale on that street, which will soon be a business thoroughfare, as it is also the direct approach to the new City Market.

We have these properties at these prices for a short time only. If interested, see us at once.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

Meeting Postponed.

The meeting of the public affairs section of the College Women's Club, which was to have been held this afternoon at the Y.W.C.A., has been postponed a month.

Fire Engine Turns Over.

Traffic at Fifth and Broadway was stopped for several minutes yesterday by fire engine No. 23, which turned over at the corner while racing to a fire. A wheel collapsed. Fireman George Bernard, who was driving, was thrown and severely bruised.

Following His Lead.

Gov. Johnson addressed the Ad Club yesterday at a luncheon at the Bristol upon the advantages of exploiting the resources of Southern California before the world.

To the Show, Rain or Shine.

The Chamber of Commerce excursion to the San Bernardino Orange Show will go, rain or shine. The special will leave at 8:20 tomorrow morning over the Santa Fe. Members who have not secured their tickets by tonight may get them at the station, where a representative of the chamber will be on hand.

New Colorado Officers.

The new officers of the Colorado Association of Southern California are Mrs. S. L. Carpenter, president; Miss Grace Dexter, Mrs. R. L. Hubbard, vice-presidents; Dr. Harry W. Bates, treasurer; Mrs. Bates, secretary. They will preside for the first time at a meeting to be held Friday evening in the Mozart Theater building. The main feature of the programme is to be a lecture on the Panama Canal.

Last Word for Picnickers.

The great Iowa picnic will be held in Eastlake Park on Saturday. If it rains on Friday or Saturday the picnic will be postponed to the following Saturday. Through electric cars from Pasadena, Alhambra, Glendora and Monrovia will stop at the park. Every former resident of Iowa now living in Southern California is invited, as well as all visitors from that State, and all are urged to register at county headquarters.

Guests of the Chamber.

The California Press Association has notified the Chamber of Commerce that it will pass through Los Angeles 125 strong tomorrow evening on the way to San Bernardino and Imperial Valley. They will return to Los Angeles on the evening of the 23rd, when they have accepted a theater party invitation at the Orpheum as the guests of the chamber, and on the 24th they will be given a luncheon at the Exposition building, Exposition Park.

Variety at Parish House.

The vaudeville entertainment to be given under the auspices of the Holy Name Society of St. Cecilia's Church, next Friday evening, in the parish hall at Forty-second street and Normandie avenue, is attracting much interest in Catholic circles. A large attendance is looked for because of the marked success that has attended the efforts of this society on previous occasions. The programme includes professional talent of note. The St. Cecilia choir will also appear in a musical comedy under the direction of Prof. Lewis Kerwin.

For a State Building.

The special committee of the Los Angeles Realty Board, and representatives of civic associations, the City Council and women's clubs, will meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Realty Board rooms, to take steps to start an initiative petition for securing a $1,000,000 State building in this city. Sacramento and San Francisco have already provided for their own interests by an enabling act, and Los Angeles is the only one of the three that must resort to the initiative. It is indicated by letters received from the north that the two cities mentioned will support the Los Angeles propsition.

New England Society.

Tally's Broadway.

Evangeline, a five-part motion picture illustrating Longfellow's immortal poem is the attraction at Tally's Broadway this week. It is evident that great care has been taken in the making of this motion picture. Every character will instantly be recognized by all who have read the story and the beautiful scenery is a treat to the eyes. The great organ and the orchestra supply music to fit the picture.

Right About.

TRAIN ROBBER WHO CONFESSED SAYS "NOT GUILTY."

Confused by Indictment and Unwilling to Take Sentence of Quarter of Century for Holdup of Southern Pacific Mail Clerks, Barry Springs Surprise.

J. P. Barry, Southern Pacific bandit and pal of Jean La Banta, changed his mind yesterday.

When arrested at Bakersfield, after a ten-hour grilling by Postoffice Inspectors Ranger and Jarvis, Barry confessed his part in the robbery and indicated his entire willingness to plead guilty and take his punishment as soon as possible.

He was duly indicted by the Federal grand jury. In the meantime his partner, La Banta, had been put away for twenty-five years by Judge Dooling in San Francisco, for the San Jose job.

Everything was set for the little drama in the United States District Court yesterday and the postoffice inspectors were on hand to see that Barry did as he had agreed.

The indictment was read to the prisoner by Clerk C. Elwood Scott, and Barry spoke up in a determined tone, "not guilty." Everybody was surprised, but Barry merely smiled. He had at last "put one over" on the postoffice inspectors. Barry said he had no lawyer and did not think he needed one, but Judge Wellborn named Attorney Joseph Citron to look after his defense.

It afterward appeared that Barry had changed his mind because he had been indicted under two counts charged with being principal in the hold-up, and not accessory, as he claimed to be. As principal he could have been sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary on his plea of guilty, and under the law, which he will discover later on, he is equally guilty with the principal. It is possible that Barry was thrown off his stride by the voluminous indictment containing so much language.

Barry hoped to get off with a light sentence by reason of the fact that he did not participate in the attack on Clerks Wendland and Perry, and his activities were confined to sitting up on the "blind" end of the car with a gun in hand to shoot anybody who interfered with the work of La Banta.

THE WEATHER.
[Official Report.]

LOCAL OFFICE, U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, Feb. 17.—[Reported by Ford A. Carpenter, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.05; at 5 p.m., 29.96. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 57 deg. and 59 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 83 per cent.; 5 p.m., 74 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 1 mile; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 5 miles. Highest temperature, 65 deg.; lowest, 55 deg. Rainfall for season, 15.04 inches. Barometer reduced to sea level.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.—Remnants of the ridge of the western high barometric pressure are located over Eastern Washington and the Gulf States. The general decrease in pressure elsewhere brought increased temperatures and widespread cloudiness. The barometer continues falling on the Pacific Slope, resulting in showers off the extreme Northern and Southern California coasts. Precipitation also occurred in Arizona, Flagstaff registering .30 of an inch, Eureka, Riverside and San Diego each reported .05 of an inch. It is expected that showers will continue in Los Angeles and vicinity Wednesday.

LOCAL FORECAST.

For Los Angeles and vicinity: Showers Wednesday; southerly winds.

For California south of the Tehachapi: Unsettled Wednesday; probably rain.

STATE FORECAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—Forecast:
San Francisco and vicinity, Sacramento, Santa Clara and San Joaquin valleys: Cloudy, with rain, Wednesday; light south wind.
Southern California: Cloudy, with rain, Wednesday; light southwest wind.
Arizona: Cloudy Wednesday, with snow or rain in mountain districts. Thursday, unsettled.

WOLVES THE MOOSE PROBLEM.

Supreme Dictator Chops Off Local Lodge's Head.

Long and Bitter Fights Are Summarily Ended.

Serious Charges Against Los Angeles Officials.

The Los Angeles lodge of Moose was ousted yesterday by the Supreme Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, headquarters in San Francisco. The action is the result of the fight between the local lodge, which has 1000 members, and the Supreme Lodge. The order of decapitation revoked the charter of this city's lodge, and instructs all members of the lodge from paying dues to the officers.

At the same time Bernard Mullen, Supreme Dictator of the local lodge, is recognized as the official who received a telegram from J. J. Dern, Supreme Dictator, directing him to stop publication of the Moosenger, the paper issued by the local lodge, and to notify the printer that the Supreme Lodge will not be responsible for further bills of the paper.

THE ORDER.

The order from Dorn, which was received yesterday, follows:

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Supreme Dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose of the World, I hereby revoke the charter of Los Angeles Lodge No. 386, Loyal Order of Moose. This course has become necessary for the following reasons:

Los Angeles Lodge No. 386 has failed, neglected and refused to pay the per capita tax levied by the Supreme Lodge, although the Supreme Lodge has furnished it with which to pay per capita tax. Some of the officers and others have claimed that they have not sufficient funds. They have caused all funds of your lodge to be transferred to a corporation of which they alone are members and absolute control, thereby depleting your treasury. Your members have refused to remain in good standing with your officers and those who have refused to pay this corporation tax, and your lodge is not in good standing.

Certain officers and others have caused to be organized a lodge under the laws of the State of California without authority and contrary to the laws governing

Where and How?

PUZZLE BY NO MEANS SOLVED

GANAHL FOUND, SAID SUICIDE; WILL TELL NO MORE.

Rich Lumberman Supposed to Have Walked Off the Ferryboat Has Been Drowned in Ship Harbor. Located With Mind a Blank. Further Information Is Wanting.

Lucien A. Ganahl, who disappeared August 20, 1913, and who was supposed to have fallen overboard from the steamship Harvard, en route from San Francisco to Los Angeles, has been found, according to his brother, Gaston Ganahl. Lucien Ganahl's mind is a blank, says his brother. Ganahl is no stranger than the announcement of his return home, for, although he has been gone six months, neither his brother nor other members of his family will state for publication where or how he was found, or under what conditions. Gaston Ganahl admitted to The Times that he had been found in Arizona, and that his whereabouts were known ten days ago. He declined to state the name of the town where his brother was found, but added that the railroad police had located him.

Inquiry among Southern Pacific and Santa Fe special agents developed information along this line, but the heads of both services asserted that they knew nothing of the matter.

Although it was announced that Gaston Ganahl is at the home of his father, F. J. Ganahl, No. 316 North Fifty-seventh street, Inquiry at that address yesterday elicited the statement that he was not there and had not been there. This statement was made by Mrs. J. Ganahl.

Friends of the Ganahl family were told of the return of Lucien, but could be found yesterday only to be seen him. Gaston Ganahl, who had tried on the search when it was given up, said yesterday that his brother had a lapse of memory, following an operation in a San Francisco hospital. He was ill when he started from San Francisco to Los Angeles on the steamer, but when the steamer, Harvard. He left his baggage and arrived here, Ganahl was still ill. It is believed that he did not remember that he did not have his grip to his stateroom.

When he was found, said his brother, in Arizona, he told of having come from Alaska to Mexico. His mind is in such a condition that members of the family are not sure where he has been.

Interviewers were denied access to Ganahl, who is said to be with his wife and two children. Mrs. Ganahl and the children returned to Los Angeles. It seemed certain that Ganahl was dead, the theory being that he had walked overboard from the steamer when he was asleep.

APPLICATION FILED.

The application of the San Joaquin Valley Farm Lands Company, Evans and the San Joaquin Light and Power Company for permission to construct the telephone company line was filed yesterday. The two former companies are subsidiary companies of the latter. The application was heard yesterday by Railroad Commissioner Gordon in the Railroad Commission Court rooms. As part of the application the purchasing companies asked permission to issue bonds to provide money for making the improvements.

Located by Mother After Many Years.

Elsie May Osborne Davis,

Who makes a rather remarkable statement regarding the parent who sought her a long time.

Candid Girl.

WON'T SEE MOTHER IF SHE'S POOR; RICH, YES.

ELSIE MAY OSBORNE DAVIS, located in Los Angeles yesterday after her mother had searched eighteen years for her, declares she does not care whether her mother is alive or dead—unless she has money.

"It cannot matter much to me whether my mother is living or not," the young woman said last night, "unless she has lots of money; then, some of it might come in handy."

Miss Davis was found here at the winter residence of her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Williams Davis of No. 1320 Myrtle street.

Mrs. Minnie Osborne of Kansas City, Kan., permitted the Davis family to adopt the girl eighteen years ago, when Mrs. Osborne was deserted by her husband and went to work for the Davis family in Pueblo, Colo.

During the years that have intervened, it appears Mrs. Osborne has become financially independent and now desires to regain or at least see her child.

Through investigators and her own efforts, Mrs. Osborne discovered at Pueblo, according to dispatches from there, that the girl is still in the care of the Davis family and in Los Angeles.

Davis is a wealthy retired mining and realty operator, and the girl one of the young beauties of Pueblo.

Music — completion of her vocal studies—is the paramount issue in the girl's life now, and aside from being surprised that her mother, whom she has for twelve years believed dead, is alive, she is little interested.

The girl, educated in the full knowledge that she is the adopted daughter of the Davises, loves her foster parents above all others and has

"PROGRESSIVE" GLOOM.

Another Day of Registration Serves Only to Shove Them Further into the Political Background.

Another day of registration and another day of gloom for "Progressives." Republicans to the number of 1457 stated their affiliation for the Grand Old Party yesterday, while 812 "Progressives" went on record. The total for Los Angeles county shows 47,112 Republicans to 28,989 "Progressives." The grand total registration for Los Angeles county up to 5 o'clock last night was 130,313. The figures as given out by Registrar McAleer for yesterday are: Republicans, 1457; "Progressives," 812; Democrats, 651; Prohibitionists, 161; not stated, 418. The totals to date are: Republicans, 47,112; "Progressives," 28,989; Democrats, 21,549; Prohibtionists, 6391; not stated, 16,956.

AUTO CRASHES INTO WAGON.

Grocer in the Receiving Hospital as Result of Accident on Sixth Street Near Virgil Avenue.

I. Cramer, 47 years old, a grocer living at No. 1724 Bridge street, was thrown from his wagon at Sixth street and Virgil avenue early last evening and severely cut about the head and hands, when an automobile driven by Charles Wunderle of No. 1247 East Adams street crashed into the vehicle, while both were driving east on Sixth street. He was treated at the Receiving Hospital.

Cramer's wagon was partially wrecked, both front and rear wheels being torn off by Wunderle's machine, which was damaged to the extent of a battered fender and twisted axle. The horse in Cramer's wagon broke away and ran down Sixth street.

Wunderle says he was blinded by the glare of a headlight on a street car going in the opposite direction and could not see Cramer's wagon. He was not arrested.

"I Love You, California."

JOIN HANDS IN HIGH RESOLVE FOR FUTURE.

President of Panama-Pacific International Exposition and Mayor of San Francisco Head a Representative Party from the North, Which Is Entertained for a Day by Various Organizations of the South.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA clasped hands yesterday with Northern California in a resolve to work unceasingly for the glorification of their sovereign State by making the San Francisco and San Diego expositions worthy of the nation whose magnificent dream has resulted in the carving of a waterway across the slender waist of the continent to join the sea of old romance with the ocean over whose bosom will course the empirical argosies of the future.

"We come to you," said Mayor James Rolph, Jr., of San Francisco, last night, at the banquet given at the Los Angeles Athletic Club by the Southern Californians to the 125 northern visitors, "to ask your aid in making the San Francisco exposition a success worthy of the enthusiasm and dogged determination which has made and is making California great."

"We are with you, first, last and all the time," replied Mayor Rose.

"A better understanding and closer ties of respect and affection between all the people of our great State will be the most potent and lasting result of this exposition," emphatically stated President Moore of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

Aboard a palatial special train the northern party, composed of San Francisco business men and officers of the exposition, arrived at noon yesterday and were greeted by the Mayor and representatives of practically all the larger civic and commercial bodies of this city. In the throng were also Director-General H. O. Davis of the Panama-California International Exposition and I. Isaac Irwin, one of the directors.

"We are here as San Francisco's well-wishers, and as Californians who believe in no North, no South," said Davis.

Escorted by representatives of the city and many organizations, the visitors paraded in automobiles and then went to the Alexandria for lunch. Then a public reception was held in the lobby. In the afternoon, pictures of other expositions and Southland scenes were shown the visitors at the Auditorium. President Hellman of the Hellman Commercial Trust and Savings Bank welcomed the northern people in a short speech and President Moore of the Exposition Company responded. The visitors left at midnight, homeward-bound.

"An epoch in the history of the State," said Moore.

"Going to ask Mayor Rose to trade jobs," smilingly said Mayor Rolph. "We send our professors to Germany and they send their professors in return, so why shouldn't Los Angeles and San Francisco exchange Mayors at intervals."

NORTH HERE STRONG.

Besides Moore and Rolph, San Francisco was liberally represented by men of affairs. Passenger Traffic Manager Fee of the Southern Pacific, President Allan T. Baum of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, M. H. de Young, the newspaper publisher; Rev. F. W. Clampett, Charles W. Sutro, William H. Crocker, Edgar Peixotto, the artist, and A. P. Giannini of the Bank of Italy, are a few who might be named.

In addition to the welcoming party of city officials and representatives of civic and commercial organizations, Santa Monica was represented by Mayor Dudley and Councilman Armstrong, Corona by Mayor Holmes, Orange county by Chairman T. B. Talbert of the Board of Supervisors and Supervisor William Schumaker, and San Diego by Mayor O'Neall and others. Lieut.-Gov. Wallace was in attendance at the banquet, as was also former Secretary of the Interior David R. Francis.

Then there were the women, a small delegation of them from the north, but earnest and eloquent in their plea for Southern California help in making the 1915 a huge success.

"Not as suffragettes, but as sisters to your wives and sweethearts, we ask your aid," smilingly said Mrs. Frederick G. Sanborn, chairman of the Woman's Board of the Exposition, in a felicitous speech. "I see they have put me down to talk on woman's sphere at the exposition. We have no sphere that is different from that of the men or any thoughts at heart different from that which we hope will actuate all Californians in looking forward to 1915."

Mrs. Florence Collins Porter of this city replied and told what, as she phrased it, the women are doing in their own small way to make the two expositions successful.

GENERAL MILES, EXPANSIONIST.

Predicts Quick End of the War in Mexico.

Our Army Appropriation Is "Fair," He Says.

Ridicules the Japanese War Scare as a Joke.

Lieut.-Gen. Nelson Appleton Miles, late commanding the United States Army, arrived in Los Angeles late last night, at the Angelus, from Washington, D. C., accompanied by Nathan Strauss and the wife of the New York philanthropist.

Gen. Miles, in a two-minute interview, made the following gatling-gun observations on momentous national and international topics:

Army appropriation:

"The army appropriation this year is fair—fair; it could have been much larger, however. Compare it with Germany's, or that of France, and some of the other nations.

Aerial corps:

"The appropriation for aerial experiments and maneuvers are most vital and this branch of the service could undoubtedly use much more money than it will have. We need expansion here.

Mexico:

"Mexico must be left to work out her own destiny and the nation will be at peace in a very short time, within six months, I believe. Lifting the embargo on arms was a most rational policy.

Japan:

"Discussion of a probable Japanese invasion is tommy-rot and an accepted joke. The California alien exclusion law will have no effect of international moment. There is no chance of a war with Japan."

EXPANSION.

"Do you believe the army should be numerically strengthened?" the general was asked.

"Yes—with the growth of the country."

"Favored increase in army appropriations would be utilized, if accomplished, in what way?"

"Keeping ahead of the times and strengthing our defense."

Discussing the army as a career for young men, Gen. Miles declared it a "very honorable one," but did not wax enthusiastic nor advise them to seek entrance to the Point unless their ambitions centered on military life.

MEXICO.

"The Mexican question," he said, reverting to discussion of the rebellious below the border, "will be settled after one decisive engagement.

"If the combating armies mobolize and battle it out front to front, the nation will reach a new milestone in its destiny, which will, I believe, leave the country in a peaceful state again."

During the interview China was mentioned.

"Young men, keep away from China," the general said. "I have been there."

Gen. Miles took no time to go into verbal analysis of his reasons for anything he offered, and when pressed for definite statements on certain issues, he tactfully displayed the diplomacy in his make-up by parrying each thrust.

PICTURE OF HEALTH.

Gen. Miles, who is the picture of rugged old age, with the fire of youth in his eyes and an individuality so distinguished that he was marked the moment he stepped into the lobby of the Angelus, is to be in Southern California for several weeks.

"Three?" he was asked.

"Several, I said," was his reply.

The general has not been here for ten years, and he had scarcely tipped the boy after dropping his bags in his room when he was out of the room and the hotel and away for an hour's walk, Nathan Strauss by his side.

"We are here simply for pleasure," Strauss said, his gentle eyes searching the general's, as though he were under orders and had placed his whole being in the ex-army man's care. "This is my first visit to your beautiful land and we are going to see it all."

HEADQUARTERS HERE.

"Los Angeles will be your headquarters, then?"

Gen. Miles replied:

"We shall radiate from Los Angeles, taking in all the sights. How Los Angeles has grown! And I've only had a quicknight view."

Strauss was asked if he intended bestowing any of his world-famed beneficences in Southern California—Los Angeles particularly.

"Perhaps you do not need them out here; you all look so prosperous," he smiled. "But one never can say what discoveries one will make; and nobody can tell, even myself, what I may do."

Gen. Miles brings with him a new style in headgear, something of the derby, but massive in size. Under its brim his eyes shine with strength and love and he seems to have an understanding of everything.

HIS CAREER.

The general, who entered the army as a volunteer in '61, going into the regular service at the close of the war and winning undying fame as an Indian fighter, was in command of the United States troops during the Chicago riots of '94, represented the United States at the Turko-Grecian war and at Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee.

Gen. Miles was in command of the army during the Spanish-American War.

One of the first persons he asked for on his arrival here was Gen. Harrison Gray Otis, who also served in the Philippines.

Gen. Miles is also a notable author, having had published numerous works, including his personal recollections, a book on military Europe, one on "Serving the Republic" and innumerable magazine articles.

Louis Bundy (right,) condemned murderer,

As he appeared leaving the County Jail for the death house at San Quentin yesterday. With him is Deputy Frank Cochran, who took the callous slayer of Harold Ziesche north.

L'Homme Qui Rit.

BUNDY TAKEN NORTH TO DIE ON THE SCAFFOLD.

LAUGHING and chatting with schoolmates and fellow-athletes, Louis Bundy, 18-year-old slayer of Harold Ziesche, left the County Jail yesterday for San Quentin to wait his execution, which is set for April 24.

Shortly after 4 o'clock Deputy Frank Cochran sent word to Bundy not to eat supper at the jail, but to wait until he boarded the Owl, when Cochran promised to buy him a sumptuous repast. Bundy was on his way to the dining-room when the word came. He went back to his cell.

His sister Josephine called on him yesterday with his father and other relatives. Josephine brought him a cheerful message from his mother, who is lying seriously ill at her home. Several schoolboy chums and baseball and football players who have played with Bundy visited him during the afternoon.

Promptly at 4:30 o'clock Deputy Cochran went to Bundy's cell. Bundy hastily combed his hair, packed his valise and, putting a gold-tipped cigarette in his mouth, jauntily departed from the iron-barred enclosure after bidding farewell to fellow-prisoners and jail attaches.

Accompanied by Cochran he jumped into the Sheriff's automobile, in which eight other deputies and friends were seated, and was whirled to the Arcade station. He was not handcuffed to Cochran and his face wreathed in smiles.

"I am not afraid to die," said Bundy. "But I want to live. I deserve punishment for my awful crime. I was insane when I killed poor Harold. I saw red. I am telling the truth. I am not crazy now, but I was then. I feel certain that my attorneys will save my neck and give me a chance to prove my true worth. I haven't slept four hours a night since I killed the Ziesche boy. Every night I see him in my dreams. I am sincerely sorry for what I did and know that a just God will spare my life. If the higher court decides against me I will go to the gallows without a whimper. I am a football player and there ain't no yellow in my back."

The death warrant was signed by Judge Willis yesterday and read to Bundy in his cell. He did not flinch.

President of Southern Pacific Looks Into Future.

Sees Our Population Double in Five Years.

Says Pacific Electric Will Improve Heavily.

Faith in the future of the West dictated the Southern Pacific's $55,000,000 bond issue, according to President Sproule of that road, who paid Los Angeles a quick business visit yesterday.

"Judging from the downward trend of Southern Pacific earnings the past year," said Sproule, "our policy should be strict economy, but anyone who has been studying economic conditions in the West knows that we are on the eve of a boom that I confidently expect will double the population of California, as well as many other Western States, in the next five years."

Regarding immediate expenditures from the $21,500,000 fund for additions and betterments provided under the bond issue, Sproule stated the purchase of new equipment and double-tracking of much important main-line mileage will be considered first.

"We wish to be prepared to handle a little over our share of the exposition-year travel," he said.

Speaking of Southern California improvements, Sproule stated that some double-track work will be done, but that the new passenger station is probably the most important single piece of work so far planned. The double track work will be on the so-called Sunset lines, with the more congested pieces of track, as over the Tehachepi, getting the preference.

MILLIONS FOR P. E.

"No new mileage is planned by us for Southern California," said Sproule. "The Pacific Electric will, however, build considerable and make important improvements this year."

Asked for details, Sproule said: "I would rather Mr. Shoup would speak for himself. I know that the Pacific Electric needs and will get several millions of dollars for important work, but this is about as far as my knowledge goes."

Speaking of the Southern Pacific plan to bridge Arizona with a new line through the Gila Box Canyon, by way of Phoenix, Sproule stated that such plans have been made, but that nothing can be done until the government decides whether or not it will create an irrigation reservoir out of the canyon.

"If the government decides to use the canyon as a reservoir there will be no railroad, for obvious reasons," he stated.

"Such a line would have great advantages over the present line," asked the interviewer, "as it would shorten the distance and cut out bad grades?"

"Yes," replied Sproule, "and it would would be a line of great scenic attractions and also a valuable feeder for the Southern Pacific system as a whole, for there are no more fertile acres in the West than the valleys of the Salt and Hassayampa rivers."

ACROSS NEVADA.

Asked the inevitable question about the Southern Pacific-Central Pacific unmerger suit, Sproule countered by saying that the most important new construction work planned by the Southern Pacific for 1914 is the double-tracking of practically the entire line across Nevada.

"We have two outlets for exposition-year business on the south and we want as many east," he said. "We expect to shoot them into San Francisco by way of Los Angeles and then out East, or vice versa, and we need the additional track to handle the business."

When shown a clipping detailing the plan of Receiver Holabird of the California Development Company to sell the effects of the corporation within sixty days, unless the Southern Pacific files sufficient bonds to satisfy the court in the legal war over the control of the big water company, Sproule smilingly remarked: "Now you are getting me into legal matters and I haven't a legal mind. Ask Judge McKinley when he gets back tomorrow what the Southern Pacific is going to do and you will have our attitude in the matter, for McKinley is the boss."

GAS FOR M'KITTRICK.

Supply of Natural Product May Be Secured from Oil Fields for Lighting and Heating Town.

M'KITTRICK, Feb. 17.—Negotiations looking toward the securing of natural gas from North Midway district to light and heat the residences and business houses of this city, are on. That the innovation will be welcomed—provided a satisfactory rate to prospective consumers can be arranged—is understood.

According to the plans submitted by those interested in the new enterprise, it is proposed to secure the gas from the Pioneer Midway property of the Associated Oil Company and the McKittrick field leases of the Associated, to which a pipe line will be laid. It is stated that the supply from the Pioneer Midway holding is ample to meet all possible requirements, and that gas can be furnished at rates that will be quite reasonable.

The extension of the main line to McKittrick from a point of connection, about one and a half miles distant, and the laying of lateral lines to homes and business places of consumers, will mean the expenditure of several thousand dollars and the employment of a large force of men, say the promoters of the project. Most of the wages paid for this labor, however, will be spent in McKittrick, they say.

No definite plans as to the work have been announced, but those chiefly interested are making arrangements as rapidly as possible, and whether the proposition made by them to the Associated Oil Company will be accepted or not, will be made known in a few days.

TAKES HIS CHOICE.

Fall from Water Wagon Convinces Drink Victim of Weakness, Ends His Life.

Thomas Morgan, convinced that he could never dispel the craving for liquor, ended his life yesterday after having fallen from the water wagon for the first time in many years. He inhaled gas.

Aged and infirm, Morgan for several months had been in much better health than usual. Monday he fell a victim to the lure of a drink, revelled in an old time debauch, and then realized his curse.

MANY ARE INDICTED.

Federal Grand Jury Reports True Bills Against Alleged Violators of Laws of all Sorts.

The Federal grand jury returned the following indictments to the United States District Court yesterday:

Clarence Somers and Lawrence Johnson, charged with passing counterfeit $10 gold pieces at Imperial, February 3; Lorenzo H. Birge, a post-office employee, who it is alleged stole $90 belonging to the government; Joseph Keller, charged with sending an obscene letter to Boyd Webster, at Anaheim, on January 1; George Herbert, Bent Hall and Charles Moore, alleged Chinese smugglers; Enrique Vasquez, accused of robbing the mail wages of F. H. Hickham; Dan Flynn, alias Dan Bruce, charged with violating the copyright of a vaudeville sketch entitled "Between Trains," asserted to be owned by W. H. Cline.

GOSSIPS ON THE SPIT.

Police Judge Sermonizes on Women and Too Much Talk; Root of Evil. Contestants Depart Talking.

Women who gossip were sermonized in police court yesterday.

"If a woman would talk less, she would do herself a great service," philosophized Police Judge Fredericksen, commenting on a battery case brought by Mrs. Louise Vain against Mrs. Dorothy Joyce and Mrs. Emily Richey.

"Talk, talk, talk," Police Judge Fredericksen commented, "always talk. Women talk and get into trouble or get their husbands or friends into trouble. Hundreds of cases come into this court yearly because a woman insists on talking.

"Why can't women keep still. If one of you women would take to heart the suggestion that silence is really golden, it would be a blessing to your friends and a miracle to society."

The women defendants were given suspended sentences of twenty days each in jail. When they left court they were talking as rapidly as possible.

Dual Role.

INCOME TAX IS BRAIN BREAKER.

INTERNAL REVENUE COLLECTOR HAS MENTAL CONVULSION.

Undergoes Torturous Mathematical Experience in Figuring on His Own Return Before He Is Sworn to Office—Expresses Sympathy for Average Citizen.

John P. Carter, in the role of private citizen, writhed in his chair in the Federal Building yesterday, an expression of anguish on his face as he labored over the income tax return he is to make to himself as John P. Carter, Collector of Internal Revenue.

"Multiply $5000 by three, subtract two from two; place a decimal mark before the two, and—" he muttered.

Carter's brow was knit and corrugated—the mental process incident to discovering "the original source" of his wealth ...ced about all the mathema... ...izen could master in making ...port to himself as collector.

Finally, after the page had been covered with a multiplicity of figures; when he had properly marked all of the columns and a balance had been struck—indicating that the collector would have something to collect from the citizen—his stenographer, Frank McReynolds, in his official capacity as deputy, administered the oath to his superior.

Then the much-perspired-over document that will compel the collector as a private citizen to draw his check for a healthy amount of the coin of the realm after March 1, was placed in the archives of the office.

The task completed, Carter, as a private citizen, declared that he is in a position to fully sympathize with the average man who has the job of making out his income tax blank. He said he knew the law to his finger tips, and still, when the task was completed, he was a fit subject for some eelemosynary institution.

"If a man dies, his heirs must pay his tax, and if a man marries it is cheaper," the collector was saying to himself, in a dreamy, far-away tone.

When last seen, he was sleeping soundly. His physician said he would recover.

DEFIES BANDITS' FIRE.

Santa Monica Boulevard Storekeeper Battles Three Looters and Frustrates Attempted Robbery.

An attempt by three men to hold up B. F. Perkins in his store at Santa Monica boulevard and Serrano street yesterday morning, was frustrated by Perkins in the face of pistol fire.

One of the men engaged Perkins in conversation; the others proceeded to look for loot. Perkins, suspecting their purpose, started toward the two men in the rear. The man who had been conversing with him drew his revolver and ordered him to be still.

But Perkins put up a fight. The men fled from the place after the man with the revolver had shot at Perkins.

POSTMASTER MISSING.

Relatives of Custodian of Large Amount of Money Believe Him Victim of Foul Play.

Police are searching for Postmaster E. M. Colmer of McFarland, who disappeared here several days ago. He is custodian of a large amount of money, which he carries in his purse, and foul play is suspected.

After paying his bill at the Hayward Hotel, Colmer started for the beach to visit relatives. He never reached his destination. Several calls were sent to the police yesterday imploring aid in the search for him.

ANOTHER GANG CAUGHT.

Detectives Arrest Five More Young Men Implicated in Wholesale Thefts of Motorcycles.

Another gang of motorcycle thieves was arrested yesterday by Detectives Erven and Hickok. Those taken are George Hari, Ed Smith, George Getahausen, Earl Saunders and Frank Kramer. Hari is accused of having received stolen property; the others pleaded guilty to many thefts. The gang had a rendezvous in the basement of an apartment-house at No. 210 West Tenth street. There they stored stolen articles until they could dispose of them.

subordinate lodges. This corporation was organized under the guise of protecting the membership of Los Angeles lodge, when, as a matter of fact, it was designed as a means by which a few of the members of your lodge gained complete control over your assets, and in which corporation you have no voice and no legal standing and are not even members. You have been left out in this corporation. Unthinkingly, you have transferred your assets to this corporation, and your treasury is depleted. Your sick benefit cannot be paid to you. You are not in good standing, although you have paid your dues. When your lodge was in possession of some $2500, why was it necessary for them to tender a note in payment of the per capita tax?

"DEPLORABLE CONDITION."

"Third—The above acts together with an apparently positive determination at seccession and insubordination have brought about a most deplorable condition in Los Angeles lodge. The Supreme Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will take all steps necessary, legal or otherwise, to protect your interests and the funds of this subordinate lodge will be conserved and your rights preserved and maintained under the conditions. You are hereby directed not to pay any dues or assessments to the officers of your lodge, nor to any one else purporting to have authority to collect dues until further direction by the supreme dictator."

This action was not unexpected by the local lodge. N. Banks Cregier, who until a few weeks ago was dictator of the local lodge, is leading the revolt against supreme dictation upon the ground that the supreme lodge has attempted to force the local lodge to lower its initiation fee and thereby increase the amount of per capita tax to be sent to the supreme body; that the supreme body is making assessments which the local lodge cannot see fit to pay, although Los Angeles Moose are sending $7500 annually to the coffers of the supreme lodge.

The local Moose incorporated a company which is the holding corporation for its lodge-room assets, amounting to about $28,000 in value. This precaution was taken because of the growing tendency toward open revolt, and was done so that the supreme lodge could not step in and suspend the charter, as it has done, and confiscate all the property of the lodge.

Cregier, under the bylaws, is still dictator of the local lodge, although he has been suspended. First he resigned and then, when the local lodge would not accept his resignation, he was suspended by Supreme Dictator Dorn. The local lodge resented the intrusion of national officers who insisted that instead of holding an election under the laws, another should be named dictator in Cregier's place.

ESCAPE INDICTMENT.

Five Cases Before Federal Grand Jury Disposed of Without Reaching Trial.

The Federal grand jury reported yesterday that indictments would not be returned against five defendants charged with various offenses.

The inquisitorial body failed to return an indictment against John Vernon and John Connell, tramps, who broke into the mail car on the Southern Pacific Railroad, while the train was going through the Newhall Tunnel, in order to avoid suffocation from the smoke.

The offense occurred a few days after the hold-up of the same train by Jean La Banta and J. P. Barry and the frightened mail clerks thought they were being attacked.

Leo Suter and Hattie Karle, charged with having sent intoxicating liquor through the United States mails and Robert M. Childs, charged with having sent an obscene letter through the mails, were not indicted.

WATER COMPANY TO QUIT.

An application for permission to withdraw from the territory embraced within the limits of Manhattan Beach was filed yesterday with the State Railroad Commission by the Hermosa Beach Water Company. Manhattan Beach recently authorized the issuance of $111,000 of bonds with which to construct a municipal water works. According to the application, officials of the beach city have declined to negotiate for the purchase of the applicant's property.

BONDSMAN IN DOUBT.

Panama Company Promoter Up Again; Another Snag; Surety Man Learns of Attempted Escapes.

Whether the bondsmen offered in behalf of Dr. John Grant Lyman, the convicted promoter of the Panama Development Company, shall be accepted by the United States District Court, will be determined by Judge Wellborn at noon today.

The bond was prepared yesterday, with five sureties, but the responsibility of some of the proposed bondsmen was questioned by Special Counsel Regan, and the matter was put up to the court.

One of the bondsmen who proposed to qualify for $10,000 did not know until informed yesterday that Lyman had made two unsuccessful attempts to escape. Whether this will make any difference in his attitude in regard to becoming one of his sureties has not been decided.

The bond is fixed at $20,000, and to accommodate Lyman it has been cut up among a number of sureties. Usually it is the rule to compel two bondsmen to qualify, each in a sum twice the amount of the bond.

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY TALKS HEART TOPICS.

Are Girls More Attractive in Evening Than Daytime?

"Life is a garden fair and free,
But 'tis love that holds the golden key;
For hand and heart
Once held apart,
Life's flowers are dashed with a storm of sorrow
The bloom of today may be blight tomorrow——"

A pretty young girl remarked to me while we were out for a stroll, "I wonder if the great majority of girls think as I do, that girls are not near so pretty and fascinating in the daytime as they are in the evening?

"I've made quite a few experiments. The result is the young men I've met at a ball, or some evening affair, fell in love with me on sight.

"Each admirer then called on me within the week, always in the evening. I had three different proposals. All went merry until I accepted an invitation to some outdoor affair. Then from the lips of each I heard the remark: 'Why you don't look like the same girl. You seem different in the daytime from what you do in the evening.' That remark was enough for me. I took good care to drop them on short notice after that."

She was a very sensible maiden, but, in each instance, she had mistaken the young man's meaning. Realizing she was only a fairly good-looking girl, not a beauty, she put this and that together and imagined they were disappointed in her.

She was never at home when they called next time. Her idea of a man's notion needed uprooting. It's the worst of folly for a girl to believe any sane man would propose marriage to one whom he had seen only by artificial light, decked out in airy, fairy apparel, her hair freshly curled and banded by ribbon and bow. A man may see a young woman at a ball and think her the most beautiful creature he ever beheld. But when he turned his back on the lights and the music she would be but a fair memory to him. The girl acquaintance whom he meets on the street in her everyday apparel, thick walking boots, sweater and tam-o-shanter cap, pulled down over her curls, bright of eye, ruddy of cheek, strikes a different chord in his heart.

He enjoys walking and chatting beside her. She may have a freckle on her chin, with very uneven pearls for teeth. But, bless you, he doesn't mind that a bit as he listens to her rollicking laugh and spontaneous good humor.

If he falls in love with a lass in daytime, she may feel well assured his affection will be of lasting quality. The evening sweetheart may be charming, but a good, sensible man—that's the only kind worth having—seldom or never proposes marriage until he has seen the sunshine fall on her face.

MISS LIBBEY'S REPLIES TO YOUR LETTERS.

Love at Cross Purposes.

"Dear Miss Libbey: Am a widow of 19. Have been going with a young man of 24, two months. He is a Catholic; I am not. Parents oppose him on this account. I love him, he seems to love me and always talks of marrying. He's a fine fellow, treats me just dandy. What ought I to do?
"WORRIED."

Your letter contains a query which should be answered only by your two individual selves, the parents of each, your clergyman and priest. No outsider would be justified in advising you to accept or refuse. There have been many happy marriages of this kind. But in such cases all parties interested were won over to take the same view of the matter. Do not make a hasty decision. Take time to weigh it well and carefully.

Wants to Look Like Me.

"Dear Miss Libbey: We are going to give a little affair for a benefit. I have been chosen to represent you, if you don't mind. Should I wear a dark dress or a white one? Could I dance? Would I have to do a minuet or could I tango? About slippers—must they be black? I have both white and pink ones. Everyone in the club anxiously awaits your early reply through the paper. "ELLA G."

I haven't the least objection to being represented by you at your affair. But I adjure you not to wear a somber gown. I never do. Put on your sweetest, simplest white mull dress. Stick in a bunch of pink roses at the belt. Your pink slippers would be adorable, but white ones would do. Why not tango? By all means go on with the dance.

Mother or Sweetheart?

"Dear Miss Libbey: Won't you write a word in your column about a young man in traveling business who writes every day to the sweetheart in his home town? But his poor old mother, who lives scarce a block away from the girl, gets a postal or so a in a month. She will see it in the paper and send it to my son.
"LONELY MOTHER."

In the flush of early manhood, and a first love, even the most affectionate of sons may forget the duty he owes to mother. He may think his sweetheart brings you his letters, thus keeping you daily in touch with him. No doubt he needs but to be reminded that you grieve over the letters which do not come, to divide his attentions equally between you. Make due allowance, mother, dear, for the exuberance of his first love.

Neuralgia, Colds, Sore Throat

not slowly—after a while—but at once! The effect of Sloan's Liniment is magical. You have but to lay it gently on the afflicted spot—and presto! It goes right through the flesh straight to the source of the ache, and soothes, soothes, soothes till all the pain is quickly gone.

Don't wait till pain visits you—buy a bottle of Sloan's Liniment today—keep it in the house—it's the best known insurance against aches and pains.

Cured Quinsy Sore Throat

Mr. Henry L. Caulk, of 1848 Wilson Street, Wilmington, Del., writes: "I bought a bottle of Sloan's Liniment for the quinsy sore throat and it cured me. I shall always keep a bottle in the house."

Stopped Neuralgia and Toothache

Mrs. Rudolph Nischke, Oconto, Wis., writes: "I have used Sloan's Liniment for toothache and neuralgia in the head where nothing else would help, and I would not be without the Liniment in the house."

Cured Neuralgia

Mrs. C. M. Dowker of Johannesburg, Mich., writes: "I wish to say your Liniment is the best medicine in the world. It has cured me of neuralgia; those pains have all gone and I can truly say your Liniment did cure me."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is also unequalled for asthma, bronchitis, and the "grippe." Try it!

Funds Campaign Closes With Luncheon Characterized by Words of Praise and Gratitude—Membership Increased Two Hundred. Little More Cash Needed.

The happiest and most grateful women in town are those composing the official corps of the Young Women's Christian Association. They closed their money-raising campaign yesterday at noon, around the luncheon table, and they declare the spirit of it all has been so delightful and uplifting that they feel just as good as if they had been successful in raising all the money they asked for.

The final reports showed $2020.25 for Monday's work, and a grand total of $19,651.50, leaving a balance of $3348.50, yet to get.

"We're going after it on the quiet," said Miss Ludena Sayer, the campaign manager. "We've got to have it, but we are just as happy as we can be. Everybody and the newspapers have been so lovely to us, that we feel we have received more than money."

At yesterday's luncheon, Mrs. W. A. Moses, leader of the winning team, received a handsome bouquet at the hands of Mrs. W. J. Chichester. Mrs. W. F. Callender was a close second, each team having brought in over $5000, or more than half of the entire amount received.

Nine life-memberships were reported at the luncheon, five coming from one team. Ninety women were present, and there were songs and cheers and effervescent eloquence, the lovefeast closing with the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and a prayer offered by Mrs. John Balcom Shaw.

DRILLED FIRST OIL WELLS.

Pioneer Operator in California Fields Dead—Lived in Los Angeles Thirty-seven Years.

One of the pioneers of oil land development in the State passed away in this city yesterday. The man was Burdette Chandler, 77 years old, who had occupied the same house, No. He was born in Binghampton, N. 2021 East First street, for thirty-seven years, the entire time he lived in the city.

SAYS WORLD IS COMING.

Not a Dissenting Voice in the East on the Proposition to Look Us Over Next Year.

Arthur W. Kinney, ex-president of the Chamber of Commerce of this city, who went to Washington as a member of a committee to request delay in the unmerging proceedings against the Union and Southern Pacific roads, and to protest against reversing the country's attitude on the matter of free tolls through the Panama Canal for American coastwise trade, returned to Los Angeles yesterday.

He said last night that the two questions mentioned are absorbing attention in the East, everything else being of secondary importance, apparently. The only exception to this rule, he said is the talk about coming to California in 1915, which is on every person's lips, and the decision to be here during the Panama-Pacific Exposition seems to be unanimous.

The discussion on free tolls, Kinney said last night, is heard on trains, in hotel lobbies, and the papers are full of it. The sentiment except here and there in the Middle West, is in favor of passing American coasting vessels through free.

"The sooner we formulate definite plans for the reception of our world guests," said Kinney, "and give it publicity in the East, the sooner they will incorporate a visit to our city in their plans."

CITRUS BY-PRODUCTS THEME.

Lesson May Be Learned From the Manner in Which Growers in Sicily Handle Fruit.

Ed MacKay Chase of the Bureau of Chemistry, United States Department of Agriculture, will address the Southern California section of the American Chemical Society tomorrow evening on "The Manufacture of Citrus By-Products in Sicily." This is a subject of particular interest to California, as the manufacture of citrus by-products would probably afford a substantial profit to the grower, if the lower grades which are now shipped at small profit were worked up into by-products. The subject will be illustrated by lantern slides, which have been sent from Washington for this meeting.

The society will also be addressed by Dr. Arthur A. Noyes of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who will speak on "The Fixation of Atmospheric Nitrogen." The meeting will be held at the Hollenbeck Cafe and will be preceded by dinner at 6 o'clock. Those interested are cordially invited to attend.

MIDNIGHT HOLD-UP.

Driver for Creamery Company Is Compelled to Give Up Money to Bold Bandits.

F. McColun of No. 973 East Fortieth street, a driver for the Burr Creamery Company, was held up shortly before midnight while in his wagon at Brooklyn avenue and Echandia street, and robbed of $11.50.

The bandits were Americans, he reported to the East Side Police Station. One of them covered him with a pistol, while the other went through his pockets. They also helped themselves to a couple quarts of milk.

DEATH IN COLLISION.

Laundryman's Life Crushed Out When Automobile Accidentally Crashes Into Delivery Wagon.

Alexander Sholund was instantly killed yesterday when the laundry wagon he was driving collided with an automobile, chauffeured by George Wyman.

The accident occurred on Pico street, near Valencia. The police investigated the accident and exonerated Wyman, the tragedy being declared accidental in all details.

NEVER TOO OLD.

A small boy at Pasadena shot at a dog and the bullet struck a little girl only two years old. The warning against the careless use of firearms applies to people of all ages at all times. To trust children with such weapons at any time is always a criminal offense.

A GOOD OMEN.

The San Francisco boosters looked well on the streets of Los Angeles Tuesday. We imagine that the thousands from the fair will look equally as handsome on our fine thoroughfares throughout the year of 1915. We might add that our city will have less compunction about the permanent adoption of the latter.

FOLLY OF QUITTING.

They say that Caminetti will resign as Commissioner-General of Immigration because he dislikes a bill now pending. Resigning is too much like suicide to be sensible. Both are the last things a man ought to do. When you quit you are done for, but while you stay there is always a chance to make things come out right. To keep place and to keep pace is the one way of harmony and effect.

PATHETIC.

One feature of the war in Mexico, poignant in its feeling and significance, usually escapes observation. It is the part that the women play. They march with the men and sometimes they fight with them. They make their camp and bake their bread. They sleep in tents and trenches with them. This is especially true with the Constitutionalist army and it is another reason that the world should pray, since it will not fight, for the peace of Mexico.

IT'S ALL RIGHT.

In the college and the clubs they sing it, "He's all right! Who says so? Everybody!" So we say it is all right. What is all right? Everything. It is now and ever shall be. How do we know? Because, as we look back we see that it always has been. Nothing could have been different, nor better. At least if it had been, nothing would be as it is now. Some of us feel in the beginning of things and some far in the making and all of us feel a little unfinished, but there is in the soul of us all a blessed assurance that somehow in the end we will all arrive and that peace will be ours—peace and a little gladness. Two things, then, let us keep. Whatever the world brings or takes, let us cling to hope and preserve our happiness. If you are right with yourself you cannot move through the throng without blessing everyone of the multitude in passing. You know that where life is the lightest it is sometimes holiest.

RESULT OF FREE SUGAR.

The net result of free sugar, according to the calculations of Uncle Joe Cannon, is $54,000,000 less annually to the United States Treasury, $54,000,000 more to the cane sugar producers of Cuba and the beet sugar producers of Germany, Russia and France, and about $100,000,000 less to the beet-sugar producers of California, Colorado and the Northwest, and the cane-sugar producers of Louisiana. The saving to the sugar consumers of the United States will be about one cent per week per capita. For back-handed, broken-kneed economic statesmanship this triumph of Woodrow Wilson does not merely take the cake, it absorbs the entire bakery.

There is, however, a tacit agreement among the beet-sugar producers of the United States not to dismantle and abandon their factories just yet. They will wait until next November in the expectation that the voters of this country will restore a Republican Congress to power.

"There's a good time coming,
Wait a little longer."

SOMETHING TO PONDER.

Do not be too sure of your philosophy, your religion or your science. One thing is wrong about it, mark our word. It is faulty or inadequate in method. The minute the world stumbles across anything absolutely true the revolution will swing it into a new age. Perhaps only one thing really is true, and every expression under the sun is only an effort to discover a method of the one vital point. Anyway, the world is always waiting for hearts of purpose and for clear brains that will devote themselves to the invention and evolution of method that will help men a little on the road to realization. From this planet men can see Mars, but they have no way of getting there. From where they stand in development they can dream of perfection, but they still lack the system to achieve it. They see the many in the one and the one in the many, but how does it happen like this and what is to be done about it? It is not enough that a goal looks fair. There must be some way of reaching it. Do not, then, go to sleep with too much mental satisfaction or spiritual comfort. You have a lot to do if you help the world find the answer.

Getting right down to the cushion, what disease has radium cured up to the hour of going to press? Many claims have been made in its behalf, but in some respects it is a good deal like the famous Dock Friedmann "cure."

WHAT MAKES PUBLIC OPINION?

The overwhelming Republican registration in this State, following the so-called "Progressive" rule at Sacramento, suggests an inquiry into the general subject of what makes public opinion.

During the active progress of a political campaign people are supposed to do a good deal of hard thinking for themselves. Even when there does not appear to be much ground for uncertainty as to the better candidate, the wide discussion of the "issues" provokes reflection on the part of all persons capable of serious thought. Questions of government, the problems of society, all matters concerning the welfare of the State and of the individual receive a more or less thorough threshing out in platform speeches and in newspaper editorials, and people's minds are in this way directed into channels of thought which ordinarily, perhaps, interest only the few.

At other times, such as the present, the stimulus of campaign oratory and of active "fight" is lacking, and it is worth while to recall some of the other chief factors which go to make up public opinion. Foremost among these is unquestionably the press, for, although a reading of the expressions of a large number of citizens when summoned for jury duty will reveal many statements to the effect that they "believed nothing they read in the newspapers," the press is today one of the greatest forces that make for good or evil in the world.

Practically everybody in this country reads the newspapers, more or less regularly, and every one is more or less influenced by what he reads. This is true even of the strong-minded and independent, and, of course, applies even more completely to the weaker ones. The average man's favorite newspaper is to him a sort of "guide, philosopher and friend," not only conveying to him the news of the neighborhood and of the world, but also influencing him by the setting in which it conveys the news and by its expressions of views and its policies. The importance of a well-balanced and unsensational press is, therefore, vital to the formation of a healthy public conscience.

There is a common-sense philosophy and a right basis of moral judgment as applied to human beings. The perfect man does not exist and the hero without a blemish is a pure myth. When, therefore, a newspaper, or any other kind of publication, assumes for its purpose a standard of ideal human excellence which is nonexistent, it simply brings into deeper blackness and more distinct and definite outline the shadow of evil which in this world always accompanies the good.

In a different class, but contributing likewise to the formation of the public conscience, are the current works of fiction, some of which are of a high moral standard and others so low that if put into letter form and sent through the mails would render the sender liable to fine or imprisonment. In line with the degrading novel and the vicious newspapers—which, happily, are few—are the immoral plays produced at some of the theaters of the country. From these Los Angeles has been fairly free, although we have had here one or two which might thankfully have been spared.

Properly directed, all these forces—the press, novels, the stage—can accomplish a vast amount of good in moulding public opinion. Misdirected, they are the cause of untold harm. It has been contended by the apologists of the sensational press and the erotic drama that they are effects rather than cause; that they exist because the public demands them. But even that, if it were a fact, does not justify their existence. It is a duty of the good citizen, as a member of society, to restrain so far as possible all the influences for evil with which society may from time to time be threatened. And, moreover, supply may easily create a demand. The literature which has lived longest and is most enjoyed in every age is not that of low moral tone, but the wholesome product of men and women of right standards of thinking and writing, even if in private life a few may have shown weakness.

There is nothing truer than that human beings are made up of good and evil. A healthy public conscience appreciates this fact, and the energies of those who have it in their power to influence the formation of that conscience owe it as a duty to society to use their power in the right direction.

SEEKING OUR FRIENDSHIP.

If there are persons of the belief that the Latin-Americans are unfriendly to the United States, attention is directed to the report by Messrs. Martinez and Lively, who were sent from Washington to "follow up" the invitation to participate in the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco next year. They visited Argentina, Brazil, Venezuela, Chile, Peru, Bolivia and Uruguay. They report that in all those countries there is not only eager desire to have proper representation at the exposition, but strong manifestation of friendship for the United States. The commissioners started from home anticipating a different condition, owing to statements circulated in this country, representing the Latin-Americans as antagonistic to the United States. The commissioners therefore were at special pains to obtain the facts and emphatically pronounce unfounded the stories of hostility to this country.

One substantial proof of Latin-American readiness to assure adequate representation at San Francisco is liberal appropriations to meet expenses. The amounts so set aside range from $100,000 by Uruguay—a comparatively poor country—to $1,300,000 by Argentina, a flourishing and progressive republic, exceedingly desirous of extending trade relations with the United States. These appropriations were made in no grudging spirit, but with enthusiastic popular approval, and the commissioners say that by officials and citizens the utmost cordiality was shown. The executives of the countries visited are represented as "frank, outspoken and of great ability," employing "the friendliest terms when speaking of the United States," while the promptness with which suggestions as to voting money were adopted shows how completely the executive officers were in harmony with the legislative bodies.

The Latin-American countries recognize in the San Francisco exposition an opportunity for material gain by inviting American patronage. American exhibitors at the fair also hope to profit. The underlying purpose of all such expositions is to bring producers and consumers of various countries together and through exchange of commodities and extension of dealings to benefit all concerned. The Latin-American countries supply many commodities which it is to the advantage of the United States and other nations to buy. The display at the fair will be an excellent advertisement of those countries' wares, as it will be of the products of the United States. The result must be greatly enlarged dealings with our southern neighbors, particularly after the American Panama Canal shall open a new doorway. This trade will strengthen political friendship and promote closer acquaintance and better understanding. The wideawake Latin-Americans are alive to the possibilities, and the stories of disaffection toward the United States may be dismissed as inventions.

"We, the People."

RESULT OF A GENERAL STRIKE.

Do those Socialist dreamers and riotous I.W.W.'s who advocate a "general strike," combined with sabotage, and an attempt to "take over" the property of employers, really know what they are talking about? Do they appreciate the fact that in the contest that would ensue the millionaires would fight the laborers from deadly and impregnable vantage ground? After the anarchists had induced the laborers to desolate the land; after the gutters of cities had been made to run with blood; after the rioters had sent warehouses and palaces in flame to the skies, the workers would be besieged by the grim, implacable, tireless, unconquerable legions of famine, for capital can choose its own time to reinvest and resume. The mob might resist policemen and soldiers, but no force could withstand and no cunning could outwit the result of the silent, patient withdrawal of capital from industry. The laborer may resolve and resolve as to his purposes, but he who has nothing to dispose of but his labor is very much at the mercy of the purchaser.

This is because labor must find its market upon the instant or never find it at all. All things else in nature, except time, are yielding to the genius of man. The rush of the waterfall, the flow of the tides, the odic force in the air are all tamed and harnessed to do the work of man. But no modern Joshua can stay the course of the sun. Time stands by the dial of the universe, and, as the minutes are ticked off, he gives them to those who grasp them. But left unclaimed they pass on, unused and unfruitful, into the night of the unreturning past. The Goddess Aurora could give immortality to her earthly lover, but she could not save him from the wrinkles with which the pitiless hours pelted him as they passed by, and Tithonus tottered with decrepitude though he was the bridegroom of the eternal morning.

Because it is thus helpless and thus dependent labor may not lightly assert its independence of capital. Suppose that capital—confident of strength—impatient of interference, and apprehensive of its safety, should say to labor after some great strike: "You have stopped the wheels, very well, we will not start them. You have extinguished the furnace fires, we will not rekindle them. You have disabled the engines, we will not repair them. With the downward stab of your knife you have cut our surface veins, but you have received the force of the blow in your own vitals—bleed to death at your leisure, we will retire for a while and nurse our scratches!"

Is it possible to conceive of the misery and ruin that would result from sixty days' stoppage of labor in the foundries and factories and furnaces, and sixty days' cessation of traffic over the railroads of our land? If the turbines gathered moss upon their shafts, the chimneys towered smokeless to the skies, the music of anvil and forge were hushed. If the almshouses were crowded, the asylums filled, the jails overflowing; if men suffered and women grew gaunt from hunger, and little children went suffering to the fevered sleep of famine, would the workers find consolation in the maxims of Proudhon and Marx and the mouthings of Gompers and Tveitmoe?

FASHIONS.

WALT MASON IN THE TIMES.

I wear the same old trust hat I bought six years ago next May, and no one shies a brick thereat, or calls me down in any way. With toilers in the busy mart I mingle, as I always did, and hold discourses heart to heart—and no one seems to note my lid. I go to church on Sunday morn, to hear the eminent divine, and no one speaks with blithing scorn, about that good old tile of mine. I wear it always out of doors, though it is old and out of style; my credit's good at all the stores, and people greet me with a smile. But Sister Jane must buy a hat whene'er new styles are advertised; if she should make refusal flat, she surely would be ostracised. They'd freeze her out of all the clubs, and she would get, to her distress, the ice tongs from the lady dubs who never think of aught but dress. And so I'm glad I'm not a dame, that I can wear just what I please in ancient hats, and clothe my frame in shelf-worn hand-me-downs like these, and still be greeted by my friends with cordial grasp and cheerful smiles; for all our dear bought freedom ends, when we are martyrs to the styles.

MATRONS FOR DANCES.

[Life:] The City Council of Indianapolis has lately passed an ordinance requiring the presence at dances of an official matron to see that proprieties are respected and with authority to intervene where they are not. The first appearance of this official—so the press reports say—was on December 18 "at a dance given by society folks at a local hotel." The matron appointed was a member of the set that had the dance. She found nothing to censure, and declined the fee of $2 allowed by the law.

The text of this ordinance has not come east yet, but it sounds like a convenient rule, and one that would be welcomed perhaps in these parts, where there are frequent complaints from the most fastidious circles of young men who do not dance with propriety, and of the need of detaching from the proceedings other young men who have overtaxed themselves with champagne.

It is often embarrassing to a hostess to have to throw a tipsy young man out of a dance. That kind of service is usually best done by an official person, and a lady of a decided nature, with help, perhaps, from a butler, can do it perfectly.

In dance halls and dances where people pay admission, a competent official matron would be a very great safeguard and protection to girls. The Hoosier idea is not a bad one. It offers, among other things, a new paid employment for women, and one in which women are adapted to excel.

Had First Knowledge.

[Woman's Home Companion:] "Willie," sadly said a father to his young son, "I did not know till today that last week you were whipped by your teacher for bad behavior."

"Didn't you, father?" Willie answered cheerfully. "Why, I knew it all the time."

NOT AT ALL SERIOUS.

A Physician's Nerve.

[New Orleans Times-Democrat:] "Speaking of doctor's bills," said Cooper, as he lit a cigar, "I have recently had revealed to me a power of nerve which I supposed was possessed only by plumbers. You know young Dr. Emdee?"

"Yes."

"Well, you know he was sweet on my daughter, Grace, for some time!"

"Yes."

"Well, one cold day last winter she met him in town when she was shopping, and he asked her to have a cup of coffee at an A B C."

"Very nice."

"Poor fellow."

"Yes. But he had his wits about him, and yesterday I got this bill:

"James Alfred Emdee, M.D.
"Surgery Hours:
"9—10 a.m.
"G. Cooper, Dr.
"To treating daughter.....$5.35."

The Chimney Smoked.

[Harper's Magazine:] In London they tell of a certain distinguished statesman who is an optimist on all points save marriage.

One afternoon this statesman was proceeding along a country road when he saw a cottager eating his supper alone in the road before his dwelling.

"Why, Henry, asked the statesman, why are you eating out here alone?"

"Well, sir, er—" the man stammered, "the—er—chimney smokes."

"That's too bad," said the statesman, his philanthropic sentiments at once being aroused. "I'll have it fixed for you. Let's have a look at it."

And before the cottager could stay him the statesman proceeded to enter the cottage. As soon as he had entered the door a broomstick fell upon his shoulders and a woman's voice shrieked:

"Back here again, are you, you old rascal! Clear out with you, or I'll——"

The statesman retired precipitately. The cottager sat in the road shaking his head in sorrow and embarrassment. The statesman bent over him and laid his hand in kindly fashion on his arm.

"Never mind, Henry," said he, consolingly, "my chimney smokes sometimes, too."

Some English Howlers.

The London Times prints a brand new collection of "howlers," blunders made by schoolboys, and some of them are refreshingly amusing. For instance:

"The mineral wealth of a country is ginger-beer and lemonade.

"James I claimed the throne of England through his grandmother as he had no father.

"Ambiguity means telling the truth when you don't mean to.

"The imperfect tense is used in French to express a future action in past time which doesn't take place at all.

"The Minister of War is the clergyman who preaches to the soldiers in the bar racks.

"Much butter is imported from Denmark, because Danish cows have greater enterprise and superior technical education to ours.

An Important Accessory.

[Somerville Journal:] Hicks: What kind of a girl is she?

Wicks: Oh, her dream of a good time is to sit in the dark, with a muff in her lap between two young men, and let the young men hold each other's hands inside the muff.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

The Gospel of Hate.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In your editorial "Gospel of Hate" (February 17) you have most appropriately described the expression and sentiment of the average rabid Socialist or I.W.W.

Recently a Socialist complained to me that a certain firm had refused to insert advertisements in the want columns for the purpose of getting Socialist people to their offices to rob them, and in response to his complaint I offered to report this condition at police headquarters if he was uncertain for me the manner of "graft." The professed Socialist responded: "I should worry about the other fellow."

Another instance of heartlessness and selfishness came to my notice, which absolutely that many Socialists are selfish rather than following their propaganda through conviction of possibility and propriety.

Only over a week ago the writer passed a team of horses tied and on the wagon there was a kettle full of tar, under which was a fire blazing directly below the kettle, and mind you, this tar boiling preparatory to putting on roofs. The wagon was covered and liable at any moment to take fire. I remarked that I should report this careless unhumane affair to the Humane Animal Society, but a rabid stranger who stood by, said: "To hell with the horses; you had better think of the working family and fight the damned capitalists." Such miserably selfish inhuman uncalled for and fanatical expression at this time proves conclusively that this fellow is mad at the world because he has no money and harbors a grudge against any man who has more of this world's goods than he. His entire heart and soul seem deverted through his mind dwelling on his Socialistic or I.W.W. ideals to such an extent that he does not care to interest himself in anything the welfare of animals; he does not care whether or no the welfare of horses were in danger—he only cares for three square meals a day for himself.

Socialists and I.W.W. are not of the same caliber, 'tis true,; but believe me, Mr. Editor, there are many of them who promulgate the propaganda through hate, jealousy and envy rather than through the channel of an honest conscience.

Respectfully, E. E. KUSEL.

On Appeal.

NEW TRIAL FOR GORHAM TUFTS.

SUPREME COURT REVERSES THE LOWER TRIBUNAL.

Former East Indian Missionary Takes Advice of His Jailer to Heart and Fight and After Two Years He Gets Another Chance for Freedom.

Gorham Tufts, Jr., East Indian missionary and mystic, who was convicted of obtaining $700 of his wife's money under false pretenses, was given a new lease on life yesterday when the Supreme Court of California reversed the verdict of the lower court on the ground that he did not have a fair trial.

Tufts was convicted July 12, 1912, and sentenced to spend three years in San Quentin. Tufts was undecided whether to take the case to the District Court of Appeals, although he believed his innocence from the start.

But it up to Jailer Gallagher. "Do you want to be a convict?" asked the jailer. Tufts replied in the negative. "Then stay here and fight and don't ever go to prison." The case was appealed to the Appellate Court and the judgment affirmed. Attorney C. Carpenter for Tufts appealed to the Supreme Court in 1913, and yesterday the decision was handed down.

Mrs. Tufts's conviction Mrs. Jennie Tufts, his wife, has been reconciled. Victor Steele, who filed the appeal, has made affidavit that he received all monies due him. Mrs. Tufts is worth several million dollars in her husband made a fortune in sheep and cattle. The Supreme Court's decision means that Tufts will probably be freed at an early date. The report of every convict he pardoned has been in the County Jail since his conviction. The jury disagreed on the first trial.

FARTING GUEST.

Commanderies Round Out a Week's Reception to Their Grand Commander, Arthur MacArthur.

The reception which the Knights Templar have been tendering to Grand Commander, Arthur MacArthur, of New York, was concluded last night at Masonic Temple with a meeting of good fellowship and music by the Templar band of which Grand Commandery No. 43, and Commander MacArthur was a member of the evening, and introduced by Sheriff Hammel, Commander of the State. MacArthur spoke of matters pertaining to the history of the order and expressed appreciation of the cordial reception which had been accorded him. He also endowed the splendid welcome which would be extended the Grand Encampment in 1916.

Visiting commanderies participating in the reception were the Los Angeles No. 9, of which Leo V. Youngworth is Eminent Commander, and West No. 43, of which David S. Ingle is Eminent Commander. There was a military inspection by Captain of Perry Weidmer and Freeland, the Grand Commander and reviewing officer.

Grand Commander John Burnham, San Diego Commandery No. 11, was present last night, completing arrangements for the visit of the Grand Commander and his suite to this city today. This will complete the tour, and the party will leave for the latter part of the week.

MOVEMENTS IN SOCIETY.

Mrs. Frederick Cocks Hicks

A BREATH of the Orient was suggested last evening in the elaborate table decorations arranged by Mrs. Frederick Cocks Hicks of New York City for her dinner party at the Hotel Alexandria.

A Japanese garden with rustic bridges and the most fascinating of tea houses occupied the center of the table, which was further beautified with rare ferns and small flowers.

The function last evening was in the nature of a farewell and following the repast a musicale was enjoyed in the private dining-room on the seventh floor of the hotel.

Invitations were accepted by Mrs. H. W. R. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. George J. Denis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Ainsworth, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant, Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Granville MacGowan, Mrs. Mary Wilcox Longstreet, Capt. and Mrs. Randolph Huntington Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mason, Miss Strong, Miss Park of London, Eng., Miss Nellie Strong, Briggs Keck, George Cole, Vollney Howard, Clinton Judy, Louis Vetter and Alfred Wilcox.

Charity Ball.

The annual ball of the Ladies of the Auxiliary of the Good Shepherd will be given tomorrow evening at the Alexandria Hotel. The hostesses will hold a reception preceding the dance, which will begin at 9 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Arend's orchestra.

All arrangements are reported completed by the chairmen of the various committees: Mmes. G. A. Bobrick, L. A. Grant, J. J. Bergin, W. P. Layton, Philip Forve, J. C. Kays, A. J. Scholl, Arnold Burkelman, George Allen Hancock and Miss Suzanne Lynch.

For Miss Drake.

Handsome among affairs yesterday was the debutante luncheon presided over by Mrs. Russell McD. Taylor, at her Berkeley Square home, honoring Miss Daphne Drake.

Spring blossoms in the dainty pastel shades formed a pleasing mound in the center of the table, which held covers for Miss Katherine Ramsay, Miss Alice Elliott, Miss Marjorie Ramsay, Miss Helen Jones, Miss Juliet Boileau, Miss Kate Van Nuys, Miss Sally McFarland and Mrs. William S. Hook, Jr.

Visitor Honored.

Complimentary to Miss Kathleen Stegmaier, Mrs. Philip Forve of No. 427 Westlake avenue, entertained yesterday with a luncheon of sixteen covers. Pink roses brightened the board together with clusters of fern sprays.

Brunswigs Honored.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Brunswig have returned from their honeymoon and last evening were the honored guests at a smart dinner party given by Senator and Mrs. Eugene S. Ives and the Misses Ives, at their home in Shorb.

The table was fresh with spring blossoms. Guests included Miss Inez Clark, Miss Kate Van Nuys, Miss Mary Addison Walker, Miss Mary Scullen of St. Louis, Miss Georgie Off, Miss Lillian Van Dyke, George Ennis, James Page, James Utley, Jack Somers, Henry Daly, Kay Crawford and Jerry Powell.

Miss Helen Ives, the attractive young debutante, left last week for Ft. Sill, where she will assist as maid of honor at the wedding of Miss Marguerite Hinds to a young officer.

Minneapolis Guest.

Mrs. L. Godfrey of Minneapolis, is the house guest of Mrs. L. Doolittle, Gramercy and Wilshire boulevard. Mrs. Godfrey will remain for the balance of the season.

Reveler's Club.

Mrs. John Graves of Ramona Park entertained the members of the Reveler's Club at her home not long ago. Auction bridge was the pleasure of the early evening, prizes falling to Mmes. Fitzgerald and Van Horn and Messrs. Berry and Thurston.

The guests were later taken to the clubhouse in Ramona Park, where dancing was enjoyed, and delicious refreshments served.

Members included were: Mr. and Mrs. Z. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. T. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Grove Ketchum, Mr. and Mrs. J. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Waggoner, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Van Horn, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Balfour.

Church Wedding.

Words spoken by Dr. D. F. Howe last evening united in marriage his attractive daughter, Miss Mary Ellen Howe, and Ernest Alvin Kern of British Columbia.

The Westlake Methodist Episcopal Church, where the ceremony was conducted, was beautifully decorated in pink and green. Ferns formed a canopy overhead, while at the front and at either side were banks of pink roses and enchantress carnations.

Showers of enchantress carnations fastened with pink tulle bows on the pews, outlined the central aisle, and hanging fern baskets added to the beauty of the arrangement.

The altar was banked with potted ferns, palms and smilax and the lights glimmered under shades of pink.

The same decorative scheme was carried out in the ladies' parlor, where a short reception was held following the ceremony, and the collation was served.

The bride was charmingly girlish in a white taffeta silk, made en traine, with trimmings of real lace and pearls. A veil thrown from the face was bound with a fillet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of roses, valley lilies and maidenhair fern.

Mrs. James F. Howe, a sister-in-law, assisted as matron of honor and preceded the bride-elect to the altar. She was robed in a pink charmeuse, with garnitures of chiffon roses and shadow lace. This was completed with a shower of Cecile Brunner roses tied with pink tulle.

Little Ernestine Warrick in a fluffy white dress, with huge pink bows of ribbon in her hair, and sash, slippers and stockings of the same hue, acted as flower girl, carrying a white basket, strewing pink rose petals before the bride.

Before the service a special musical programme was given by the church organist, Sibley Pease, and just before the ceremony, Frank Geiger sang, "Perfect Day." A public invitation was extended to all the members of Dr. Howe's congregation. The young people have gone on a wedding trip. Upon their return they will make their home in this city.

LAST RITES TODAY.

Funeral services are to be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon over the body of Miss Ruth Hollister, 25 years of age, who died Monday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Alfred Anderson, No. 325 Avenue 52. Rev. George Davidson, rector of St. John's, will officiate. The body will be cremated and the ashes sent to the deceased's parents at Buffalo. Miss Hollister came here four years ago.

BEAR HEADS, EMPRESS BILL.

Inventor of the "Grizzly" Is Unique Hit.

Real Tango Sensation at the Hippodrome.

Splendid Picture Programmes in "Movies."

His name is Big Jim.

Big Jim is ursa major coming from—well, the documents don't say where he comes from, but it's probably the rugged Rockies. Big Jim is a grizzly, but he is not grizzled. He is, indeed, young and sleek and husky and very large, wearing a coat that is delicately brown, and probably overwarm for the climate of Los Angeles. Big Jim is performing and perspiring before the footlights at the Empress Theater this week.

The dance called the "grizzly bear" was perhaps invented by Big Jim, or by somebody near of kin. Anyway, he knows the steps perfectly, going through them with much insouciance and a little grace of a lumbering sort. He also dances the "turkey trot," and a Spanish dance that resembles the Paloma. For Big Jim is a bear of up-to-date accomplishments, taking a back seat for no fashionable lady in the land. His walk, indeed, is so teeteringly and mincingly ladylike that it evokes a howl of gleeful appreciation from his enraptured audiences.

A touching little play of human sentiments and emotions is "Tony and the Stork," well given by Maurice Freeman and a company of two assistant actors. The transitions from laughter to tears, from tears to laughter, are sudden, but never forced. Perhaps you know the story—it tells of a young Italian who comes to a maternity hospital to see his wife and his new baby, and who is confronted by the stunning intelligence that both have died. He starts to go home, broken-hearted, when it is discovered that a mistake has been made, that his wife lives, and that he is the overjoyed father of twins! A simple, human thing is "Tony and the Stork."

Frostick, Hume and Thomas sing in a lively way, and do a few clever characterizations; Charles Drew and Joseph Walters patter in a skit entitled "Mr. Flynn from Lynn;" Williams and Warner make a lot of noise on various curious and unheard-of musical instruments.

Hippodrome.

A bill made up of extraordinarily interesting and diversified features opened at the Hippodrome Monday afternoon, the seven big acts comprising it running a keen race for headline honors. The show is one of the sort that holds the audience from start to finish.

Julie Gonzales opens it with a zip and justifies her sobriquet of "the aerial beauty," though the title does not in the least do justice to her ability as a performer.

"The Man Behind the Voice" aptly describes Phil Lewis, whose singing is sweet to the point of being spellbinding. If suggestions are in order, one is that he might put a little more zip in his repertoire, but this, of course, has nothing to do with the entrancing qualities of his voice.

Huron Blyden and Jane O'Roarke have a capital sketch called "The Dago." A burglar lantern in the dark puts the audience on the qui vive and the playlet comes to a sudden ending just when the audience is hoping there will be more.

The sensation of the bill is the appearance of Snyder and Hallo, who dance in whirlwind style and do the real tango in a way Los Angeles has not seen before. Without doubt they will be a society craze before the week is over.

The Light Opera Four is on its mettle this week, too, and offers entrancing selections from Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Pirates of Penzance." They are one of the big hits of the bill.

Another genuine knockout is scored by Early and Lait, whose good-humored nonsense fits into the programme admirably and paves the way for the feature act "The Bells of Shandon."

This act, in the hands of Charlie Reilly and company, proves a musical idyll, besprinkled with honeyed melody. Reilly has one of those delicious voices like Olcott and Moore, to which one never tires of listening.

Little Theater.

The second week of the Little Theater company's performance of "Anatol" was commenced Monday night, with a capacity audience in attendance—a gathering that most liberally applauded the really brilliant acting of Forrest Winant, Richard Vivian, Ethel Grey Terry, Lillian Lawrence, Anna Settle, Gertrude Workman and Elsie Jane Wilson in the principal roles of Schnitzler's piquant comedy of Viennese life. Anatol is, without any exception, one of the most expertly played and perfectly mounted comedies a local audience ever has had a chance to appreciate. It calls forth a variety of comment—some caustic, some faintly praising the comedy, others enthusiastically applauding the verities of the piece and the artistic values of the presentation—but that "Anatol" is one of the most interesting and diverting plays of recent years is the universal verdict.

The announcement that the Little Theater management would inaugurate a special scale of prices—a one-dollar-a-seat tariff—for the Thursday matinee was received with so much popular approval, that it has been decided that hereafter the Saturday, as well as the Thursday matinee performances at the Little Theater will be given at a uniform scale of $1 a seat.

James Montgomery's new American comedy, "Come Home, Smith" is being rehearsed under the personal direction of the author and will be the next offering of the Little Theater company, commencing with the performance next Monday night.

Republic.

Reminiscent of the old days of San Francisco, before that famous landmark became a thing of the past is the headline act, "A Romance of the Barbary Coast," at the Republic this week, which attracted four capacity audiences at its premiers here Monday.

A constant succession of high lights and shadows make this feature attraction a realistic picture of human life, and give it a place near the top in the underworld playlets of which Los Angeles has been having many of late. Resembling in its pathos and sunshine one of Denman Thompson's famous rural dramas it touches the heart strings of the audience, and brings to the surface an occasional tear.

Four scenes and thirty people are needed to present the dramatic picture. A graphic depiction of 'Frisco's Chinatown, and the famous old dance halls of the Barbary Coast recently legislated out of existence, through which is wound a genuine heart interest story of a father who finds his long-lost son first in an opium joint and later in a dance hall and the son's later returning to the fold, caused rapt attention on the part of the auditors. B. McKenzie in the part of the father does an excellent bit of character acting.

An attraction of unusual interest is furnished by the Kiachi Japanese troupe, who furnish excellent exhibitions of Japanese acrobatics, contortions and Risley foot juggling. There are five in the company, and the work of the juvenile members is particularly notable.

Edythe May Taylor, comedienne and monologist has a dainty act, winning much applause, while Beeson and Harris, eccentric comedians elicit many laughs with a score of unusual antics, much clever chatter and comedy songs.

Woodley Theater.

"The Lost Treasure," the three-reel feature of the first half of the week at Woodley's Theater, and the "Mutual Girl" run a close race for first place in public favor. Widely different in theme and treatment, both have engrossing appeal, and with the supplementary films, make a delightful programme.

Then, too, the special music bill on the big Woodley pipe organ is decidedly out of the ordinary, as C. Percival Garratt is introducing some new wonders of the mammoth instrument which even he has but lately mastered.

In the meantime elaborate preparations are being made for that great film masterpiece, "Ruy Blas," by Victor Hugo, which will make its bow to Los Angeles Thursday.

It is a wonderful story and a wonderful film, and the special descriptive music which will accompany it will make the appearance of "Ruy Blas" an event of decided importance as well as keep interest to both moving-picture and music lovers.

Miller's.

A crack-a-jack four-reel Pathe masterpiece began a week's screen engagement at Miller's Monday. It is called "The Blighted Son." It tells in vivid fashion one of those fascinating stories for which the French are so famous. A real French novel on the screen, in fact, in which a young man of wealth and high social position, engaged to wed a girl of his own station in society, falls in love with a woman of the underworld, and in trying to pamper to her greed and love of luxury, ruins not only himself but his family, and causes his father to go blind.

The scene shifts from Paris to Algiers, where the broken creature goes to regenerate himself, and his struggle in this strange land amid picturesque but untasteful surroundings is one of the fascinating parts of the story.

Clune's.

"Chains of Honor," a most unusual two-reel drama made at much expense by the Pathe-Freres company, is the stellar attraction at Clune's Broadway Theater this week at the top of a remarkably good bill of motion pictures, vaudeville and illustrated songs. It will be shown today with an entirely new bill on Thursday.

"Chains of Honor" is the strong and realistic story of a loving woman's fidelity to her chosen mate. Love and hate are shown as elements of life matched against each other with the former finally triumphing in the last few feet of film. The strength of the heroine's love caused her to resist all temptations which beset her.

Comic Opera.

AS THE WOMAN SEES "ADELE" AT THE MASON.

BY FANCHON.

SWEETNESS and light—these, it seems to me, are the reigning features of "Adele," which is now attracting Mason patrons. And they are features so often absent from so-called comic opera that they are all the more noticeable.

Someone has asserted that Carolyn Thomas, who plays the name part in this bright affair, never was on the stage before. One can readily believe this; her very unsophistication demonstrates it. Yet, one would hardly wish a thoroughly trained actress in that ingenuish role; it would be spoiled by anyone too knowing. The very fact that she is plainly not acting makes her stage work the more fascinating.

One could wish that John Park, the handsome baritone "lead," had not absorbed so much San Francisco fog, that he had less of a cold, and more of what must be his normal singing voice. Park evidently has a finished method and a fine voice; perhaps by the end of the week he will be at his usual best.

Many good words are heard for Ralph Nairn, who is a gem of a "gentleman's gentleman." Nairn has evidently been used to such service in his own case, or he could not fit a valet's role so cleverly.

Nanette Flack is a better worker in "Adele" than she was in "Alma"—and I thought her very fine in that lately popular play.

There's so much that's good in "Adele" that one can readily believe that six months in New York proved too short a time for its run.

THREE CENTURIES OF PRIMA DONNAS AT AUDITORIUM.

Yvonne de Treville, Delightfully Accompanied by Miss Whiffen, in Fine Costume Recital of Songs in Three Languages, Covering Three Centuries of Music.

BY HECTOR ALLIOT.

Too much emphasis has been placed upon Yvonne de Treville's costumes. While they are historical, attractive and beautiful, they only form a background for the singing of the artist. And the singing is very delightful.

Coloratura sopranos are scarce, because the tones that they are able to produce are more birdlike than habitually human.

Most of the songbirds so rarely endowed are often deprived of personal charm and grace. Temperamentally they are generally devoid of lyric expression and remain, in the realm of art, interesing performers, jugglers of notes and, for the most part, acrobatic vocalists.

To a technique of remarkable finish, an enunciation always clear in English, French or German, she adds a convincing expression and action quite novel on the concert stage. Through the operation of some antique and somewhat fossilized custom, the concert singer is expected to [illegible] scene aria, a lullaby or a [illegible] with his or her hands placed [illegible] zontal position, with the body [illegible] one hand holding the other, [illegible] ing it with lukewarm [illegible]

MANY SPEEDY CIRCUITS MADE.

Tetzlaff Credited With the Fastest Lap.

Pullen and Oldfield Also Show Speed.

Grant Makes Best Time on Straightaway.

BY AL G. WADDELL.

FRESNO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ralph Dean and Don Rains in the Mercer post entry in the Vanderbilt cup race met with slight injuries this morning when the car went off the State highway into a ditch. The front wheel was smashed. They left here early, expecting to reach Los Angeles tonight. The Mercer crew left San Francisco Monday night.

Teddy Tetzlaff averaged better than eighty-seven miles an hour around the Santa Monica course yesterday morning.

Two watches caught the giant Fiat, entered by the Savage Tire Company in the Grand Prize race, at 5m. 4½s. for the lap. This is about eighty-seven and one-half miles an hour and is the fastest lap yet made in the practice runs.

Ed Pullen made a lap in 5m. 5½s., driving the Mercer, entered in both the Vanderbilt and Grand Prize, entered by the Mercer Automobile Company. Pullen's lap was at the rate of eighty-six miles an hour.

Barney Oldfield in the Mercer entered by George Settle, made a lap in 5m. 59s., according to time caught from the grand stand, but watches held at other points on the course gave the veteran driver the lap at 5m. 56s., which means an average of eighty-five miles an hour for the 8.4 miles.

SOME SPEED.

Harry Grant in the Isotta-Fraschini, entered by William Ziegler, Jr., was credited with doing better than 100 miles an hour on the stretch between the Soldiers' Home and the ocean. This time has been promised and several of the drivers say that they will show better than 110 miles an hour on that stretch in practice and in the great race Saturday.

Harry Grant's best full lap yesterday was timed at 6 flat. This means eighty-five miles an hour. Grant has opened up on the stretches several times since the practice runs began and rumors have had it that he has made 120 miles an hour. Grant denies this, as he says he has not opened up and will not until the time comes in the race when he will be compelled to show his best speed to win.

Bill Carlson in the Mason made two laps at 6m. each yesterday and started out on a fast lap to see what his flying car was good for, but Baron Rickenbacher, who is driving the other Mason, asked George Adair to flag him down, as it was almost 8 o'clock and there was great danger of his getting onto the back stretch just after the course was opened up to touring cars.

OUT FOR RECORD.

This morning Carlson and Rickenbacher are both to try to get the best out of their cars. If the course is in condition, Rickenbacher promises to eclipse the performance of Grant and

DE LAGE RACER ARRIVES TODAY.

At 7 o'clock this morning the much-heralded DeLage racer of Mrs. Leotia K. Northam is due to arrive over the Santa Fe. The Wells-Fargo Company announced last night that the machine had passed through Albuquerque and would certainly be here.

Immediately upon arrival the machine will be put on exhibition in the rooms of the William R. Ruess Company, where Bert Dingley and the French mechanic, who is accompanying the machine, will tinker with it and put it in shape for a workout on the course tomorrow morning.

TOLEDO (O.) Feb. 17.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] With the Toledo American Association team transferred to Cleveland, the finest minor league park in the country is temporarily without occupants.

Miss Jessie Grieve and Johnny Strachan Win Mixed Doubles Title from Miss Sutton and Allyn Barber in Terrific Match—Miss Oughton Wins Consolation Singles.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The 1914 Coronado tennis tournament was completed today with the playing-off of finals postponed from yesterday on account of rain.

Miss Florence Sutton of Los Angeles won the women's singles championship, defeating Mrs. Gladys Widdowson of Santa Monica in straight sets of 6-0, 6-3.

Miss Jessie Grieve, Los Angeles, and John Strachan, San Francisco, won the mixed double title, beating Miss Sutton and Allyn Barber, Los Angeles, in an exciting and stubbornly contested match, 2-6, 11-9, 6-3.

In the women's consolation singles, Miss Winsome Oughton of Coronado defeated Mrs. Myra Seymour of Redondo in a very even match, 8-6, 6-8, 6-4.

An Ultimatum.

PACKY MUST FIGHT OR BE FORCED FROM RING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Packy McFarland, the so-called stock yards phantom, must fight Mike Gibbons of St. Paul in the Madison Square Garden arena, New York, March 9, or retire from the game for all time. W. H. Wellman, a representative of the Madison Square Garden A.C., arrived in Chicago today, ready to talk business with McFarland and prepared to meet his demands. Finding McFarland was like finding the elusive flea. After a day of running about the city the representative of the New York club discovered that Packy had arrived in the city and had taken a train for Joliet to see his bride-to-be. The envoy of the club is ready to place his cards on the table and all that he asks is that McFarland does the same while in New York. The local boy gave excuse after excuse, followed by alibi after alibi, but the club and Gibbons answered every one and now demand that McFarland either fight or acknowledge that the fear of the speedy St. Paul man is all that keeps him out of the ring.

Gibbons signed articles Monday morning to battle Packy at 145 pounds and did not demand a guarantee, taking 25 per cent. of the gate. The management of the club stands ready to sign with McFarland at the terms he claimed in a recent statement that they refused to meet, that is, a guarantee of $10,000, with the privilege of 25 per cent. of the gross receipts.

FEDERALS STILL AFTER STAHL FOR BROOKLYN.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Jake Stahl, former manager of the Boston American League Baseball Club, admitted today that he is seriously considering an offer to manage the new Brooklyn Federal League team. The offer was made to him last night by James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal League, and Charles Weeghman, president of the Chicago Federal League club.

"This chance to get back into baseball came to me suddenly, and I cannot say what I will do," said Stahl, who led the Red Sox in 1912 when they defeated the New York Nationals for the world's championship. "I certainly had a good offer from the Federal League men, and I wouldn't hesitate a minute because of any fear of getting my money. I think the league will go fine.

"But when I was let out of Boston last summer I gave up baseball forever, and since then have given my entire attention to the Chicago bank in which I invested my money. It's pretty hard for me to see any way of leaving that business again.

"I have not given Mr. Gilmore a final answer yet. One may see a way to do a lot of things for a lot of money."

A telegram warning him to "keep hands off" Pitcher Tom Seaton was received by President Gilmore today. It was signed by W. A. Baker, president of the Philadelphia Nationals, and stated that Seaton had agreed to the Phillies' terms in January. Federal emissaries, however, probably will meet Seaton soon and discuss his standing with him, since they understood he has come to no definite agreement with the Philadelphia club.

Gilmore expressed no worry over a report that the Newark club would be put in Brooklyn to compete with the Federals there. "We are going to give Brooklyn major league ball, and Newark's team is a minor league organization," he said.

"For the third time let me deny that the American Association offered Weeghman the St. Paul franchise to be put in Chicago," requested President Chivington of the American Association. Weeghman also requested that a denial of the story be repeated on his part. Chivington declares that the move in putting the Toledo team in Cleveland will be a success. The association's schedule makers will arrange to have the team play in Cleveland while the Cleveland Americans are away, and Chivington figures that with a dozen or so Sundays available, the attendance will be greater than that at Toledo, where he said 104,000 persons saw last year's games. "Twenty-five cent baseball," would prove a drawing card, too, he predicted.

The Federal League is after three Cuban ball players, about whom President Gilmore has heard good reports. Fernando Conte is representing the league in negotiating with them at Havana, and is expected to cable the results of his scouting tour within a short time.

TROJAN-TIGER DUEL COMING.

Kirkpatrick and Kelly Will Provide Thrills.

Bill Annin to Meet Cyril Tipton in Half.

Trojans Have Edge According to the Dope.

The track meet of consuming interest to residents of Los Angeles is the annual battle on the cinders between Occidental College and the University of Southern California, which is to be held next Saturday afternoon on the U.S.C. track.

The Tigers haven't slipped one over on the Trojans since the memorable 67-64 affair on the U.S.C. track two years ago. To tell the truth, it doesn't look as though the Tigers were liable to slip another win over for some time to come.

U.S.C. has another remarkable team this year and the chief interest of the meet will be the duels between various athletes of the two colleges. Drew is conceded a first in both sprints unless he breaks a leg, and U.S.C. is also conceded firsts in the shot and pole, but right there the concessions stop.

A GREAT DUEL.

Kelly, the Olympic champion hurdles, will have the time of his life in both barrier events, especially the low sticks. Kirkpatrick has been showing wonderful form in both events this year and has taken the low sticks in 24 flat, the best time ever made on the difficult Occidental track. He will make the champ hurry in both events.

Johnny Cook, the chunky Tiger 440 man, is in great shape this year and will make Laird, Berrer and Franklin do better than 51 seconds to beat him. In the 880 there will be another duel between Bill Annin of Occidental and Tipton of U.S.C. Annin has already beaten two minutes and Tipton is said by Coach Comstock to be capable of that time, so that there should be a great battle in the two-lap sprint.

The Tigers apparently have everything their own way in the distances. Both Annin and Pritchard can make 4:40 in the mile, while U.S.C. hasn't shown anybody capable of that sure. In the two-mile grind Pritchard has never been pushed, but can clip off the eight laps in very close to ten minutes and that time is good enough to win, according to all advance dope.

The high jump looks like a battle between Ward and Kendrick of the Trojans and Creighton and Lawyer of the Tigers and should be won at close to six feet. The broad jump is another question, as both Packard and Lawyer of the Tigers can do 21 feet or better while Kelly and Cookman are good for about the same distance.

IN THE WEIGHTS.

Bailey of U.S.C. and Wiesman, Kinney and McNary of the Tigers have been heaving the hammer around the 130-foot mark and luck will pick the first place man in this event. The same is true of the discus, Smith of U.S.C. and Brandstetter of the Tigers being in about the same class.

The relay apparently belongs to the Trojans, though the Tigers may spring something unexpected in this line. The Tigers finished quite a way behind the Trojans in the relay meet, but this was because Johnny Cook didn't run after Bats had been forced to run his lap with a bally-spiked foot acquired in being touched off.

Coach Comstock of the Trojans predicts another victory by a large score for his team. The Tigers aren't betting the family jewels that they will win, but they figure that they can better their score of 46, made last year, by several points.

A Disappointment.

TRANS-PACIFIC, RACE IS OFF.

HAWAII YACHT CLUB WON'T FURNISH CUP.

Honolulu Yachtsmen Evidently Want to Come Over to the Big Regatta at San Francisco in 1915 and This Leads Them to Postponement of Big Race.

BY E. D. SEWARD.

No trans-Pacific yacht race from San Pedro to Honolulu will be held this summer, but there is a likelihood that the race will be sailed next year.

The South Coast Yacht Club yesterday received official notice from the Hawaii Yacht Club that at the annual meeting of the club on January 28, a resolution was passed, "That the secretary be instructed to notify the Coast clubs that no trans-Pacific yacht race will be held in 1914 under the auspices of the Hawaii Yacht Club."

The Hawaii Yacht Club has not as yet gone on record as to the race for 1915, but it is hoped that conditions will be right next year to pull off the race.

The race to Honolulu has been sailed every two years, the clubs alternating in putting up the costly cups. As the South Coast Yacht Club put up the prizes in 1912 it was up to the Honolulu club to prepare the cups for the next race which would naturally be sailed in June of this year.

The fact that the big Lipton races and other events will make up a regatta at the 1915 Exposition at San Francisco has evidently caused the Hawaii Yacht Club to postpone the 1914 race as they will naturally all want to come across the pond to the Panama Exposition.

Much disappointment will be felt, however, in several of the Coast clubs which were already figuring on putting a boat in the race this year. Particularly is this true of the Tacoma Yacht Club, Commodore B. F. Jacobs having asked for particulars last fall as the northern club contemplated building a boat for the event.

CUPS WORTH MORE THAN WEIGHT IN GOLD.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

BRINGING HOME THE WINNING CUP UNDER MILITARY GUARD.

DESIGNING THE CUP FOR THE NEXT TOURNAMENT.

Of course, nothing could ever be really too good for the glorious golfer, so that one observes interestedly, but without reproach, the increasing standard of luxury in golf tournaments, and particularly golf trophies.

We have almost reached the zenith of magnificence in mere silver. Next year nothing less than gold will be acceptable. The year after that they will be studded with diamonds. Champions are becoming critical, blase, surfeited. The cup of the future that would cheer them on to supreme effort will have to be wrought with tangible temptation, visible allurement, concentrated Tiffany.

• •

Five years ago $100 for tournament cups was considered lordly, magnificent, even a bit swankey, and certainly sufficed for all ordinary country club invitation affairs. But since then the standard has been creeping up, higher, higher. When Redlands spent $400 the year before last, we were very properly impressed, and it was felt that Redlands has established its social and financial superiority.

Then, last year, the little Virginia Country Club down at Long Beach decided to make a really stunning debut into the association. Their invitation tournament last May was a luxurious affair and the array of cups, quality and quantity, simply staggered us. California was not regarded as worthy to provide those trophies and Tiffany of New York lent the eclat of their name, tantamount to the painting of the lily.

That was the next trick. When they had reached a reasonable limit in size, a club showed off by providing more of them. Not only for each flight, but sometimes for the runner-up in each flight and for winner and runner-up in each defeated eight as well.

When we had reached the limit in quantity, luxury must be added in some form, so we imported them from long distances—Shreves of San Francisco or Tiffany of New York—which appreciably added to the cost.

• •

And this year, our cups are running into thousands of dollars. So far, we have had three large tournaments on the invitation order—the Midwick open, for which the prizes, professional and amateur, ran into thousands. Then Annandale held an amateur open event, for which the cups were more superlatively ad-jectival than ever. Naturally, the Los Angeles Country Club could not be outdone by Annandale, especially as they had announced their intention of giving a unique invitation tournament, so the array of cups for the Beverly tournament just completed represented a king's—or any way, a lady missionary's—ransom.

Luxury piles upon luxury, and at no distant date we shall have the Kimberley mines working overtime for months prior to a California country club invitation golf tournament.

No need to grumble. It is all good for trade. Besides, they are a lordly race, these golfers, princelings all, and it is meet and right that their prizes should adequately indicate their social status.

• •

But where is it going to end? And, of course, there is always the individual housing problem to be solved. If people like Macbeth, Armstrong, Jack Jevne, R. O. Lapham, A. A. French, Robert Hunter and so forth go on winning cups every few months throughout the year, there is the question of adequate and appropriate display. It is only February, and Armstrong has won five this year already. One golf friend assured us he only had sixty-three cups left, owing to two bad fires.

When the Bundys built their new home (to take a tennis instance) they were compelled to have a special showcase of immense proportions built into it for the accommodation of their united cups and trophies. And at that the problem is only temporarily solved. For as these trophies become more valuable and costly, no ordinary glass case or family sideboard could be trusted to keep them in safety.

One sees an anxious future wherein Armstrong, for instance, finds that nothing short of a moated fortress can effectually protect his treasures, guarded day and night by a special detachment of the Scottie rough-riders. Something like the crown jewels at Windsor Castle, you know. And the question of transporting them home will call for new designs in armored motor cars. He already possesses about 150 to be guarded—and kept clean and polished.

• •

What are we going to do about it? Oh, don't let's do anything. It is all on a par with the spirit of the age. Nations outdo each other in expensive navies, women outdo each other with expensive clothes, hosts outdo each other with expensive entertainments, motorists outdo each other with expensive automobiles, operas outdo each other with expensive prima donnas, churches outdo each other with expensive organs, the clergy outdo each other with extravagant sermons—and as we shan't meet any of them in heaven, we may as well get what amusement we can out of them while we are here.

HUGHES SIGNS, WOLTERS SAYS HE'LL PLAY HERE.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

ANGEL stock took a decided jump yesterday. "Long Tom" Hughes signed his 1914 contract, and Harry Wolters displayed distinct symptoms of reconsidering his determination not to play with the Los Angeles club.

Along in the fag end of the afternoon Berry received a wire from Clark Griffith. This stated that Hughes had just affixed his John Hancock to a Los Angeles contract. Then, to emphasize his loyalty to the Angels, Elongated Thomas accepted a slice of advance money from the palm of Mr. Griffith.

Presumably, this advance lucre is for the purpose of providing Hughes with "eats" on the trip west and other incidentals. Berry will, of course, reimburse Griffith.

Mr. Hughes comes from the Washington Americans. His height has been variously estimated from six to eight feet, and his pitching judgment has been ripened by ample major league experience. In every way he seems to be a desirable citizen.

WOLTERS IS WILLING.

Wolters chose the postal service as the medium for confiding his desires to Berry. He denies that he has any scruples against playing in Los Angeles, and intimates that all he needs is a little more financial inducing.

Wolters was a high-priced player in the American League. Last season he drew down $4500. For the Coast League to attempt to pay that kind of money would be business suicide. Twenty-four hundred is not a bad sort of salary here, but it doesn't listen well to a player who has been receiving about twice that much. Consequently the contract which Berry sent him, calling for a reduction in his major league wages that was easily discernible to the naked eye, proved something of a shock.

After Wolters had cooled down, he was able to see the logic of the situation, and is now willing to treat with the local club. In fact, they have reached an understanding, where Berry regards him almost as good as signed.

IS SOME BALLPLAYER.

Harry Wolverton last season told the writer that he regarded Wolters as one of the best outfielders in either of the major leagues. He has not gone back appreciably in the meantime. But New York, under the necessity of getting rid of its older players in the process of rebuilding, and fearing to let Wolters go to a rival club, consented that he should become an Angel.

Ed R. Maier, president of the Tigers, is taking no chances with the Federals.

He yesterday cabled Jack Bliss in Paris, informing the catcher of his transfer from Sacramento to Venice. This makes is practically certain that Bliss will not flirt with the Feds, as he is a great friend of Maier's, and is entirely satisfied to play in the south. Up to the time of this cable Bliss had been in ignorance of his transfer to Venice.

The report that the Federal League had dispatched agents to Europe to negotiate with members of the two world-touring teams prompted Maier to dispatch this cable.

THINKS GOODWIN SAFE.

Secretary Weber of the Los Angeles club declines to credit the report that Goodwin has rejumped to the Federals.

"Goodwin expressed regret that he had signed with the Feds originally," said Weber, "and admitted that he had made a mistake. After having been with him for nearly two days, I can't take any stock in the story that he has gone back to them."

Perhaps.

MITZE MAY JOIN OAKS.

EX-MANAGER MAY SERVE UNDER ART DEVLIN.

Leavitt and Cook Wire Catcher to Return and Play With Them Next Year, but Honus Isn't Crazy About It—Is Still a Good Receiver in Spite of Reports to Contrary.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Honus Mitze is considering the question of whether it will be good policy for him to return to Oakland. Word has come from him on the subject, and a return wire has been forwarded to the catcher. Leavitt and Cook are confident that in the end Mitze will decide to join forces once more with the Commuters.

In his wire to the Oakland management, received today, Mitze intimated that he was still of the opinion that it would be the best thing for him to go elsewhere than to the West, chiefly on account of the fact that he was retired as manager of the club. He did say, however, that if he had to play baseball on the Pacific Coast he would as soon sign with Oakland as any other team.

"I have an idea that Mitze will be with us," said Leavitt today. "The story has gone out over the United States that when Mitze was injured the last time, breaking one of the fingers on his catching hand, he was entirely incapacitated from playing any further baseball. The best way to rehabilitate himself is to play with Oakland this coming season, and we have put it up to him in that fashion."

CHRIS MAHONEY IS SOLD TO VICTORIA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 17.—Christopher Mahoney, Portland Northwestern League outfielder, was sold today to the Victoria team by Manager Nick Williams. Mahoney came to the Portland Beavers from Sacramento in a trade for Pitcher Jack Gilligan, later being sent to the Colts. Mahoney is a pitcher also, and once was with Boston.

EVERS TO HAVE. FATE SETTLED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Gov. John Tener of Pennsylvania, president of the National League, has called an adjourned session of the National League and an adjourned meeting of the board of directors of the league to be held at Cincinnati Saturday. The final details of the transfer of former Second Baseman John Evers of the Chicago club to the Boston club will be completed. Other business is also expected to come up for consideration.

Record Holder.

HARRY WOOD A WONDER IN THE TWO-MILE RUN.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Feb. 17.—"Happy Harry" Wood, from the Quaker town of Whittier, is back on the track, his face full of smiles and his head full of assorted "cow college" knowledge. And what is more, he is rambling around the cinder path at a rate that means a big five spot for the Blue and Gold in the intercollegiate battle.

After the Stanford-California meet last season Wood decided that he would go back to his old event, the two-mile, and absolve himself for keeps from the mile, which he had run the previous two years. How well he succeeded is evinced by the fact that last October when he had attained only "fall condition," he tumbled down the Pacific Coast two-mile record with a crash. When the splinters of the old record of 9:50 were gathered together all that could be found was enough to make 9:42:03, which is submitted as evidence that the bump was fairly healthy.

Last season Wood captained the varsity and was one of the most popular men who have ever held that position. He is quiet and modest, almost to the extent of being bashful—a refreshing change from the I-would-be-glorified type that occasionally drifts into college. If the ideal of the Quaker City be unassuming efficiency they have a good representative in "Happy Harry."

Wood is at present doing graduate work in the College of Agriculture. The coming season will be the last that he will be eligible to compete in intercollegiate athletics, and he has a hunch stored away behind a mass of formulas and tests that he may be able to jolt the injured two-mile record again before he goes on the shelf as a four-year varsity man.

LORD DECIES AWAITED.

WAGNER SAYS FINE COURSE.

Fred J. Wagner, who is to referee the Grand Prize race and start the Vanderbilt Cup event, said last night that, in his opinion, the course at Santa Monica was the safest and fastest automobile race course in the world.

"California is to be congratulated," said Mr. Wagner. "I am a California booster and am glad to be here to witness these great speed events. It means a lot to your city and to the West. I hope to see many Vanderbilt and Grand Prize races run out here."

Speedy Circuits Made.

Little attention has been paid to young Joerimann, pilot of the Tourine; but yesterday he turned a lap in 6m. 31s., and did even better on his last lap, but coasted into the pits, spoiling his time, as it was almost time for the racers to clear the course.

"It would not surprise me a bit," said Clerk of the Course Adair, "to see this kid Joerimann step to the front in this race. He is a great little driver, willing to take any chance, and yet as clever with the wheel as any of them. He will not disappoint the spectators and is a driver that California can well be proud of."

SUNBEAM SHINES.

The Sunbeam made some fast time yesterday, but did not make any fast complete laps. Marquis seemed to be having trouble with his exhaust and would not try to tear off any fast work. Last night the car was reported in excellent condition and today Marquis is expected to rival Tetzlaff, with his record-breaking lap.

For a fast car, the Sunbeam makes little noise. Once yesterday it shot down Ocean avenue almost unnoticed by the spectators, who were following Grant with their eyes down to the turn at Nevada avenue.

No car on the course has the "bark" that Grant's Isotta has. In the early morning this speed monster can be followed completely around the course by its sound. Even Tetzlaff's Fiat is a back number when it comes to the "bellow."

Ralph de Palma was not out yesterday. It is doubtful if the Mercedes will get out this morning. The driver and his mechanics worked all day yesterday on the burned-out bearing and at a late hour last night Ralph had gone to bed with instructions to call him if the car was in shape in time to go down to the course.

That Teddy Tetzlaff's record made in the Fiat two years ago will be broken Saturday is promised by almost every driver entered in the Vanderbilt Cup race.

Barney Oldfield prophesies that it will be the greatest race ever run in America. He says that for the first 100 miles or more it will be a wild race for first place, and after that the car in the lead will be chased by the field as a leader was never chased before on the Santa Monica or any other course.

LEWIS IMPROVING.

Dave Lewis, driver of the Fiat which was wrecked Monday morning at the Soldiers' Home curve, was reported to be much improved last night. The surgeon in charge at St. Catherine's Hospital, Santa Monica, where the crippled driver is being treated, said last night that Lewis would be able to view the races from the grand stand.

Eddie Arnott, the mechanician who was with Lewis when the car killed one man and injured several others, is reported to be still in a dangerous condition, but the hospital authorities assured his friends last night that he was showing signs of rapid recovery, although they were taking every precaution to ward off a relapse.

Word was received yesterday that a special train was to leave Fresno Friday with boosters for Earl Cooper. N. R. Cooper, a brother of the racing driver and secretary of the Fresno County Automobile Club, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday and is making arrangements for the entertainment of the Fresno crowd while at Santa Monica over Saturday and Sunday.

LOVE FEAST FOR VISITING DRIVERS.

Preparations are being made for a spread at McKee's restaurant tonight for every driver and every mechanician entered in the Vanderbilt and Grand Prize races. Covers will be laid for about seventy-five and S. A. McKee, entrant of the Mason, will be the host. This is to be a get-together banquet and an opportunity will be given the visitors to meet the leading men who are here from the East.

Officials of the race have also been invited. Starter Fred Wagner will be one of the guests of honor, together with a number of New York and Chicago automobile men. This is the first dinner given for the visitors and is meant as a love feast before the battle begins for the Vanderbilt and Grand Prize road races. A miniature Santa Monica course will grace the immense banquet table. The time for the feast has been set for 6:30 o'clock this evening.

ARDEN RUGBY CLUB PLAYS ALL-STARS.

Not content with beating the strong San Gabriel fifteen last week, the Arden Rugby Football Club will play an all-star team captained by P. J. Higgins, next Sunday afternoon on the Casa Verdugo Grammar School ground. The kick-off will be at 2:30 o'clock.

This match has been arranged by E. Elliot, captain of the Arden Club fense. and P. J. Higgins. Higgins is very anxious to try out his brother Bernard, who recently arrived from Sydney, Australia, and who, from all accounts, is a wonderful player. Hugh Blue will captain the Arden team on this occasion.

The Arden line-up will be the same that gave San Gabriel such a hard game. With the men in good training, Higgins's fifteen will have a warm afternoon's work in getting past the back line of the Arden de-

Consists of 4 durable, high-grade and everlasting aluminum pieces, which can be converted into 12 separate and practical cooking utensils, as shown below. These aluminum pieces are absolutely sanitary. They contain no traces of iron or other base metals. They will not corrode or rust. This set will be placed with Times subscribers on a very liberal basis. For further particulars inquire of any Times Agent or communicate directly with The Times.

Absolutely Practical for Everyday Use

These TWELVE FULL SIZED PRACTICAL COMBINATIONS if bought separately would represent a retail value of MORE THAN $20.00.

The PERFECTION SET is even more desirable, as the pieces nest compactly and require but little pantry space—a decided advantage particularly in modern apartments where space is limited.

ROSES ROSES ROSES

CONTRACT

Date ..... 1914.

Gentlemen:—

In consideration of your offer of a selection of 6 rose bushes, I hereby agree to subscribe for The Times (Daily and Sunday,) and will pay for same regularly every month at the subscription price of 75c per month for a period of six (6) months from the date hereof. It is understood that an order on the nurseryman for the selection of 6 rose bushes will be delivered to me at once, and that the said premium will remain the property of The Times-Mirror Company until this contract has been fulfilled. I promise to notify The Times at once should I change my residence.

Everybody Likes Roses, and Here's An Opportunity for Times Readers, Old and New, to Get Them Absolutely Free!

It is the desire of THE TIMES to do its utmost to make a success of the great Flower Festival, which will be held in Los Angeles in 1915. Arrangements have been made by THE TIMES with several of the best nurseries in Southern California to supply rose bushes to patrons, absolutely free, to encourage the planting of these roses, which will mature in time for use in 1915.

Every loyal citizen of Southern California should be intensely interested in this great Flower Festival. With the support of citizens in general, it is hoped to make this flower show rival in beauty and attractiveness the Panama Exposition and the Mission Exposition at San Diego. Preliminary arrangements for the Festival are in the hands of a large committee, appointed by the Chamber of Commerce, under the leadership of Chairman Motley H. Flint. They are working energetically to make this Flower Festival world-renowned.

THE TIMES will distribute, absolutely free, several thousands dollars' worth of standard roses, such as the Mamas Cochet, Marechal Niel, Cherokee, Kaiserin Victoria, etc. Beautiful roses are a source of joy and pleasure to every home. They beautify the home and make it more valuable and attractive. The planting of thousands of roses at this time will serve two purposes: Enhance the value and beauty of the home and furnish an abundance of flowers for the Los Angeles Flower Festival in 1915.

A selection of six distinct varieties will be given to each patron, old or new. Persons desiring to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to beautify their homes and, at the same time, assist in a great public-spirited movement to attract and please the thousands of persons from all over the world who will visit Los Angeles in 1915, should communicate at once with THE TIMES office in person, or by telephone or mail, for full information and details.

The rose plants will not be ready for distribution until Monday morning, February 23rd. In the meantime patrons, old and new, who desire the roses, may subscribe at THE TIMES office, or through any regular TIMES agent, and an order on the nurseryman will then be delivered to each patron for the selection of 6 roses. The supply is limited and orders from patrons will be cared for according to priority.

A small express or parcels post charge will be necessary where subscribers desire a selection forwarded to them.

Persons desiring to take advantage of this splendid offer of free roses may sign the attached contract and order and send it in to THE TIMES office.

FLORENCE STONE'S VENTURE "RITA" LOOKS THE GOODS.

BY GARDNER BRADFORD.

DEEP stuff. I thought there was something in the air when all that divorce rot was sprung about Dick Ferris and Florence Stone. That was the reason I did not print any of it.

And, of course, by this time it is common knowledge that Flossie is to open at the Republic next week with plenty of salary, and a cast of twenty to support her.

What worries me most is, will she wear a purple gown and purple hair, and use "The Deep Purple" as her initial offering.

Dropped in at the Burbank yesterday to take a peep at the rehearsal of "Rita's Romance," intending to stay two minutes, and found it so interesting that I tarried two hours. As it develops it gets more and more interesting. Of course, you never can tell till after the first performance whether a show is a hit or not, but as far as it has gone it looks good to me.

There are many unique features to "Milestones," which comes to the Mason next week. All the scenes are laid in one room, yet they use three distinct sets of furniture, indicating the march of time from the Civil War to the present day. Costumes, too, change, yet one girl plays all the way through the show, from maid to grandmother, affording one of the most unique roles in modern drama.

I seldom mention the man ahead or the man behind, as the general public comes in little or no contact with them, but as he will likely be on the door opening night, and as large as Jim Jeffries, and is certain to be the butt of feminine curiosity, I will satisfy curiosity in advance by remarking, "Yes, the big fellow is Al."

It wasn't until after her second number that I made sure that Edna Showalter, now at the Orpheum, is the girl who created the role of Minnie in "The Girl of the Golden West" in this country. Frankly, I don't like her selections, but that does not mar the exquisite qualities of her voice in the least, and the hearty approval of the audience convinced me that I was in the minority.

I scented a scandal yesterday afternoon when I saw Frank Keenan, who is the old soldier at the Orpheum this week, rubbering in the shop windows with a handsome girl young enough to be his daughter.

Only she really did happen to be his daughter, and she, by the way, is making a big hit as Agnes Lynch, the girl with the slang in "Within the Law," now at the Majestic.

On [illegible] desk is a press notice stating that Harry Lauder is quite a joke-smith. Don't you believe it. Lauder hasn't a spark of original humor in him. However, he is a great financier. He used to earn as much in five years as he gets now in a week.

Of course you know Lauder comes to the Majestic next week and following him comes "The Blue Bird," an announcement which will be welcome to the throng which could not get in, even on the extra matinees which marked its former appearance here.

I do not know who is going to be in the cast, but as the scenery is the most important part of the show, we should bibble.

Ran into friend Pottery in the Alex yesterday with a budget of letters and telegrams in his fist telling about the successful opening of the third "The Traffic" company in Minneapolis. Pottery, by the way, was local manager at the Lyceum when Bailey & Drew put on their white slave sensation in Los Angeles.

AERO RACE ROUTE MAY BE CHANGED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The Aeronautical Society, in a letter to the Panama-Pacific Exposition Commission, made public today, urges that the proposed aeroplane race around the world be changed to a race across the continent. The Aeronautical Club believes that a sea-to-sea flight would insure a sufficiently large number of American and foreign entries to make the race a spectacular one and also that the results attained would be of far greater advantage to aeronautics than the proposed around-the-world flight.

Members of the Aero Club of America, in discussing the sea-to-sea flight, said it would be of great interest, but none would say that the attempt to fly around the world had been abandoned in its favor.

JERSEY CITY CLUB REFUSES TO MOVE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The plan of organized baseball to place an International League team in Brooklyn to compete with the invading Federal League team was abandoned today after negotiations between Presidents Charles H. Ebbets of the Brooklyn National League team and Thomas Fogarty of the Jersey City International League club had failed of their purpose.

Ebbets, it was learned, desired to charge the Jersey City team a sum reported to be $50,000 for permission to play in the Newark ball park, which he controls. Fogarty refused to meet Ebbets's terms.

Temperamental Drivers.

feared. When it is recalled how he took a car off the scrap heap and set a world's record with it in his class two years ago, the driver of the Touraine is placed in the lists of dangerous Vanderbilt cup racers. Joermann is a self-made racing driver.

A DILATANTE.

Huntley Gordon, who is to drive his own Mercer, is a sportsman pure and simple. He is a young man of refined tastes, he never comes on the course with his car dusty or covered with mud. He wears his goggles and racing clothes as a Beau Brummel wears a dress suit. He has been compared to the semi-pro breaking into baseball, or the preliminary fighter in his first twenty-round match. He has all the daring of a man who is doing it for fun.

THE BARON.

Baron von Richenbacher is a finished foreign racing driver. He is a big, good-natured Teuton and will stop working on his car to look at a pretty girl while his mechanician cusses and swears. He is from the Mason factory, and came to America about three years ago. He came out here not to race, but as a technical expert to superintend the preparations of the Mason cars. After the accident to Lewis, the Baron jumped into the breach. His racing clothes are the most elegant on the course.

William Taylor is a young gentleman who is well known in local social circles. He drives racing cars for glory alone. He is very popular, and this is all a lark for William.

ISH KA BIBBLE.

Tony Janette is a young and daring exponent of the Ish Ka Bibble school. He worked in the pits as a mechanic for the late David Bruce-Brown and has worked his way to the top of the racing game. Tony is criticised by many as a hard taskmaster, and some of the greatest auto race men claim that he is over-confident and his recklessness as a driver is likely to be the result of his death on the course. He speaks with a foreign accent and is the comedian of this Vanderbilt race.

Guy Ball is a stocky young man, just past his 26th birthday. His favorite sport is road racing. He glories in difficulties. If he were to go into a race knowing he would have to change a tire on every lap he would enjoy it more than if he were guaranteed that his machine would travel the full distance without a single mishap.

CAPT. BARNESON TAKES A CRUISE.

An enjoyable week-end cruise was made from San Pedro last Saturday by the yacht Edris, owned by Capt. John Barneson of San Francisco, who took a party over to Avalon, returning to his anchorage in the outer harbor late Sunday evening.

Although little wind was to be had in the channel, the big schooner made good time with the assistance of the auxiliary motors.

In the party were Capt. John Barneson, Mrs. Barneson, Miss Barneson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sutherland, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Barneson.

COASTERS WILL BACK BERRY AGAINST FEDS.

President Baum Comes South and Confers With the Angel Magnate—Says Coast League Has Not Been Officially Informed of Feds, and Approves Berry's Action—Majors Plan Surprise.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

HEN BERRY'S pals will not desert in this time of pith and moment.

He is to have the backing of the Coast League in the stand which he has taken against the aggressions of the filibustering Feds.

Allan T. Baum, the bashi-bazouk of the Coast League, arrived here from San Francisco yesterday, and soon after unloading his suit case at the Van Nuys, he and Berry were chin-to-chin.

Baum came south ostensibly as a member of the peregrinating boosters to inform the people of Los Angeles regarding the price of meals in San Francisco, and advise them to buy reserved seats for the Panama-Pacific blowout.

However, the remarkable case of Clarice Goodwin, reported to have eloped with the Federal League, and certain belligerent remarks alleged to have emanated from the usually docile Mr. Berry, are believed to be in a measure responsible for President Baum's pilgrimage.

Baum and Berry were in consultation for fully three hours and are believed to have gone over the Goodwin case from every angle.

While the league boss made no open declaration of hostilities, his statement indicated an attitude of extreme independence on the part of the Coasters.

"Will the league back Berry in his action in signing Goodwin regardless of the latter's contract with the Federals?" Baum was asked.

"We never have thrown down one of our associates, and this being the case, we certainly would not at this time," he replied. "We know of absolutely no reason why Berry should not have signed Goodwin. The player was on his reserve list and had accepted terms with the Los Angeles club."

"From this it is to be inferred that the Coasters will refuse to recognize Federal League contracts?" was the next question.

"The Coast League is doing business at the same old stand in the same old way," said Baum, pressing a button in the booth with an adeptness that comes only with long practice. "We have never been officially informed that there is a Federal League, and no one has attempted to tell us what our attitude should be toward the new concern.

"Organized baseball in the East has not recognized the Federals. This was shown when the Phillies signed Killifer after that player had placed his name on a Federal contract. The Goodwin case is very similar to that. Very naturally, the Coast League is going to sign up the players which belong to it, just as it has in former years, regardless of the Federal League. Beyond this I will make no statement at the present time."

Majors to Strike Later.

"The Federals are making a lot of noise, and getting a place in the headlines," continued the Coast League prexy, "but it takes more than these things to make a major league.

"During the winter the sporting pages have plenty of space, and the Feds are getting the publicity while the getting is easy.

"Probably you have noticed that to date the Federals have been making all the stir—that organized baseball has made but little attempt to combat them. As far as outlining their real course of action, organized baseball has been silent. This silence is ominous. The big leagues are well supplied with the sinews of war, and back of them are some of the brightest minds in the country. They are firmly intrenched, and have not been seriously injured by the scattering fire of the Federals. Possibly they are satisfied to let the latter waste their ammunition.

"The majors are equipped for a fight of great severity, and of almost any duration. It would seem that they have not yet played their trump card."

* * *

Have Immense War Fund.

This is an angle of the situation overlooked by those who have not given thoughtful attention to the unpleasantness between the majors and the Federals.

The major leagues have probably signed up five players to one by the Feds, on an average, and yet it is the latter who have been getting the newspaper banner lines.

Thus far the fight has been decidedly one-sided. At first, the attitude of the majors was of stolid indifference. Recently they have shown more activity, but this has been largely defensive, as in blocking the Evers deal.

It is true that the majors have an immense war fund. They have been accumulating this for years, and it runs into the millions. This has hardly been touched yet. It is available for raiding the rival league. The Federals, on the other hand, are at the double expense of providing parks and securing players.

The majors did not respect Killifer's contract with the Federals. If this is to be accepted as a precedent to be followed, it is possible that the master stroke of the majors will be to loose their great war fund shortly before the beginning of the season, to win back the stars of the Federals over night, and leave that thriving young organization flat on its back.

Unless something like that happens many will be inclined to suspect that said large reserve in the bank is merely a "wine fund."

While predicting that the Coast League will be as fast or faster than ever, President Baum believes it is a bit too early to estimate the exact strength of the different clubs.

Some of the teams will not know exactly "where they are at" in regard to players until the major league clubs have finished their spring training. Most of the Coast League teams are now hooked up with the majors, and the latter are loth to let any of their prospects go until they have been looked over in spring training.

It is certain that the majors will turn over several good players to the Coast League late in March or early in April.

Wolves May Get Mitze.

Honus Mitze, last season manager and catcher-in-chief of the Oaks, is believed to be slated for a berth with Sacramento. Oakland would like to retain him, and Devlin has made overtures to him to remain, but Mitze, it is said, will insist on a change to Sacramento or some other club.

Those on the inside opined that Wolverton had a seasoned team under cover when he sold Bliss to Venice. Mitze may have been the party in mind. The Sacramento manager has a sterling backstop in Hanna, last season one of the best receivers in the Northwestern League, not to mention Rohrer and the youngsters, Lynn and Ramage.

Angel Castoffs Get Jobs.

Los Angeles castaways seem to be popular. San Francisco hooked Bill Tozer when he became a free agent. Sacramento threw life lines to Walter Siegle and Howard Gregory, and Arbogast expects to find an anchorage in Oakland. Verily, a ball player is not fully appreciated until he becomes a free agent. Tozer will leave shortly for Boyes Springs to join the advance guard of San Francisco players who are already working out there.

Strictly ...ear" is not only ...but a higher develop- ...ment of "Onomancy." ...is a vibratory science ...upon sound, as that ...in words, "Color," ...is the vibra- ...tion—an aggregation of symbols brings the vision. What could be more logical, more according to scientific deduction? To go one step further. Color is vibratory action, sound is conveyed by vibratory force and all forms in nature are the result of vibratory force. There are no other forms but the straight line and the curve. It is by the skill shown in the mingling of these, that the master makes himself known. Hills and fields and streams are but an aggregation of straight lines and curves. To our inner vision all things can be created by sound.

One day last summer, I came upon a, to me, practical demonstration of my tenets. In sauntering through the unique streets of the Southern California Venice, I was arrested by the first notes of a composition not familiar to my ear. I seated myself on the row of seats in front of the band stand and listened. And what a leader! He not only enthused his players, but little by little, wove the woof of vision about his listeners. Even the restless crowd was charmed into silence. As for me, I was lost for an hour in the world of color of poetic vibration. I saw the blue Grotto of Capri, vivid, scintillant. I was on Venetian waters, heard the music of the gondoliers, saw the color of skies inimitable; I saw a city medieval, heard the clash of arms, the tramp of feet, and then—. I was on the row of seats at Venice. The leader and his men had vanished.

I asked the name of the leader. I was told and I said: "He is a great master, this Sig. Maufredi Chiaffarelli." I sought him out. "I do not speak Englise," he said, "I cannot un'nerstan." But, somehow, he did understand. "It ees," he said, "the color! The color! You understan, you feel the— what you call— vi—" "Vibration," I said. "Yes," he answered, "I see waters—I hear music of leaves—I feel in the heart, in the soul—all vibration. You feel—you see?"

"Yes," I said, and I knew I had talked with a master—with a man who could see, who could hear, who could transmit to the inner consciousness of his hearers, the vibration of thought—which makes for the great things in life—poetry, art, spiritual insight.

Since that day I have not heard the music of Sig. Chiaffarelli. I understand there is a movement on foot to bring him back to our beach. When he comes, I shall make a more comprehensive study of color and the science of vibration as it pertains to his original compositions. He is certainly a master.

Quick Wit.

GIRL CATCHES THIS MASHER.

SHE SUMMONS A POLICEMAN WHEN FOLLOWED.

Man Who Says He's a Laborer Out of Work Will Have to Explain Peculiar Actions in Dogging Her Footsteps on the Street for Past Fortnight.

Kate Myers is only 16 years old, but she's brave. Her method of throwing "mashers" out of business is much admired by the police, who last night effectually prevented all further operations on the part of one of them by placing him in the City Jail. His name is George Ersick. He says he's a laborer out of a job.

Kate pointed him out to Patrolman R. M. Green, crossing officer at First and Main streets, early last evening as a man who has been following her about doggedly for over a fortnight. Green arrested him, the charge being disturbing the peace. His bail was fixed at $500.

The story told by the little girl is to the effect that Ersick has been following her all the way from her place of employment, the Ben Hur Coffee Company at No. 819 East First street, to her home at No. 530 Ruth avenue each evening. He never spoke to her, but always watched her.

Last night she determined to get the fellow permanently out of her way. She asked a girl friend, Nina Walker, to walk away from the coffee store with her. Instead of walking toward her home, the pair walked uptown. Ersick followed, as usual.

At First and Main streets Kate asked a newsboy to call Patrolman Green, who stood boldly out in the center of the crossing and pointing out, at the same time, the cause of all her fears. Ersick was promptly placed under arrest.

At first he said he was a laborer looking for a job. Then he said he could understand no English and refused to talk. He is in the City Jail.

JAPANESE DISCHARGED.

Manzo Goto, the Japanese charged with violation of the Mann white slave act in bringing Louisa McElwaine, now his wife, to Los Angeles, for alleged immoral purposes, was discharged by Commissioner Williams, it appearing that the fare of both Goto and the girl were paid by someone else, who is supposed to be a resident of this city, but who could not be located. The only evidence of that was furnished by the woman, and it could not be impeached. Yesterday afternoon the hearing of Goto before Immigration Inspector Connell, on a departmental warrant of arrest, was concluded, and the evidence will be sent to the Secretary of Labor for determination whether it is sufficient to order his deportation. The woman will not be deported if Goto is, although under the law by her marriage, she takes on the citizenship of her yellow husband.

Cannon Ball Dug Up on Main Street.

At one time in the history of Los Angeles, Main street was under fire. When the bombardment occurred and what was the damage has nothing to do with the discovery yesterday of a cannonball which was imbedded in the earth between Second and Third streets on Main.

W. H. Darnell, foreman of underground construction for the Southern California Edison Company, was directing work in front of No. 224 South Main street, below the pavement. One of the workmen struck an object with his pick and upon bringing it to the surface from a depth of three feet, it was discovered to be a cannonball of virgin copper.

The ball weighs a little more than six and a half pounds, and was originally cast for three kilograms, the size and weight used in the early Spanish guns.

That the ball struck something hard, probably a wall, is indicated by a flat side. The metal is not hard. The ball might still be in the Main-street earth had it not been for the Edison Company desiring to lay a cable across the spot where the missile of other days had found a seemingly permanent resting place.

The cannon ball was cast before the process was discovered for separating other metals from copper, and is regarded by the Edison Company officials as a relic of quality.

William Smith, 17 years old, who says he's a messenger boy when he works, was arrested by Detectives Powell and Weiss of the newly-established auto-theft bureau of the District Attorney's office early last evening while calmly stepping into an automobile he did not own at Sixth and Olive streets.

Close questioning developed the fact that he stole an automobile Monday afternoon at Fourth and Olive streets, owned by Frank R. Ward of No. 331 West Forty-sixth street, and which he ran about town until tired, finally ditching it at Eighteenth and South Main streets, where it was found later.

Investigation at the residence of the boy, No. 2108 Griffith avenue, by Detectives Weiss, Ingram and Fitzgerald brought to light the probable fact that Smith has been in unlawful business for some time. Among the loot recovered were hundreds of automobile parts—horns, tires, tools—and also some surgical instruments.

These were identified as stolen from the office of Dr. Lysle G. McNeile of the city health department in the Maternity Hospital at No. 127 South Utah street.

STUDENT BODY PLANS BANQUET.

GREATER UNIVERSITY SPIRIT SEEKS AN OUTLET.

Bishop Edwin Hughes of San Francisco Will Be the Principal Speaker, While President Finley Will Act as Toastmaster on Friday Evening.

A "Greater University" banquet will be given by the student body of the University of Southern California at the Hamburger Cafe, Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, which, it is confidently expected, will be attended by several hundred students and their friends. As the number of students in the dental and other professions brings the total of males considerably greater than that of the feminine contingent, there has been a lively scramble for "dates" with the co-eds for the dinner.

As the various colleges and departments of the university are located in widely separated portions of the city, many of the students will meet for the first time at this banquet.

"Monty" Hughes, a senior, with a large corps of pretty co-eds to assist him in the arrangements for the dinner, has been busy for weeks working out the details of the social "get-together," which is really its prime purpose.

Bishop Edwin Hughes of San Francisco, whose popularity with students has won for him the sobriquet of the "Idol of the Campus," will be the principal speaker of the evening. President Finley Bovard of the university, will act as toastmaster. Dr. F. W. Nicholson of New York City, national secretary of education in Methodist universities, will also speak. The various deans will have a word to say about their several colleges, and Everett Mattoon, president of the student body, will speak for the students. The college orchestra will furnish music for the occasion.

The concluding part of the programme was made up of "My Garden" and a typical composition, "Thistledown," composed for and dedicated to the artist.

"Auf der Bleiche," arranged by H. M., the Queen of Roumania, Carmen Sylva, for Mlle de Treville, was a little German song, cleverly interpreted, and Verdi's aria from "Ballo in Maschera," sung in Italian, was the concluding number of a programme diversified, attractive and well executed by a young woman of fine understanding, superior training and charming personality.

As Mlle. de Treville is well known for her fine judgment, it is quite natural that she should have selected for accompanist Miss Edith Bowyer Whiffen, who combines youth, attractiveness, simplicity and fine understanding of the difficult role of piano accompanist.

CHILDREN ARRESTED.

Theft of Jewelry Leads to Arrest of Brother, Sister and Friend Who Accuse One Another.

Anna Ryan, aged 14, her brother, William Ryan, aged 17, and Katherine Maddock, aged 15, were arrested early last evening by Motorcycle Patrolman Abercrombie of the East Side Police Station on charges of burglary preferred by Mrs. Abbie Wilcox of No. 234 North Pritchard street.

According to the police, the three juveniles entered the Wilcox home shortly before 6 o'clock and stole a gold watch and chain, stickpins and brooches, valued at about $250. The Ryan boy, who lives with his sister and widowed mother, Mrs. Margaret Ryan, at No. 734 Lamar street, says the trio went into the house looking for furnished rooms. They found no one at either the front or rear door, so they entered the house to look for the occupant. All three accuse each of the others of the actual theft. The Maddock girl lives at No. 423 North Pritchard street.

The booty was recovered by the police. The three are booked as burglars, the girls being sent to the Detention Home and the boy remaining in the City Jail.

Pasadena.

GREAT FORTUNE AT LIFE'S CLOSE.

Aged Pasadena Veteran Receives Notice of Bequest.

Motorcycle Driver Meets Death in a Collision.

Multiplicity of Sites Suggested for City Hall.

PASADENA, Feb. 17.—Capt. Robert Hancock Walter of No. 74 West Washington street, a Civil War veteran, 82 years old, who is lying on a sick bed, yesterday received word that he had fallen heir to $114,000. With the notification he was handed a draft for a large part of the sum.

He immediately began to distribute it among his children. He has three sons and five daughters and he declared they should not wait a minute to share the legacy with him. Each is to receive $10,000 in cash and each has already been presented with $200 of the sum. There are thirty-seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren, and each of these is also to benefit by the sudden turn of Fortune's wheel that has deposited the large amount of money in the old man's hands.

Still more of the money that has already been received has been expended for the purchase of several lots across the street from the legatee's home, which he has felt ever since he has lived there he would like to own. The next step, he declares, will be to move into a larger house.

The man was too ill yesterday to be interviewed, one of his daughters said, but illness or no illness, he is not wasting time in making all of his kinsfolk happy and comfortable.

MOTORCYCLIST IS KILLED.

Frank White of No. 243 East Orange Grove avenue was instantly killed yesterday morning, when, while riding a motorcycle, he collided with an automobile driven by A. W. Beck of No. 498 North Alameda street, Los Angeles. The accident occurred at the corner of Chester avenue and East Colorado street.

White was a clerk at the Chaffee grocery store, No. 1344 East Colorado street, and was on his way home to luncheon when he met his death. He ran headlong into the automobile, which was approaching from the opposite direction at a speed, according to the driver, of about fifteen miles an hour. He was thrown from the machine on which he rode and his head struck the pavement. He was dead before bystanders reached him.

The automobile that Beck was driving is a truck belonging to the Cook Mercantile Company of Los Angeles. F. H. Lampe of No. 498 North Alameda street, Los Angeles, was on the seat with him. The men say that an ice wagon obstructed the view so that they were unable to see the motorcyclist until it was too late to avert the collision.

White was 28 years old. He leaves a widow. The body was taken to the mortuary of Ives and Warren, where an inquest will be held today.

SOCIETY'S GAY THRONG.

The dansant that was given at the Hotel Green yesterday as a benefit for the Pasadena Day Nursery was a riot of flowers. Something like 300 bouquets were sold by a party of flower girls recruited from the guests at the hotel, and a number of magnificent dolls were also disposed of at a still greater source of revenue. It is believed by Mrs. Robert Neustadt, who arranged the dansant, with the assistance of Miss Cora Auten, that about $250 was raised. The report will be made today.

The affair took place in the Romanesque room of the hotel, which was gaily decorated for the occasion. The tea tables were arranged in the form of a horseshoe, so that the guests might dance in the center, and the music was supplied by the hotel orchestra.

Those who sold flowers were: Miss Grace Greenwood, Mlle. Nadine de Ojeda, Miss Gleatina Green, Miss Marjorie Dyer and Mlle. Yvonne de Ojeda.

The following poured tea: Mrs. P. L. Auten, Mrs. George Gregory, Mrs. Harrison T. Drummond, Mrs. Roy Pierce, Mrs. John McWilliams, Jr., Mrs. Robert Pitcairn, Mrs. Harry Gray and Mrs. Charles S. Eaton.

STILL ANOTHER PROPOSITION.

The proposed sites for a new City Hall are now three in number. W. W. Ogier, who, following the announcement of the City Commissioners that they should probably decide to purchase the old Throop Institute property, asked that the old Carmelita Playground property be bought instead, yesterday again appeared before the Commission with the third proposition. In this he appeared as a representative of Mrs. Frances Swan, who owns property cornering at Oakland avenue and East Colorado street, which was offered to the city for $100,000. Willis Eason, president of the Carmelita Park Company, offered that land to the city for $80,000. The proposed purchase price of the Throop property, which is improved with buildings that the Commissioners believe might be altered to serve as a City Hall and municipal office building, has been offered for $120,000.

No definite action has yet been taken by the Commissioners, but they will probably follow out their announced intention of several days ago and procure an option on the Throop site.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Gov. Johnson spoke at the Pasadena High School last night. He was accompanied to the city by J. M. Eshelman, chairman of the State Railroad Commission, who also spoke at the meeting there. Another speaker was Rev. Matt S. Hughes, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Pasadena.

One of the most brilliant society affairs of the month was held at the Huntington last evening. It was a card party and dance, given for the benefit of the William A. Scripps Home for the Aged, which is located in Altadena. Auction bridge and Five Hundred were played, and there was dancing in the ballroom for all who cared for that form of amusement.

CIVIC BETTERMENT.

Members of the Pomona Ebell Club Start Movement for the Beautification of Parkways.

POMONA, Feb. 17.—The members of the Ebell of this city interested in the civic betterment of the locality are starting a movement for the beautification of curbings, parkways and gardens over the city by the planting of the eschscholtzia—California's golden flower. Families are being urged to plant the poppy seeds this month.

The Ebell ladies desiring to see the old family name "Palomares" perpetuated here have taken up the matter of having the proposed new hostelry, to be erected on the former hotel site on Garey avenue, incorporate the word Palomares in its nomenclature and the name "The New Palomares" has been suggested. Thus would the name of one of the oldest and most prominent pioneer families of the valley be continually honored.

SANTA ANA BRIEFS.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 17.—Mrs. E. B. Norman, L. J. Carden and H. G. Dean have been appointed as a committee of the Santa Ana Board of Education to interview citizens to determine the advisability of calling for $75,000 bonds, of which $50,000 will be for the high-school district. The board will not call the election unless it feels that the bonds will carry. It is proposed to add an auditorium and a number of classrooms to the High School.

W. Lewis Clark, division engineer of the State Highway Commission, has replied to the complaint of the Board of Supervisors that the contractor building the State road between the Los Angeles county line in La Habra Valley and Santa Ana does not keep a temporary road open for the use of the public alongside the road being paved. Clark states that he has been over the road twice in the last week, and found the road open.

Roy G. Parker has applied for appointment as justice of the peace of Los Alamitos township. W. R. McAllep has resigned from the position, which pays $10 a month.

Riverside.

Riverside Landmark Is Due for Effacement.

Suit for Damages Thrown Out of Court.

Titled Englishman With Wife Visits the Glenwood.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 17.—An important step in the direction of the obliteration of an ancient, but unsightly landmark, was taken today with the acceptance by the city of a quit-claim deed from the Riverside Water Company for the major portion of its lower canal, which threads its way through the business and residence districts and the orange groves of the lower valley for many miles within the corporate limits.

It is the purpose of the city to provide for the abandonment of this canal as a canal, although it will still serve its use as a storm-water course through the laying of a conduit. The covering of the canal will be made possible in part through the formation of storm water districts, against which a portion of the improvement will be assessed.

Something of sentiment attaches to this old water course, which was built during the pioneer days, when the orange industry was in its veriest infancy in the State. The improvement of the water company's upper canal by enlargements, together with the laying of many thousands of dollars worth of pipe, has made possible the abandonment of the lower canal.

NON-SUIT FOR PHYSICIAN.

The $10,000 damage suit brought against Dr. J. M. Colburn for alleged malpractice took an unexpected turn today, when Judge Densmore granted a motion of defendant's attorney for non-suit. The jury empaneled to try the case was immediately dismissed.

The suit was brought by Stanley Williams, who was formerly in the employ of the city as patrolman. He was thrown from his horse while in the discharge of his duty, sustaining a fracture of the arm, and alleges that he lost his position as patrolman by reason of the failure of his arm to heal after treatment by the defendant for "displacement of wrist."

On the stand Williams testified that he was obliged to visit another physician and undergo expensive treatment for the injury.

The non-suit was granted on the ground that the evidence introduced showed that negligence was not proved and that the injury was of such a nature that it would not have yielded to treatment had the case been diagnosed as a fracture.

TITLED ENGLISHMAN.

Sir Wilfred and Lady Peek of Ronsdon, Devon, Eng., accompanied by Grenville Peek and Miss Filley, were guests over night of the Glenwood Mission Inn, leaving today for the purpose of visiting other parts of Southern California. Sir Wilfred's baronet was created in 1874. He is lieutenant of the Royal First Devon Yeomanry, and a member of the Bachelors' and the Calvary clubs.

MOTORIST'S NARROW ESCAPE.

M. T. Cunniff, a well-known local plumber, is nursing injuries received as a result of driving in front of a trolley car on Main street. Endeavoring to dodge another automobile, Cunniff started to cross the street, not observing the approach of a southbound Magnolia-avenue car. The auto emerged from the affray a crumpled mass, while its driver was pushed along with the wreckage until the trolley car was brought to a standstill. Cunniff was pulled out from under his machine with no more serious injury than a lacerated scalp, which a few stitches sufficed to close.

INGLEWOOD.

INGLEWOOD, Feb. 17.—The City Trustees have called an election for March 10, at which time the voters of Inglewood will decide for or against a bond issue of $32,000 for the purpose of erecting a new City Hall at a cost of $25,000, park improvements to the extent of $5000 and additional fire improvements to the sum of $2500. Should the bond issue carry a handsome two-story City Hall will be erected on the present site of the old one with offices for all city officials, a commodious auditorium for public meetings and rooms for public library.

WATER COMPANY ELECTS.

Approximately Six Thousand Votes Were Cast at the Sierra Madre Meeting—Registration Slow.

SIERRA MADRE, Feb. 17.—At the annual meeting of the Sierra Madre Water Company the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. W. S. Andrews, president; C. J. Pegler, secretary, and C. H. Perry, assistant secretary. The appointment of superintendent was deferred. The board of directors elected are: W. S. Andrews, J. G. Blumer, A. N. Carter, J. A. Osgood, C. J. Pegler, E. F. Balios and T. E. Yerxa. The question of leasing the plant to the city carried by a fraction over 130 votes. Five thousand, nine hundred and ninety-seven shares of stock were represented at the meeting.

No opposition was shown on the question of this lease, which it is understood will terminate when the city disposes of the bonds it now has for the purchase of the plant. Mayor C. W. Jones and J. G. Blumer presented the questions involved regarding the bond issue and leasing in a very able and lucid manner. The City Hall could barely accommodate the assemblage present.

SLOW REGISTRATION.

The registration of voters in this district has been slow. Not more than a third of the voters have registered. To vote at the primaries on August 25 it will be necessary to be on the register by July 25, but for elections in cities of this class all registration must be in by March 12. Many in this section were under the impression that the 1912 register would be used at the municipal election on April 13. The regular Republicans are slightly in the lead. Some of the Progressives have been out bolstering up their list of voters. From statements made by Progressives there will be a great falling off in the ranks here. Two former ardent Progressives have openly announced their intention of coming back into the fold of real Republicanism and have not been backward in denouncing the methods of "Holy Hiram" and his gang of pseudo reformers. F. D. R. Mootz, Progressive leader, made a serious mistake for his party by injecting his presence into a personal and factional issue. Although this was a stronghold for the party the aftermath of this factional issue is being keenly felt and undoubtedly will be used in the coming campaign on State issues.

OLDEST LIVING MASON.

Redlands Man Celebrates Ninety-first Birthday on St. Valentine's Day—Short News Stories.

REDLANDS, Feb. 17.—R. J. Forsythe, believed to have belonged to the Masonic order longer than any other living man, celebrated his ninety-first birthday anniversary on St. Valentine's Day.

The honor was formerly accorded to Col. J. N. Andrews of San Francisco, who died last fall. Mr. Forsythe resides with his son, Bert Forsythe, at No. 133 West Citrus avenue. Years ago the aged man was general freight auditor of one of the old-time railroads, which was absorbed by the Pennsylvania line.

GRAND ARMY ACTIVE.

RAILROAD VISITOR.

W. J. Mullin, general traffic manager of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad, is visiting Redlands, having come to study the orange industry and take a brief rest. He is impressed by the accomplishments of the co-operative method of growing and marketing oranges, asserting that it is far more effective than the "individual system" in New England, shrewd though the Yankee is in making his trades.

TICKET FILLED.

The ticket for the Good Government forces in the coming city election was selected at a meeting of the Civic League last night. The candidates named for City Trustees are George P. Cortner, George H. Hunter and H. A. Lockwood; for City Clerk, C. P. Hook, and for City Treasurer, M. W. H. Williams. It is expected that there will be a Citizens' party and Socialist party also in the field, C. A. Tripp, G. S. Biggin and Frank Hess being the Citizens' party candidates for Trustees and J. F. Wheat and C. P. Hook the candidates for Treasurer and Clerk respectively.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Manager Karle Morgan of the University of Redlands baseball team has received a letter from Capt. Dillon of the Los Angeles team, which indicates there will be a game here between his team and the university. Capt. Dillon offers to meet the varsity ball tossers any time between March 7 and March 14. He also asks for the use of the university diamond for a game between his team and the White Six.

Burglars last night entered the residence of A. Leipsic, John McCracken and J. C. Jackson, getting $10 in cash, a revolver and a gold watch out of the combined haul. They evidently did not want much but cash, as they failed to take a quantity of jewelry and silverware. They entered the houses while the owners were out.

TIGER SKIN BY MAIL.

WHITTIER, Feb. 17.—A new wrinkle in parcel post contents was turned up here when a complete skin of a Honduras tiger came by mail to Mrs. J. E. Robertson. The skin arrived in good shape after its long journey of several weeks. The postage was only 70 cents. The skin measures seventy-eight inches from tip to tip and was sent to Mrs. Robertson by her son-in-law, S. S. De Voe, who resides on a banana plantation in Honduras.

ADEQUATE WATER SUPPLY.

Soldiers' Home Engineer Says Water Enough for the Year Is Already Stored in Brown's Lake.

SOLDIERS' HOME, Feb. 17.—Chief Engineer Dobbings reports that 1,500,000 gallons of water, from its source in Mandeville Canyon, seven miles distant from the home, is flowing daily into the great dam reserved for irrigation purposes.

Brown's Lake has a capacity of 126,000,000 gallons and has already fifteen feet of water. The chief says that if not another drop of rain fell there would be a liberal supply for irrigation for the balance of the year.

NEWS BRIEFS.

A twenty-five-ton ammonia compressor has just been installed in the power-house at this place, to take the place of a former plant of eight tons' capacity which was found insufficient for increased demand for refrigerating and ice-making purposes.

PLAN PARENTAL SCHOOL.

Members of Bakersfield Probation Committee Hold Conference and Consider Proposed Structure.

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 17.—Members of the Probation Committee met last night and inspected plans for a parental school prepared by Architect Wiseman. The plans were approved with slight changes and the sketches will be put in shape for inspection by the Supervisors and for the formation of estimates of the cost of the building.

It is planned to build the parental school on a tract of ten acres and to include farm and garden work in the instructions to be given the inmates of the school. The large building will cover a ground space about 40x80 feet and will consist of two floors and a basement, which latter will contain besides the furnace and laundry, a gymnasium, boys' shop and lathe-room and a work-room for girls.

The first floor will contain the assembly-room, dining-room and kitchen, study-rooms and three bedrooms for the superintendents. On the upper floor will be well-arranged dormitories for the younger children, two bedrooms for teachers and single rooms for the older pupils.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Secretary of the Board of Trade, Tom Burke, today took an exhibit of citrus fruits to the San Bernardino Orange Show. The exhibit was not large and was hastily prepared as Kern county had not intended to exhibit, but Secretary Burke receiving word at the last moment that a tent and stereoptican outfit were at his disposal on the grounds, quickly got together samples of citrus fruit from the San Emidio ranch and from Edison. The stereopticon outfit will be used by Mr. Burke in his lectures on Kern county.

Francisco Belarde, a bogus deaf and dumb beggar, was arrested in Wasco the other day and was yesterday sentenced to sixty days in the County Jail. Belarde succeeded in carrying out his deaf and dumb imitation as long as he was sober, but after imbibing somewhat freely his tongue made up for lost time by wagging at top speed, and he was brought to Bakersfield by Constable Mitchell.

BURNING ITCHING SCALP DISEASE

Scratched Until Scalp Cut All Over. Could Not Sleep. Hair Came Out. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Fifteen Days.

Ardon, Iowa.—"My son had a scalp disease; he had a burning itching for fifteen or sixteen years. On account of the intense itching he would scratch his head until his scalp was cut all over. Several scabs had formed by scratching. He would wake up at night and scratch; sometimes he could not sleep with the itch and burning. There were pimples about as large as a pin-head all over his scalp, a red rash as red as blood. His hair came out gradually. It seemed as if the hair was dry, no life in it.

"He used ——, a wash of blue stone and toilet soap, still he never got any relief until he used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. He would wash his head until it would be white with the lather from the Cuticura Soap, then he would wash his scalp clean with warm water, then rub the ointment all over his scalp. He was cured in fifteen days' time." (Signed) Mrs. Jane Edwards, Oct. 15, 1913.

In selecting a toilet soap why not procure one possessing delicate emollient properties sufficient to allay minor irritations, remove redness and roughness, prevent pore-clogging, soften and soothe sensitive conditions, and promote skin and scalp health generally? Such a soap combined with the purest of saponaceous ingredients and most fragrant and refreshing of flower odors, is Cuticura Soap. Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

CHRISTOFFERSON FLIES DOWN THE COAST LINE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 17.—Bringing with him a pocketful of United States mail, Silas Christofferson, the young aviator, completed his long flight from San Francisco this afternoon, covering the distance from Los Angeles in two hours. His mother, who had anxiously scanned the sky for hours, was one of the first to greet the aerial pathfinder.

Christofferson declared he could make the trip in one day, now that the trail is blazed. His actual flying time on the flight just finished was ten hours, and his average speed about a mile a minute.

Passing Oceanside at a height of 2500 feet, the aviator volplaned to within a few feet of Glenn Martin, who was tinkering with his biplane, stranded in the recent flight between Los Angeles and San Diego. As Christofferson sped by he dropped a letter into Martin's hands.

Christofferson will stay here for several days before returning north to prepare for the Oakland-San Diego race, in which he said eight aviators will compete.

TO MAKE FIGHT FOR MILLION

Water Litigation Ahead San Bernardino Officials

Disposition Shown to Go More Liquor Licenses

Quarter of Million Bond Issue in Prospect.

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 17.—[Special.]—Litigation in which millions of dollars of riparian rights are involved will be instituted at once by the city to establish the ownership of the water from the great artesian basin in the valley now supplying San Bernardino, Riverside, Colton, Redlands and Highland. Judgment in favor of the city would furnish the basis of a gigantic conservation scheme in which every drop of water not used would be retained in the basin for summer use. An engineer today started the work of surveying the entire system, securing data and the names of all property owners and corporations who divert the water from the San Bernardino basin.

Instead of being a damage suit, as suits heretofore in this region have been, the coming water litigation will be more in the nature of an action to quiet title. City Attorney Lucien E. Swing will start the suit immediately as the engineer's report is filed.

LICENSES GRANTED.

After temporarily holding up the contemplated action of the board in granting more saloon licenses in the city than provided in the "spite" ordinance adopted by the City Council when the dry forces forced the repeal of the no-limit measure, the trustees last night granted saloon licenses to Ed Brewster at 215 D street and Fred Stege at 1181 Third street, both of whom are holding wholesale privileges. The application asked by F. G. Weis, owner of a $40,000 winery close to the city, was turned down because it was the recommendation of Chief of Police F. W. Seecombe.

BOND ELECTION.

The city Board of Education has issued the formal call for a bond election for the Polytechnic High School bond election to be held on March 19. San Bernardino city district, the original plan for a union district with Colton and adjacent districts has been dropped and the local plan restored to its place. The plans call for the erection of about five building on the twenty-acre site owned by the district on North E street.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Four new street paving projects are being considered by the City Council and the latest streets included are Sixth street, Ninth street and G street from Seventh street to Second. Four-inch concrete specifications will be asked.

A rich vein of gold quartz has been struck by John Cullen and Harrison, two well-known prospectors of the desert, about five miles from the Gold Mountain property, at the head of Big Bear Valley. The new strike is located in what is known as the Burnt Flat country and is but a short hauling distance from Victorville, where the ore is to be taken for milling. It is reported that the owners have refused the offer of $50,000 from a Los Angeles syndicate of capitalists for the location.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Katz of Redlands have received word of the birth of a baby to their daughter, Mrs. John Newman, while her husband was absent from their home in San Francisco. Mrs. Newman opened the door in response to a knock, as she believed to be from her brother-in-law, and a masked burglar entered. When she tried to scream he struck her in the face he struck her several times, knocking her unconscious. When she revived she called for help and the thief made his escape with a purse containing $100.

A large number of the men of the State, especially prominent in the citrus fruit industry and the commercial life, will be on the various days of the show. The leading newspaper men will be here, the two press associations will meet while Gov. Johnson will be present to show as a private citizen. Chamber of Commerce excursion will be run, a number of prominent Angelenos while special excursions are to be run the same day from Monrovia and Pasadena.

The displays are more varied and beautiful than in any of the previous orange shows. A "feature" will be the practical and of great interest to the fruit growers and packers will be the showing by the State experiment station at Riverside. Dr. H. J. Webber, the director, has arranged with his entire staff to spend their time at the show meeting the fruit men, explaining the results of his years of experiments and the most approved handling posts will be made in the attractive booth.

The practical side of the citrus industry is being brought out more and more in the show from year to year, thus making the orange show a growing benefit to the orange industry.

The entertainment feature will be well provided for. There will be concerts by the Santa Fe band each afternoon and evening in the big tent, while in the auditorium a program to which admission is free will be given. To purchase a general-admission ticket to the show, will be presented an elaborate vaudeville program each afternoon and evening, besides the band concerts.

There is also a large midway of clean entertainment will be provided, while the San Bernardino Concert Band will play there and on the streets. Nearly a dozen visiting bands will be at the show on special days and will add to the musical program. Among these will be the Seventh Regiment band of Pomona, the Seventh Regiment Long Beach municipal band and several others.

On Friday, which is Mission Day, the Cantadores Club of 40 Mexican voices will render a program both afternoon and evening.

Oregon Supreme Court Rules That Policemen and Fireman Are Not Laborers in Eyes of the Law.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALEM (Or.) Feb. 17.—Holding that policemen and firemen of Portland don't come within purview of the eight-hour law because they are officers, and not laborers, the State Supreme Court today directed that Mayor H. R. Albee, arrested on a charge of working them more than eight hours a day, be released from custody. Incidentally the court held that were it conceded that policemen and firemen were laborers, the law had not been violated, for neither toiled more than eight hours a day.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 17.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Percy W. Rochester, manager of the Association of Western Portland Cement Manufacturers and well known all along the Coast, committed suicide by chloroforming himself in his office in the Northwestern Bank building here today. The body was discovered by his daughter. No reason is known for the suicide.

Rochester has been engaged in the building material business on the Pacific Coast for twenty years, first in Seattle and later in San Francisco. He has been about five years in Portland. He is survived by a widow and two children, both grown. His son lives in San Francisco or Berkeley.

B. Statter, manager of the Pacific Portland Cement Company, a business associate of Rochester, says that Rochester's business affairs were in excellent condition. His relations with his family, he says, were ideal.

C. C. Nickerson, manager of the Henry Cowell Lime and Cement Company, says that he talked with Rochester a few hours before his death.

"I can offer no explanation of the tragedy," said Nickerson. "I am bewildered. The news was a great shock to me. I have known Mr. Rochester for a number of years."

Rochester's family is prostrated with grief.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—No potatoes from California will be allowed in the State of Idaho until this State has successfully eradicated the potato tuber moth which has been infecting sections of California, for notice of the official quarantine was received today by State Horticultural Commissioner A. J. Cook.

Cook also was notified that Idaho has declared a quarantine against all pear nursery stock on account of pear thrips. The quarantine covers nursery stock from the following counties:

San Benito, Merced, Stanislaus, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Mateo, Alameda, San Joaquin, Sacramento, Placer, Sutter, Inyo, Solano, Contra Costa, Napa, San Francisco, Marin, Sonoma, Mendocino, Lake and Colusa.

Wardens of San Quentin and Folsom Work Out Plans to Develop Its Manufacture.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 17.—At a conference yesterday of the Board of Control with Warden James Johnson of San Quentin and Warden J. J. Smith of Folsom, were worked out plans for the development of the manufacture at the prisons so that ultimately these two plants will be capable of producing all shoes and clothing used in all State institutions, as well as of office and school furniture to supply cities and counties of California that desire to buy from the State. A statute grants permission to city and county authorities to buy furniture manufactured by the State.

Corning de Saulles, expert of the Board of Control, is at San Quentin working a cost system which will show the price of the raw material and the finished product per unit and will establish a basis of efficiency which will eliminate waste.

DURST SCORES PARKER REPORT.

Declares Early Season Caused Overcrowding.

Would Soon Have Provided Adequate Quarters.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—"Untrue, biased and unfit to be recorded as a State report," is the pronouncement of Jonathan H. Durst, on the report made by Carleton Parker, secretary of the State Immigration Commission on conditions at the Durst brothers hop ranch at Wheatland, where rioting last summer cost four lives.

To most of the specific allegations in the report Mr. Durst takes exception, and he dissents also from the conclusion which Mr. Parker reached. This was, substantially, that the Durst brothers had no regard for the welfare of the persons they employed.

"Some of the conditions at the ranch were bad," said Mr. Durst. "Sanitary provisions were inadequate at the time the trouble started. There were other just grounds for complaint.

"This is taken to show that we do not care for the people who work for us.

"The fact is that for the second time in our experience, picking began in July. It was ten or fifteen days ahead of normal, and we were not ready for it. Ten hours before the trouble started, we had additional sanitary facilities under construction and by Monday, the day on which we announced we would start picking, they were adequate. Days before that, however, pickers were gathering, and we gave them work in the week-end, because they wanted it. An early season and a rush for work have been charged to us, when we were responsible for neither.

"Durst brothers did their level best to meet the conditions.

"It is charged that we covered the State with newspaper advertising, to over-crowd the field. The fact is that for the first time in years we did no newspaper advertising, whatever, confining ourselves to a circular.

"The report says there was no water. We had three lemonade wagons, and on Monday, the time set for the regular picking, there was plenty of water wagons. We had camp men detailed to remove garbage, and it was removed, although the report says there was no such provision.

"We paid a dollar a hundred pounds, which is union scale; we did reject a demand for $1.25. Labor was plentiful and one of the agitators admitted to me that we could get pickers for 85 cents—all we wanted.

"We have never had trouble before, in thirty-nine years. Our people come back year after year. We find they appreciate good treatment and they get it. We pay cash. We do maintain a store, and it costs us from $300 to $400 a year. Nobody is asked to trade there—we don't care whether anyone does or not. The prices are just.

"We have made no statement during the recent trials considering that these were the cases of the people against the defendants and not our trials at all. The report, however, directly concerns us."

WHEATLAND WITH DURST.

Citizens at Mass Meeting Denounce Reports Spread Broadcast by Agents of Governor.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WHEATLAND (Cal.) Feb. 17.—Denouncing the reports of Federal officials and remarks in the newspapers in California in regard to conditions in the Durst hop fields at the time of the riots last August, representative citizens of Wheatland in mass meeting tonight adopted resolutions.

The meeting was attended by the leading business men and other prominent citizens. Speakers declared the reports published had done the Durst brothers an injustice and were unfair to the residents of Wheatland and Yuba county.

The meeting was addressed by John L. Cleek, A. C. Stanger, J. M. Johnson and others who voiced their condemnation of the reports given out and deplored the attitude of some of the newspapers of the State.

It was positively stated that Ralph Durst, before the riot began, had conceded all the demands of the strikers except those relating to increased payment for picking hops.

A letter from Dr. Barr of Oroville was read.

The speakers declared that citizens of Wheatland knew better than strangers the conditions in the hop fields, which they say were equal or superior to conditions and accommodations afforded the laborers engaged in the same class of work in other parts of California.

The citizens are taking up the fight in defense of Durst for the reason that he has lived all his life in their midst and they feel that he has been treated unjustly.

Jealousy Given by San Francisco Police as Cause of Double Tragedy in Painter's Home.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—Jealousy is given by the police as the cause of a double tragedy today in an outlying residence district of this city. An ambulance corps from an emergency hospital answering a call found Henning Wilen, a painter aged 34, and his wife, Hilma Wilen, aged 37, both dead in their home with bullet holes through their heads.

The evidence indicated that Wilen had killed his wife and then taken his own life. Neighbors said they had heard frequent quarrels in the Wilen home.

FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN

Piqua, Ohio.—"I would be very ungrateful if I failed to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise it deserves, for I have taken it at different times and it always relieved me when other medicines failed, and when I hear a woman complain I always recommend it. Last winter I was attacked with a severe case of organic weakness. I had backache, pains in my hips and over my kidneys, headache, dizziness, lassitude, had no energy, limbs ached and I was always tired. I was hardly able to do my housework. I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one other occasion, and it had helped me so I took it again and it has built me up, until now I feel like a new woman. You have my hearty consent to use my name and testimonial in any way and I hope it will benefit suffering women."—Mrs. ORPHA TURNER, 431 S. Wayne St., Piqua, Ohio.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

"My Mamma Took Maier Tonic"

THE strength and health of many beautiful children is due largely to the mother's practice of taking Maier Tonic regularly both before and after the child's arrival.

This wonderfully invigorating food-drink is all nourishment—not a bit of drugs of any kind in it. It is literally a liquid bread—only more nourishing than bread and in pre-digested instantly-assimilative form.

It is delightfully flavored, piquant and appetizing. Upbuilding and strengthening in all cases of general debility, nerve exhaustion and following illness. Promotes a healthy appetite and good digestion.

Order it by the case from your druggist—it's more economical.

STOCK MARKET HOLDS ITS OWN.

BULLS AND BEARS END DAY IN A DRAW.

News of Proposed Bond Issues Taken to Indicate the Improved Condition of Financial Circles. Eastern Railroad Shares Are Heavy Under Pressure.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Although London sent over a lower range of prices today and then offered stocks here, the market presented a fairly firm front. It failed, however, to make up any of the ground lost in yesterday's decline, scarcely deviating from the preceding close. The significant development of the day was the series of announcements of forthcoming capital issues. New York Central applied for permission to issue $70,000,000 bonds. Great Northern made known its proposed sale of $19,000,000 stock and Interborough Rapid Transit sold $10,000,000 bonds. With the recently announced issue of $50,000,000 Southern Pacific convertibles, the amount of new securities arranged for in the last few days runs well over $150,000,000. It has been expected for some time that the improved conditions in the investment market would result in a large amount of new financing and the rate at which new capital is being sought indicated that in the judgment of many of the principal financial interests the time to enter the market had arrived. Great Northern preferred dropped over 2 points on the announcement of the new stock issue. Great Northern "rights" sold in the outside market at 2 to 2¼. Traders felt that the importance as a market factor of the Interstate Commerce Commission's further suspension of the five per cent. freight rate increase had been overemphasized yesterday. Heaviness of a few isolated stocks held back the general list. New Haven, Chesapeake and Ohio and Pennsylvania were under pressure. Bonds were irregular, with an easier tendency. Total sales, par value, $2,950,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

NEW YORK LETTER.

[Furnished by Logan & Bryan, Members New York and Boston Stock Exchange, Bradbury building, Los Angeles.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Stocks presented a rather firm tone until late in the afternoon, when the announcement that the Great Northern would issue $19,000,000 additional stock at par caused weakness. The market closed at about the lowest level for the day. The affairs of the New Haven and B. & M. again commanded attention and scattered liquidation was in evidence in both issues. Nothing grew out of vague reports which were circulated yesterday relative to the conditions in Mexico and the stocks of companies having interests in that country, were somewhat steadier. Corporations are apparently preparing for their financial needs, as is evidenced by the action of Southern Pacific and Great Northern and further announcements will doubtless be made in the near future along this line. Apparently the disposition has become quite pronounced on the part of prominent market interests to permit stocks to fluctuate within prescribed limits, pending further developments. Washington news suggests that legislation bearing on corporations will be checkmated in order that trade and industrial interests may be given an opportunity to work into a better state. It seems that the slackening tendencies in most lines have run their course but the rebound so far has been rather feeble.

New York Curb Stocks.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The curb market was irregular at the close. Oils showed general weakness. Continental sold from 2.20 down to 2.00 and back to 2.13. Vacuum sold at 2.11. Standard Oil of California was comparatively strong, closing at 2.18@2.20. Coppers were quiet. Boston coppers opened fractionally off with trading limited. Prices held well at the lower levels. The market was featureless. Dullness prevailed at the close. Granby lost a point on a small volume of business. Following are closing quotations:

LOS ANGELES STOCK EXCHANGE.

Union Oil Continues to Reveal Strength — Market Generally Is Weak and Quiet.

The majority of the issues showed nominal recessions yesterday on the stock exchange. However, in a number of instances strength was manifested. Union Oil was a notable example of the latter conditions, revealing a gain of nearly a point. The holding company stocks were also firmer. Traders' Oil was at $20. National Pacific and Maricopa Northern were easy. Midway Northern was steady. Associated showed weakness. Los Angeles Investment was off 3 points at the close. Dullness continues to prevail.

MARTYR TO VOICE.

Telephone Flirtation Ends in Suicide of Man Who Could Not Get the Girl.

John Larkin is the victim of a telephone romance. He shot himself yesterday, after having fallen more than an hour over the wire to a mythical sweetheart. Mrs. Larkin believed the telephone flirtation would never develop into more intimate wooing and became despondent when she took his lonely room in an East First-street lodging house.

While driving for the Pacific Truck Company, Larkin became enamored of telephone conversations with a voice that fascinated him. The voice permitted him to call her up every day at a certain hour.

Those hours became the delight of John Larkin's existence. He insisted on meeting the owner of the voice. She refused. Day after day Larkin made his pleas for a meeting, but the girl steadily refused. Finally he finished talking to the voice and went directly to his room and ended his life.

HARBOR ITEMS.

Eight carriers, bringing nearly six million feet of lumber, arrived today, and scenes along the lumber wharves recall the days before the slump in the lumber market. While market conditions are improving, the activity this week is largely due to delays from storm which bunched the vessels a few weeks ago. The steam schooners arriving today included the Daisy Putnam, G. M. Clark, from Portland; Temple R. Dorr, San Jacinto, from Gray's Harbor; Raymond, from Willapa; Rosalie Mahoney, from Everett; Bee, from Mukilteo, and Alcatraz, from Greenwood. The William H. Murphy sailed for Oakland with a partial cargo of redwood, the Helene for Redondo Beach with balance of cargo, and the Wellesley for Eureka, and the Northland for Portland in ballast to reload.

The Union Oil tanker Washtenaw arrived from San Francisco with a partial cargo of refined oil and will load here crude oil for San Jose de Guatemala. This is one of the first cargoes exported from this port by the Union.

The Pacific Coast steamer Congress, which arrived today from Puget Sound, has a heavy cargo awaiting shipment north and will not get away Thursday on the return trip north until 3 p.m. instead of 10:30 a.m.

The steamer Nebraskan sailed today, bound from San Francisco to Salina Cruz, to complete her cargo of freight for trans-shipment to Atlantic ports.

Passenger traffic through this port was unusually heavy today, with six of the regular passenger steamers in the movement. The Congress, Yale and Hanalei arrived from the north and the Roanoke from San Diego. Departing were the Beaver and Roanoke for Portland and the Harvard and Hanalei for San Francisco.

MAY WHEAT SOARS AGAIN.

EUROPEAN DEMAND CAUSES YEAR'S HIGHEST PRICE.

Reports of Crop Damage in Kansas Also Help Boost the Market. Other Grains Show Similar Activity, Corn and Oats Making Good Net Gains.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—Wheat for May delivery touched today the highest price of the year. Active demand from Europe was responsible. Closing figures were steady at virtually the top level of the day, an advance of ⅝ to ⅞@⅞ net. Other grain, too, showed an upturn—corn, ⅝@⅝, and oats, ½@⅝. In provisions the outcome was 2½ to 2½@5 decline. Kansas reports of crop damage had a bullish effect on the wheat market just before the close. Corn bulged on account of the wheat strength and in consequence of less favorable Argentine crop reports concerning late-sown fields. In the oats trade the smallness of country offerings had a bullish influence. Moreover, shipping sales from here were enlarged and, according to one authority, reached the best total in a month. Eastern longs threw provisions overboard, the hog particular. The semi-monthly showing of stocks in warehouses had made holders uneasy. Commission houses, though, absorbed the offerings and, aided by the upturn in grain, overcame most of the loss.

The Times is the only newspaper in Los Angeles that does not make a practice of permitting agents, newsboys and dealers to return unsold copies of its issue. Neither does it misbrand or predate its editions, or inflate its circulation by printing more copies than are actually necessary to supply its patrons.

The Times' entire circulation is practically net, and it is more genuine and superior in every respect to that of any other newspaper.

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Public Service Committee of the City Council today will have a hearing on the oft repeated proposal that the city shall institute a suit against former Mayor Eaton, to determine the title to lands in Long Valley.

Officials of the Pacific Electric Company yesterday tried at the City Hall to stir up more speedy action on the notice of sale for the proposed elevated road to connect the Sixth-street depot with the municipally-owned line on San Pedro street.

President Handley of the Board of Public Works yesterday told the Council that he is opposed to the project of widening Dayton avenue, as the cost, $75,000, is too excessive for the property to bear. The Council will investigate.

The architects for the Arcade station yesterday made formal application for a building permit. Excavations for the structure have already been started.

Judge Monroe yesterday in the trial of a divorce suit brought by the husband found that the wife was guilty of intoxication, but also found that her husband had initiated her into the use of liquor and encouraged her in the habit. He denied the decree, saying under the circumstances no mental anguish had been inflicted on the husband.

At the City Hall.

SHALL CITY SUE FOR EATON LAND?

QUESTION TO BE CONSIDERED IN HEARING TODAY.

Hart, of Notorious Aqueduct Investigation Commission, Will Advocate Litigation, but Engineer Shaffer Will Not Be Present—City Attorney Advises Against Action.

During the regime of John W. Shenk as City Attorney the question of the advisability of the city bringing suit to determine the ownership of Long Valley lands held by former Mayor Eaton, with the possibility of such lands being determined as belonging to the municipality, was put up to him, after demands for litigation to this end had been made by the Aqueduct Investigation Commission. Shenk gave it as his opinion that the city has no sufficient grounds for such action.

Not satisfied with this, persons who allege that Eaton is holding properties that rightfully belong to the city, renewed their appeals, and the Council again referred to the City Attorney the entire subject. This was since City Attorney Stephens assumed this office. After going over all the evidence at hand, Stephens recently reported to the Council that he concurred in the opinion of his predecessor and could see nothing in the material at hand that would justify the city in entering suit with any reasonable expectancy of securing a decision in its favor.

Still unsatisfied, several citizens insisted that the Council should look further into the subject, and it was referred to the Public Service Committee of the Council. A hearing on the subject will occur this forenoon at 10 o'clock.

H. A. Hart, member of the Aqueduct Investigation Commission that spent thousands of dollars in the preparation of a report that is stored by the ton in the attic of the City Hall, will be present to urge that litigation be started by the city. It is reasonably certain that E. E. Shaffer, engineer for this board, and on whom it depended for much of its data, will not be present. Shaffer has not been seen at the City Hall for some weeks past.

Councilman Wheeler will also be an advocate for litigation on the part of the city. Wheeler declares that he is convinced there is an element within the city of considerable size that is thoroughly possessed with the idea that the city is being illegally held out of the possession of Long Valley lands to which it has a rightful claim, and that nothing less than a decision of the court will satisfy them.

MOVES SLOWLY.

ELEVATED ROAD FRANCHISE.

With probably a trifle more activity than glacial movements the franchise for the long-proposed elevated road of the Pacific Electric Company, to connect the Sixth-street station with the municipally-owned line on San Pedro street, is crawling toward realization.

Months ago the company put in its application for the franchise. Then it was found, when surveys were made, that the tying points would require slight changes in the technical description. Weeks were consumed before the amended application was filed. Now this application rests in the hands of the Public Utilities Commission, where it has been for at least two weeks. It is being checked and the changes considered by Railroad Engineer Mohler of this department.

Yesterday Tax Agent Hill of the Pacific Electric was at the City Hall trying to get more life in the movement that will eventually bring the notice of sale before the Council for final action. Mohler stated yesterday that he expects to complete his work within two days. President Wright said that as soon as Mohler completes his investigations and report the subject will be sent at once to the Council.

TOO COSTLY.

WIDENING OF AN AVENUE.

President Handley of the Board of Public Works appeared before the City Council yesterday to present the situation in regard to the proposed widening of Dayton avenue. He declared that this project would cost $75,000, and that the character of the property is such that it will not stand this expense. He proposed that the Council order the street curbs set back three feet, or to the sidewalk line, thus providing ample space for the passage of vehicles between the car tracks and the walks, this making only a comparatively small expense.

Council Clerk Carroll stated that he had information that a very largely-signed protest will be filed against the proposed widening. The Council decided to make a personal inspection of the street, in company with members of the Board of Public Works.

PARK RESTRICTIONS.

MAY CLOSE AT SUNSET.

Because of the continuous reports that come from Griffith Park as to immoral and disorderly conditions at night along the Griffith Park roads, it is possible that the Park Commission may prohibit travel through the park after sunset.

Van M. Griffith, son of Col. Griffith J. Griffith, who donated the park to the city, laid complaints regarding conditions allowed to prevail there before Chairman Wheeler of the Council's Public Welfare Committee yesterday, and stated that he has affidavits to back his statements. He desires the city to employ mounted patrolmen for the park roads.

ARCADE DEPOT.

PERMIT IS APPLIED FOR.

Parkinson & Bergstrom, architects for the new Arcade station, made formal application to the building department of the city yesterday for the building permit for this structure. All the plans were submitted and this morning a corps of employees will begin checking. It is expected the work will be completed within two days. The company has already begun excavations on the land which the city has just vacated.

The application asks for a permit to erect a building to cost $300,000, 80x572 feet, with the front three stories and to be fifty-four feet in height at the highest point. The structure is to be of concrete and brick, and will be of class A and class C construction.

Cost of Engineering.

The City Engineer yesterday notified the Board of Public Works that he considers that engineering and inspection fees on public work should not exceed 7½ per cent. of the contract price of the work. This was brought about, by protest made by property owners against what was deemed excessive inspection fees on cement step construction at Loma Vista place, where the inspection cost $246.15. The Board of Public Works sustained the charge of the engineering department.

May Withhold Acceptance.

Fifty wagonloads of earth and rubbish lie on the lot of C. G. Pfeisterer at Thirty-fifth and Jefferson streets, whereas the lot was bare and clean before the improvement of a near-by street was undertaken. Pfeisterer has appealed to the Board of Public Works. Contractor Jake Hein says he didn't dump the earth and rubbish. He can't imagine how it got there; it must have just happened. Anyway, Hein will ask the board to accept his work on Pisarro street within a few days, and it is probable he'll be asked to clear the Pfeisterer lot before the board acts.

Numerous complaints have been received at the office of the Board of Public Works that contractors for street work use vacant lots along the work for the purpose of placing surplus earth, etc., without securing the required permission.

A Majority Protest.

The City Engineer yesterday reported that the protestants against the widening of West First street to 120 feet, and asking that it be paved at its present width, 82½ feet, have a majority petition. Out of the 35,045 feet of frontage they have signed up 17,899 feet, or 375 feet more than a majority. There is also a frontage of 1021½ feet on the petitions that has been incorrectly signed and therefore was not considered.

Municipal News Notes.

Two demands for damages were made to the Board of Public Works yesterday and were referred to the City Attorney. C. C. Burke asks for $104 damages sustained when he fell into an open manhole at First and Breed streets on January 13; and Miss Carrie Dipman wants $425 for damages she alleges she sustained on Broadway, near First street, when she stepped on a board laid over wet cement.

The Police Commission will meet Friday morning at 10 o'clock. No session was held yesterday, because the Mayor was tied up with other engagements.

Plans are being prepared by the City Engineer's office for the paving of Vernon avenue, from Main to Alameda streets. A strip in the center of the street will be left to be paved by the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, this being one of the requirements of its franchise for the cross-town line.

The Board of Public Works yesterday requested the City Prosecutor to file a complaint against the Santa Fe Railway Company for its failure to lower its tracks just north of Slauson avenue, so as to bring them to the street grade at Figueroa street and Vermont avenue. The board ordered this work done last December; then it gave the company sixty days' extension of time, but no start has been made.

At the Courthouse.

HUBBY TAUGHT WIFE TO DRINK.

ENCOURAGED HER IN HABIT AND THEN SUES FOR DIVORCE.

Judge Monroe Orders Payment of Alimony, but Warns Woman to Keep Away from Liquor or Husband May Go Into Court and Have Question Reopened.

The divorce suit of Emil Schloss, a traveling salesman and a relative of a wealthy California family, who asked for a decree on the ground that his wife, Nellie, is habitually intemperate, brought out the fact yesterday that Schloss taught his young wife how to drink and encouraged her in the habit.

In denying the decree Judge Monroe found that Mrs. Schloss was guilty of intoxication, but he also found that this did not inflict upon her husband a course of mental anguish as he alleged, as he was responsible for Mrs. Schloss originally acquiring the drinking habit.

"I am sorry you ever drank," the court said to Mrs. Schloss, who was quietly weeping. "I am sorry to hear that you were ever intoxicated. You must stop it. I have ordered your husband to pay you $50 a month for your support, but if you keep on drinking, he can come into court and have the question of alimony renewed. You say you will stop drinking, but I have not so much confidence in your quitting it. I hope you will. Your husband is older than you are. It was his duty under the circumstances not to bring this divorce suit, but to do the best for you in your affliction."

Schloss was 29 and Mrs. Schloss 17 when he took her away from her home at Las Vegas, N. M. When the marriage certificate was produced by Attorney Appel for Mrs. Schloss, it was seen that a correction had been made in the date. Instead of 1906 they were married in 1908. Mrs. Schloss testified she changed the figures at her husband's request.

LOVE QUICKLY COOLS.

HUSBAND TO PAY ALIMONY.

After fourteen years of married life, love seemed to cool in the case of C. C. Waite and his wife, Lesa. They separated in 1904 and yesterday Waite's divorce suit on the ground of desertion was called by Judge Monroe.

Waite is in the fruit business in the north and earns a large salary. The suit was originally set for trial there and sent here on a change of venue. Mrs. Waite is fighting the suit and in a cross-complaint charges desertion. She alleges that Waite went East and on his return, left home to go north. Waite says he endeavored to get his wife to join him. She had previously told him that she did not care for him.

Since the separation he has made her an allowance. Under an agreement he will give her $125 a month and $1000 in cash within fifteen days. The case was not concluded.

HOPELESS DISAGREEMENT.

SANITY CASE PUZZLES JURY.

Witnesses on both sides, with one exception, agreed that Aaron Nicholson, charged with insanity before Judge Wellborn yesterday in Department Sixteen, is insane, but the jury that tried the case divided evenly and reported a hopeless disagreement an hour after the case was put in its hands and was discharged.

Nicholson was taken in charge by the police last month when he visited police headquarters and told weird stories of attempted murder and persecution. His own story led the police to charge him with insanity.

Judge Hewitt ordered his commitment on the same testimony adduced yesterday, but Nicholson demanded a trial by jury. Because of his previous judgment Judge Hewitt asked Judge Wellborn to hear the case.

Three witnesses introduced by Deputy District Attorney Powell testified that Nicholson is insane. Two witnesses, one Nicholson's sister, testified, when called in his defense, that he is insane.

Nicholson testifying in his own behalf said he had taken a drink of whisky in a drug store at Rockford, Ill., four years ago and had been drugged. He was then led by strange men to a room and ordered to carve a dead body. He refused. They ordered him to commit suicide and tried to force him to shoot himself.

He said he could not remember this circumstance until two years afterwards when manifestations of thought transference impressed it on his mind and aroused him to the fact that enemies still pursue him. His testimony was given in streaks of incoherence and amazing lucidity.

Witnesses said his hallucination came from excessive use of snuff instead of thought transference. Nicholson said thought transference or mental telepathy had not only informed him of the pursuit, but had afflicted him with asthma, requiring the use of snuff. His sister said he had formerly been a heavy drinker.

Nicholson said he had studied psychiatry and he examined Dr. Pallette and Dr. Parks carefully as to their belief in mental telepathy.

EXPERTS DISAGREE AS USUAL.

Two sets of experts in the Holyoke will contest on trial in Judge Houser's court disagree as to the genuineness of the signature of Frank H. Holyoke, the wealthy Maine lumberman, who willed his estate to his nieces, Madeline and MarjorieHolyoke, to the exclusion of his widow and two sons, Sydney and Harry Holyoke. Experts E. K. Isaacs and J. W. Hood pronounced the signatures to three letters forgeries yesterday. Experts Milton Carlson and I. N. Inskeep said they are genuine.

These documents are of the utmost importance in the suit to break Holyoke's last will. One, an alleged confession, retracts all Holyoke said about his wife's chastity; one gives instruction to withdraw divorce papers from an eastern court and the other is virtually a will in favor of his wife.

Carlson's photographic copy of the alleged forged signature is ten feet long and seven and one-half inches high. This is said to be the largest exhibit of the kind produced in any court west of Chicago.

CHAIN GANG FOR SIMS.

ANOTHER WIFE NOW BOBS UP.

Arthur Sims has sprung a puzzle on Deputy District Attorney Selph. Judge Monroe disposed of one angle of Sims's case yesterday by sending him to the chain gang for two years for failing to support his child. The other angle which later on may bother Selph is another wife in San Diego left without support. The puzzle is can he be compelled to support both women.

Sims's excuse for having two wives is that he learned his wife was visiting a lawyer with the view of obtaining a divorce. Thinking the intention was as good as an actual decree, he wooed and wed the San Diego girl. The real Mrs. Sims, who had received no support from him since he left her last August, charged him with failure to provide. Sims was arrested, little reeking that he faced a bigamy charge.

He demurred to the sentence of two years on the chain gang, and thought he ought to have probation, but the court told him if the bigamy charge was pressed he could get five years in the penitentiary.

PASS BOOK IS LOST.

SUIT AGAINST BANK NEXT.

Because he could not obtain the cash deposited at the Security Trust and Savings Bank by the late J. D. O'Neill without O'Neill's pass book, which is apparently lost, Public Administrator Bryson went into the Probate Court and obtained an order from Judge Rives to bring suit against the bank.

The deposit, amounting to $500, was placed as a credit by Bryson and if it is recovered from the bank under the judgment of the court, it will be added to the balance of the estate and distributed to the heirs. Two claimants in Ireland have appeared as heirs of O'Neill. The estate worth $1500 is represented by Mott & Dillon.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

THROWN OUT. The demurrer of C. D. Warden to the suit of Joseph C. Blackinton to set aside a decree quieting title to a lot at Glendora was sustained by Judge Works yesterday without leave to amend. Warden originally brought suit against Blackinton and obtained judgment. In suit against Warden, Blackinton alleges he had received no notice to have the cause set for trial.

MONEY BACK. Adolphus Barley earned $1250 commission from J. F. Jack for locating him on 1280 acres in the Antelope Valley. Jack alleged, when he took possession of his ranch, that it was among sand dunes. He brought suit to recover the money he had paid Barley, and was awarded judgment by Judge Conley yesterday. The court thought a charitable view of the transaction would be to say that Barley, who is advanced in years, had made a mistake.

TO WHITTIER. Sam Shockley, aged 17 years, charged with stealing a motorcycle and riding it to Ventura, where he was captured, was sentenced to Whittier during his minority by Judge Taft yesterday. He was formerly a messenger boy.

ASKS INJUNCTION. The Puritas Laundry Company is seeking to have H. C. Gebhardt, a former driver, who left its employ and went with a rival laundry, enjoined from canvassing or soliciting for orders for laundry work and to have him surrender the list of names of Puritas customers.

JUDGE PRO TEM. Attorney Harry Holzer was selected by counsel to try the suit of the Funding Company of California against Moses Bros., involving a complicated legal point. This matter has been pending for some time, but owing to the congested condition of the calendar in the various departments, there was no opportunity to try it before a regular judge.

DAMAGE SUIT. As the result of an altercation in the City Council chamber at Manhattan last Saturday, Ernest Crooks alleges in a suit filed yesterday against Raymond C. Hill and Ernest E. Hager that he was roughly handled and thrown out of the chamber. He asks $10,000 damages for the pain and humiliation he alleges he suffered.

Homely and Aged Faces Now Easily Beautified.

(Aunt Sally in Woman's Realm)

I have seen the plainest women made beautiful and the complexion of good-looking women improved.—I've seen oldish faces made young and pretty, blemished and weather-beaten faces made spotless, white and satiny—in less than two weeks, by a very simple and harmless process that acts almost like a miracle. This is all there is to it: Ordinary mercolized wax, procurable at any drugstore (one ounce will do,) is applied nightly like cold cream, and washed off mornings. This gradually peels off the lifeless particles of surface skin, permitting the underlying skin to show itself. The newer, fresher skin, when wholly in evidence, forms a complexion which for beauty and youthfulness is incomparable with one produced by other means. A complexion so natural, so free from artificiality, no one guesses the secret of its acquirement. You'll not regret trying this really marvelous treatment.

Equally wonderful is the famous saxolite formula for removing wrinkles. One ounce powdered saxolite is dissolved in a half-pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this immediately erases the finer lines. Gradually even the deeper furrows and crow's feet vanish completely.
